EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road (Fees) Regulations 1988 (“the 1988 Regulations”). The 1988 Regulations prescribe the fees payable in connection with the issue of special certificates of approval for vehicles used to carry dangerous goods, in pursuance of the European Agreement Concerning the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road (ADR). An “ADR certificate” is a special certificate of approval as defined in regulation 2 of the 1988 Regulations. “ADR” is the acronym for “Accord European Relatif au Transports International des Marchandises Dangereuses par Route”.

Regulation 3 substitutes a new definition of “ADR certificate” in regulation 2 of the 1988 Regulations.

Regulation 4 increases the fees prescribed by the 1988 Regulations where an ADR certificate is applied for. The increased fees are set out in the Table below (with the percentage increase since the fees were last fixed shown in brackets).

Table

Nature of service	Existing fee (£)	Substituted fee (£)
The inspection in relation to an application for an ADR certificate where the inspection is carried out on the same day as an examination under the Goods Vehicles (Plating and Testing) Regulations 1988.	82	87 (6.1%)
The inspection in relation to an application for an ADR certificate in any other case (plus the amount which would be payable in respect of an examination under the Goods Vehicles (Plating and Testing) Regulations 1988).	82	87 (6.1%)
Where a vehicle fails to pass an inspection and arrangements are made for a further inspection to be carried out not more than 14 days after the first inspection.	42	44 (4.8%)
Where the inspection in relation to an application for an ADR certificate is not arranged to be carried out on the same day as an examination under the Goods Vehicle (Plating and Testing) Regulations 1988, but is in fact carried out on the same day.	82	87 (6.1%)
The issue of a copy of an ADR certificate which has been lost or destroyed.	12	13 (8.3%)

Regulation 5 inserts a new regulation 3A into the 1988 Regulations to provide for a new fee regarding an application for a first ADR certificate in respect of a tractor for a semi trailer. The 2007 amendments to the ADR Agreement allow a physical inspection of a tractor for a semi trailer to be waived where it conforms to a tractor of an approved type, is subject to a declaration of conformity, and has not been modified so as to affect the validity of that declaration. In such cases, the fee payable will be £25, which will cover the administrative work required to process such an application. Regulation 5 also makes a consequential amendment to regulation 3.

Regulation 6 amends regulation 7(1) of the 1988 Regulations to require the fee prescribed by regulation 3A to accompany the application made for an ADR certificate.
