The Claims Management Services Tribunal Rules 2007

PART 4

Appeals from the Tribunal

Appeal remitted by the Court of Appeal for rehearing

31. Where the Court of Appeal remits an appeal to the Tribunal for rehearing and determination (“the rehearing”)—

- (a) these Rules, so far as relevant, must apply to the rehearing as they did to the original hearing of the appeal; and
- (b) the Tribunal must, within 28 days of the remittal, give directions in relation to the rehearing.
