The Commons Registration (England) Regulations 2008

PART 1

Preliminary

Appointment of persons to discharge functions of a registration authority

4. The Secretary of State may appoint—
- (a) the Planning Inspectorate as eligible to carry out the administration of applications made to, or proposals made by, a registration authority, which are referred by the registration authority to the Planning Inspectorate in accordance with these Regulations; and
 - (b) any person who is employed or otherwise engaged as one of the inspectors of the Planning Inspectorate, or is employed on its staff, as eligible to—
 - (i) determine an application or proposal which a registration authority has referred to the Planning Inspectorate in accordance with these Regulations; and
 - (ii) carry out any steps necessary for or incidental to that purpose (for example, conducting a public inquiry, a hearing or a site visit).
