 - (c) serve it on any special advocate.

(4) A hearing under this rule must take place in the absence of the specially represented party and that party's legal representative.

(5) The court will give permission to the Treasury to withhold closed material where it considers that disclosure of that material would be contrary to the public interest.

(6) Where the court gives permission to the Treasury to withhold closed material, the court will—

- (a) consider whether to direct the Treasury to serve a summary of that material on the specially represented party or that party's legal representative; but

- (b) ensure that such a summary does not contain material, the disclosure of which would be contrary to the public interest.

(7) Where the court does not give permission to the Treasury to withhold closed material from, or directs the Treasury to serve a summary of that material on, the specially represented party or that party's legal representative—

- (a) the Treasury are not required to serve that material or summary; but

 - (ii) in any other case, direct that the Treasury do not rely on the material or (as the case may be) on that which is required to be summarised.

(2) Where the judgment of the court does not include the full reasons for its decision, the court will serve on the Treasury and the special advocate a separate written judgment including those reasons.

(3) Where the court serves a separate written judgment under paragraph (2), the special advocate may apply to the court to amend that judgment and the judgment under paragraph (1) on the grounds that the separate written judgment under paragraph (2) contains material not in the judgment under paragraph (1) the disclosure of which would not be contrary to the public interest.

(4) The special advocate must serve a copy of the application under paragraph (3) on the Treasury.

(5) The court will give the special advocate and the Treasury an opportunity to file written submissions and may determine the application with or without a hearing.

(3) The Treasury may, within 5 days of being served with notice under paragraph (2), apply to the court to reconsider the terms of the order or direction or to review the terms of the proposed judgment if they consider—

- (a) their compliance with the order or direction; or

(4) Where the Treasury make an application under paragraph (3), they must at the same time serve on a special advocate, if one has been appointed—

- (a) a copy of the application;
- (b) a copy of the relevant document referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b); and
- (c) a copy of the notice served on the Treasury pursuant to paragraph (2).

(5) If a special advocate has been appointed, rule 79.26 (except for paragraphs (6) and (7)) will apply with any necessary modifications to the consideration of an application under paragraph (3) of this rule.

(6) The court will not serve notice on a party other than the Treasury as mentioned in paragraph (1) before the time for the Treasury to make an application under paragraph (3) has expired.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules amend the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 by—

- (a) amending rule 1.2 so that it is subject to both rules 76.2 and 79.2;
- (b) inserting a new Part 79 containing rules about financial restrictions proceedings under the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008; and
- (c) modifying the application of certain other Parts of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 for the purposes of those proceedings.

The Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 provides for financial restrictions proceedings, including the application to the High Court to set aside a financial restrictions decision. The new Part 79 inserted into the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 by these Rules sets out the procedure for such applications to the High Court and any appeal to the Court of Appeal.

Section 1 of Part 79 contains rules about the scope and application of the Part. In particular, rule 79.2 modifies the overriding objective in Part 1 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998, where Part 79 applies, to place a duty on the court to ensure that information is not disclosed contrary to the public interest and to require the court to read and give effect to the overriding objective in a way which is compatible with this duty.

Section 2 of Part 79 contains rules about the court procedure relating to applications to set aside a financial restrictions decision.

Section 3 of Part 79 provides that Part 52 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 applies to an appeal to the Court of Appeal against an order of the High Court in financial restrictions proceedings subject to rule 79.2 (modification of the overriding objective) and Section 4 of Part 79. A copy of the appellant's notice must be served on any special advocate (if one has been appointed).

Section 4 of Part 79 contains rules which apply to all financial restrictions proceedings and appeals against an order of the High Court in such proceedings. These include provision for—

- the notification by the court of the date, time and place fixed for a hearing (rule 79.16);
- hearings (rule 79.17);
- the appointment and function of a special advocate and the special advocate's communications with others (rules 79.18 to 79.21);
- the modification of the general rules of evidence and disclosure (rule 79.22);
- the search for, filing of and service of material (rule 79.23);
- the service and filing of redacted material by the Treasury (rule 79.24);
- the application by the Treasury to withhold closed material (rules 79.25 and 79.26);
- service by the court of a notice where there has been a failure to comply with a direction of the court (rule 79.27);
- the court to withhold all or some of its reasons when giving judgment where it is not possible to give reasons without disclosing information contrary to the public interest (rule 79.28);
- the application by the Treasury to the court for reconsideration of an order, direction or judgment where compliance with the order or direction or the notification to another party of any matter contained in the judgment, order or direction would cause information to be disclosed contrary to the public interest (rule 79.29); and
- disapplying rules 5.4, 5.4B and 5.4C to proceedings to which Part 79 applies or to any document relating to such proceedings (rule 79.30).
