“qualifying journey” means where—

- (a) a single journey of a distance of not less than three miles; or
- (b) where there is a specified need, a single journey of a distance of less than three miles;

“specified need” means where—

- (a) the supported person is unable or virtually unable to walk a distance of up to three miles by reason of a physical impediment or for some other reason; or
- (b) the supported person has one or more child dependants—
  - (i) aged under five; or
  - (ii) who are unable or virtually unable to walk a distance of up to three miles by reason of a physical impediment or for some other reason;

“supported person” means a person who is being provided with accommodation under section 4 of the 1999 Act and who is destitute; and

“voluntary sector partner” means an organisation funded by the Secretary of State to deliver aspects of asylum support services.

Travel

3.—(1) The Secretary of State may supply, or arrange for the supply of, facilities for travel for a qualifying journey to a supported person to—

- (a) receive healthcare treatment, provided that the supported person has provided evidence that the qualifying journey is necessary; or
- (b) register a birth.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), if the Secretary of State supplies, or arranges for the supply of, facilities for travel for a qualifying journey to a supported person under paragraph (1) then, if necessary, the Secretary of State may also supply, or arrange for the supply of, facilities for travel for that qualifying journey to—

- (a) one or more dependants of that supported person; and
- (b) in the case of a supported person who is a child—
  - (i) a parent or guardian of that supported person or a person who for the time being takes parental responsibility for that supported person; and
  - (ii) if the parent, guardian or person who for the time being takes parental responsibility for that supported person himself has dependants then one or more of his dependants.

(3) The Secretary of State may only supply, or arrange for the supply of, facilities for travel under paragraph (2) to persons who are supported persons.

(a) Section 4(2) to (4) were added by section 49(1) of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002. Section 4(5) to (9) were added by section 10(1) of the Asylum and Immigration (Treatment of Claimants, etc) Act 2004 (c.19). Section 4(10) and (11) were added by section 43(7) of the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006.

(b) Section 84(2) is substituted by section 84(2), inserted by section 37(1) of the Asylum and Immigration (Treatment of Claimants, etc) Act 2004.
