

SCHEDULE 2

SCOTTISH PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION RULES

PART III

CONTESTED ELECTIONS

The Poll

Challenge of voter

- 45. A person shall not be prevented from voting by reason only that—
- (a) a candidate or the election or polling agent of a candidate or of a registered party standing nominated declares that he has reasonable cause to believe that the person has committed an offence of personation; or
 - (b) the person is arrested on the grounds that he is suspected of committing or about to commit such an offence.