Appointment of officers

8. Each food authority and port health authority must appoint officers for the purposes of the enforcement of these Regulations.

Duty to give assistance and provide information

9.—(1) Each competent and enforcement authority must give such assistance and information to any other competent or enforcement authority as it may reasonably require for the purpose of its duties under these Regulations.

(2) The Commissioners may disclose any information in their possession to a competent or enforcement authority for the purposes of these Regulations.

(3) No person, including a servant of the Crown, may disclose any information received from the Commissioners under paragraph (2) if—

- (a) the information relates to a person whose identity—
 - (i) is specified in the disclosure; or
 - (ii) can be deduced from the disclosure;
- (b) the disclosure is for a purpose other than the purposes specified in paragraph (2); and
- (c) the Commissioners have not given their prior consent to the disclosure.

(4) Any person who contravenes paragraph (3) is guilty of an offence.

Powers of entry E+W+S

10.—(1) An authorised officer may enter any premises at any reasonable hour for the purpose of ensuring that the provisions of these Regulations are being complied with.

[^{F41}(2) The authorised officer may take with them such other person as they consider necessary.]

(3) An authorised officer must not exercise the powers under paragraph (1) or (2) except on the production, if so required, of a duly authenticated document showing their authority.

(4) Admission to any premises used only as a private dwellinghouse may not be demanded as of right unless 24 hours notice of the intended entry has been given to the occupier or the entry is in accordance with a warrant granted under this regulation.

(5) If a justice of the peace, on sworn information in writing, is satisfied of the matters mentioned in paragraph (6), they may sign a warrant permitting an authorised officer to enter any premises, if needs be by reasonable force.

(6) The matters are that—

- (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that Condition A or B is met; and
- (b) Condition C, D or E is met.

(7) Condition A is that on the premises there are items or products of the type mentioned in regulation 11(1)(a) or documents or records of the type mentioned in regulation 11(1)(e) and that their inspection is likely to disclose evidence of a contravention of, or failure to comply with, these Regulations.

(8) Condition B is that a contravention of, or failure to comply with, these Regulations has occurred, is occurring or is about to occur on those premises.

(9) Condition C is that admission to the premises has been, or is likely to be, refused, and that the occupier has been informed (whether orally or in writing) that a warrant may be applied for.

(10) Condition D is that an asking for admission to the premises has been, or is likely to be, refused, and informing the occupier that a warrant under this regulation may be applied for may defeat the object of the entry.

(11) Condition E is that the premises are unoccupied or that the occupier is temporarily absent and it may defeat the object of the entry to await their return.

(12) A warrant granted under paragraph (5) —

- (a) is valid for one month, beginning with the day on which it is granted; and
- (b) must be produced for inspection to the person (if there is one) who appears to the officer to be the occupier of the premises.

(13) An authorised officer who enters any premises that are unoccupied or where the occupier is temporarily absent must leave the premises as effectively secured against unauthorised entry as when they found them.

[^{F43}(15) In this regulation, a reference to a justice of the peace includes, in Scotland, a reference to the sheriff.]

Powers of an authorised officer

- 11.—(1) An authorised officer (“O”) entering premises under regulation 10 may—
- (a) inspect the premises, and any still and any other plant, machinery or equipment on those premises, and any of the following items found on those premises—
 - (i) any spirit drink partly or fully packaged ready for sale;
 - (ii) any product purporting to be a spirit drink partly or fully packaged ready for sale;
 - (iii) any other liquid that the officer has reasonable grounds for believing is a distillate or drink (including any vessel in which the liquid is found);
 - (iv) any raw material or ingredients that may be used to produce any distillate or drink, including colourings and flavourings;
 - (v) any mash;
 - (vi) any empty container;
 - (vii) any label;
 - (viii) any packaging;
 - (ix) any advertising or promotional materials relating to a drink, or other documentation relating to a distillate or to a drink;
 - (b) search the premises;
 - (c) take samples;
 - (d) carry out any inquiries, examinations or tests;
 - (e) have access to, and inspect and copy, any documents or records (in whatever form they are held) relating to matters covered by these Regulations, and remove them to enable them to be copied;
 - (f) have access to, and inspect and check the data on, and operation of, any computer, and any associated electronic storage device or apparatus (“computer equipment”) that is, or has been in use in connection with, the documents or records mentioned in sub-paragraph (e), including data relating to deleted files and activity logs; and for this purpose O may require any person having charge of, or otherwise concerned with the operation of, the computer equipment to afford to O such assistance (including the provision of passwords) as O may reasonably require, and, during the course of the checks, O may recover data held on the computer equipment; and
 - (g) where a document or record mentioned in sub-paragraph (e) is kept by means of a computer, require the record to be produced in a form in which it may be taken away.
- (2) O may direct a person that the following must be left undisturbed for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of any examination or investigation—
- (a) any one or more of the items mentioned in paragraph (1)(a)(i) to (ix); and
 - (b) any premises on or in which any of those items are found.
- (3) A person is guilty of an offence if they fail to comply with a direction given to them by O under paragraph (2).
- (4) O may seize and detain any item of the type mentioned in paragraph (1)(a)(i) to (ix) that O has reason to believe may be required as evidence in proceedings under these Regulations.
- (5) O may seize as liable to destruction any product of the type mentioned in paragraph (1)(a)(i) or (ii)—
- (a) that O reasonably believes contravenes any provision of Regulation (EC) No 110/2008 mentioned in column 1 of Part 2 of Schedule 2, as read with any provision mentioned in any corresponding entry in column 2 of that Part of that Schedule; ^{F44}...

- [^{F45}(aa) that O reasonably believes contravenes any provision of Regulation (EU) 2019/787 mentioned in column 1 of Part 3 of Schedule 2, as read with any provision mentioned in any corresponding entry in column 2 of that Part of that Schedule; or]
- (b) in respect of which O reasonably believes that an offence has been committed under regulation 4(2).
- (6) O may seize any computer equipment for the purpose of copying documents or records of the type mentioned in paragraph (1)(e), and for checking the data on, and operation of, any computer equipment that is, or has been, in use in connection with, those documents or records (and in doing so may recover data), provided it is returned as soon as practicable and, in any event, within 28 days, beginning with the day on which the equipment is seized.
- (7) If O is not able to remove an item, product or computer equipment seized under paragraph (4), (5) or (6) immediately, they may—
- (a) mark it in any way that they see fit; and
- (b) give the person appearing to them to be in charge of the item, product or computer equipment a notice—
- (i) identifying it; and
- (ii) prohibiting the removal of the item, product or computer equipment from the premises on which it was found until it is collected by an authorised officer.
- (8) Any person, other than an authorised officer, who removes any item or product identified under paragraph (7) from the premises on which it was found is guilty of an offence.
- (9) O must not exercise the powers under this regulation except on the production, if so required, of a duly authenticated document showing their authority.

Procedure on seizure E+W+S

- 12.—(1) An authorised officer (“O”) must follow the procedures set out in this regulation if they seize anything under regulation 11(4), (5) or (6).
- (2) O must give to the person appearing to O to be in charge of the premises from which the seized item, product or computer equipment is seized (“the premises”) a notice that must state—
- (a) what O has seized;
- (b) when O seized it;
- (c) the grounds for the seizure of the item, product or equipment; and
- (d) the address to which, and the period during which, a claim may be made for the return of the item, product or equipment.
- (3) But where the premises are unoccupied, or no-one appears to O to be in charge of the premises, O must attach a notice to a conspicuous part of the premises, or to some conspicuous object on the premises, containing the information mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of paragraph (2).
- (4) A person having a proprietary interest in the seized item, product or computer equipment (including a creditor who has a debt secured on the item, product or computer equipment) may notify the enforcement authority of any claim that the seized item, product or equipment was not liable to seizure, setting out the grounds for the claim in full.

(5) The claim must be made within 28 days of the seizure, beginning on the day on which the seized item, product or computer equipment is seized, to the address specified in the seizure notice.

(6) If a notification of a claim is not received within 28 days in respect of an item seized under regulation 11(4), the enforcement authority may retain the seized item for as long as necessary while it is being held for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings or for use as evidence at a trial.

(7) If a notification of a claim is received within 28 days in respect of an item seized under regulation 11(4), the enforcement authority must—

- (a) return the seized item within 28 days, beginning with the day on which the claim is received; or
- (b) retain the seized item or product for as long as necessary while it is being held for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings, or for use as evidence at a trial, but it must notify the claimant that the seized item is being retained, and of the reason why it is being retained within 28 days, beginning with the day on which the claim is received.

(8) If a notification of a claim is not received within 28 days in respect of a product seized under regulation 11(5), the enforcement authority may—

- (a) if a decision is taken by the enforcement authority not to destroy the seized product but to retain it for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings, or for use as evidence at a trial, retain the seized product for as long as necessary for one of those purposes, but the enforcement authority must—
 - (i) notify the relevant person that the seized product is being retained, and of the reason why it is being retained, within 28 days of the expiry of the claim period, beginning with the day after the claim period expires; or
 - (ii) where the enforcement authority does not know who the relevant person is, and this cannot be ascertained after reasonable enquiries have been made by the enforcement authority, attach a notice to a conspicuous part of the premises, or a conspicuous object on those premises, within 28 days of the expiry of the claim period, beginning with the day after the claim period expires, stating that the seized product is being retained, and the reason why it is being retained; or
- (b) destroy the seized product within 28 days, beginning with the day after the 28 day claim period expires, if it reasonably believes that the product contravenes these Regulations, and —
 - (i) notify the relevant person that the seized product has been destroyed within 10 days of its destruction, beginning with the day on which the product is destroyed (or the last day of destruction where the destruction of the product takes place on more than one day); or
 - (ii) where the enforcement authority does not know who the relevant person is, and this cannot be ascertained after reasonable enquiries have been made by the enforcement authority, attach a notice to a conspicuous part of the premises, or to a conspicuous object on those premises, within 10 days of the destruction of the product, beginning with the day on which the product is destroyed (or the last day of destruction where the destruction of the product takes place on more than one day) stating that the seized product has been destroyed.

(9) In paragraph (8) the “relevant person” means—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Spirit Drinks Regulations 2008. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) if the enforcement authority knows the identity of a person with a proprietary interest in the seized product, that person or (where more they know the identity of more than one person with a proprietary interest in the seized property) each of those persons; or
 - (b) if the enforcement authority does not know the identity of a person with a proprietary interest in the seized product, the person appearing to them to be in charge of the premises.
- (10) In the case of any product destroyed under paragraph (8)(b), the enforcement authority may recover the following costs as a debt from any person who had a proprietary interest in the product immediately before its destruction (apart from a creditor who has a debt secured on the product)—
- (a) the costs of the removal and transport of the product from the premises to the place at which it is stored;
 - (b) the costs of the storage of the product for up to 28 days;
 - (c) any costs for the removal and transport of the product if it is moved from one place of storage to another place of storage;
 - (d) the costs of the transport of the product from the place of storage to the place of destruction; and
 - (e) the costs of the destruction of the product.
- (11) If a notification of a claim is received within 28 days in respect of an item seized under regulation 11(5), the enforcement authority must—
- (a) return the seized product within 28 days, beginning with the day on which the claim is received;
 - (b) if a decision is taken by the enforcement authority not to destroy the seized product but to retain it for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings or for use as evidence at a trial, retain the product for as long as necessary for one of those purposes but the enforcement authority must notify the claimant that the seized product is being retained, and of the reason why it is being retained, within 28 days of the claim, beginning with the day on which the claim is received; or
 - (c) within 28 days of the claim, beginning with the day on which the claim is received, take proceedings (“paragraph (11)(c) proceedings”) in a relevant court for an order giving them authority to destroy the product.
- (12) In paragraph (11)(c) proceedings the relevant court may—
- (a) authorise the enforcement authority to destroy the seized product;
 - (b) authorise the enforcement authority to retain the product for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings, or for use as evidence at a trial, for as long as necessary for one of those purposes; or
 - (c) require the enforcement authority to return the product to the claimant and impose a deadline by which this must be done.
- (13) If, in paragraph (11)(c) proceedings, the relevant court authorises the enforcement authority to destroy the seized product, it may also make an order requiring the claimant (but not a claimant who is a creditor with a debt secured on the product) to pay such of the following costs as the court may specify—
- (a) the costs of the removal and transport of the product from the premises to the place at which it is stored;
 - (b) the costs of the storage of the product for up to 28 days;
 - (c) any costs for the removal and transport of the product if it is moved from one place of storage to another place of storage;

(d) the costs of the transport of the product from the place of storage to the place of destruction; and

(e) the costs of the destruction of the product.

(14) If a notification of a claim is received within 28 days in the case of any computer equipment seized under regulation 11(6), the enforcement authority must—

(a) return the seized computer equipment within 7 days of the claim, beginning with the day on which the claim is received, or, if shorter, within the remainder of the maximum 28 day period provided for in regulation 11(6); or

(b) take proceedings in a relevant court within 7 days of the claim, beginning with the day on which the claim is received unless there are 7 days or less remaining before the expiry of the maximum 28 day period provided for in regulation 11(6), for an order authorising the enforcement authority to retain the seized computer equipment in accordance with the requirements laid down in regulation 11(6).

(15) If, in the case of any computer equipment seized under regulation 11(6), the relevant court authorises the enforcement authority to retain the seized computer equipment, they may impose conditions as to the basis on which the equipment may continue to be retained, including the imposition of a deadline by which the equipment must be returned that is shorter than the 28 day maximum period provided for in regulation 11(6).

[^{F46}(16) The procedure in a magistrates' court under this regulation is by way of complaint, and, in England and Wales, the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 applies to the proceedings.]

(17) The procedure before the sheriff under this regulation is by way of summary application.

F46 Reg. 12(16) substituted (E.W.S.) (31.12.2020) by The Agricultural Products, Food and Drink \(Amendment etc.\) \(EU Exit\) Regulations 2020 (S.I. 2020/1637), regs. 1(7), 10(8)

Procedure on seizure N.I.

12.—(1) An authorised officer (“O”) must follow the procedures set out in this regulation if they seize anything under regulation 11(4), (5) or (6).

(2) O must give to the person appearing to O to be in charge of the premises from which the seized item, product or computer equipment is seized (“the premises”) a notice that must state—

(a) what O has seized;

(b) when O seized it;

(c) the grounds for the seizure of the item, product or equipment; and

(d) the address to which, and the period during which, a claim may be made for the return of the item, product or equipment.

(3) But where the premises are unoccupied, or no-one appears to O to be in charge of the premises, O must attach a notice to a conspicuous part of the premises, or to some conspicuous object on the premises, containing the information mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of paragraph (2).

(4) A person having a proprietary interest in the seized item, product or computer equipment (including a creditor who has a debt secured on the item, product or computer equipment) may notify

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Spirit Drinks Regulations 2008. (See end of Document for details)

the enforcement authority of any claim that the seized item, product or equipment was not liable to seizure, setting out the grounds for the claim in full.

(5) The claim must be made within 28 days of the seizure, beginning on the day on which the seized item, product or computer equipment is seized, to the address specified in the seizure notice.

(6) If a notification of a claim is not received within 28 days in respect of an item seized under regulation 11(4), the enforcement authority may retain the seized item for as long as necessary while it is being held for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings or for use as evidence at a trial.

(7) If a notification of a claim is received within 28 days in respect of an item seized under regulation 11(4), the enforcement authority must—

- (a) return the seized item within 28 days, beginning with the day on which the claim is received; or
- (b) retain the seized item or product for as long as necessary while it is being held for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings, or for use as evidence at a trial, but it must notify the claimant that the seized item is being retained, and of the reason why it is being retained within 28 days, beginning with the day on which the claim is received.

(8) If a notification of a claim is not received within 28 days in respect of a product seized under regulation 11(5), the enforcement authority may—

- (a) if a decision is taken by the enforcement authority not to destroy the seized product but to retain it for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings, or for use as evidence at a trial, retain the seized product for as long as necessary for one of those purposes, but the enforcement authority must—
 - (i) notify the relevant person that the seized product is being retained, and of the reason why it is being retained, within 28 days of the expiry of the claim period, beginning with the day after the claim period expires; or
 - (ii) where the enforcement authority does not know who the relevant person is, and this cannot be ascertained after reasonable enquiries have been made by the enforcement authority, attach a notice to a conspicuous part of the premises, or a conspicuous object on those premises, within 28 days of the expiry of the claim period, beginning with the day after the claim period expires, stating that the seized product is being retained, and the reason why it is being retained; or
- (b) destroy the seized product within 28 days, beginning with the day after the 28 day claim period expires, if it reasonably believes that the product contravenes these Regulations, and —
 - (i) notify the relevant person that the seized product has been destroyed within 10 days of its destruction, beginning with the day on which the product is destroyed (or the last day of destruction where the destruction of the product takes place on more than one day); or
 - (ii) where the enforcement authority does not know who the relevant person is, and this cannot be ascertained after reasonable enquiries have been made by the enforcement authority, attach a notice to a conspicuous part of the premises, or to a conspicuous object on those premises, within 10 days of the destruction of the product, beginning with the day on which the product is destroyed (or the last day of destruction where the destruction of the product takes place on more than one day) stating that the seized product has been destroyed.

(9) In paragraph (8) the “relevant person” means—

- (a) if the enforcement authority knows the identity of a person with a proprietary interest in the seized product, that person or (where more they know the identity of more than one person with a proprietary interest in the seized property) each of those persons; or
 - (b) if the enforcement authority does not know the identity of a person with a proprietary interest in the seized product, the person appearing to them to be in charge of the premises.
- (10) In the case of any product destroyed under paragraph (8)(b), the enforcement authority may recover the following costs as a debt from any person who had a proprietary interest in the product immediately before its destruction (apart from a creditor who has a debt secured on the product)—
- (a) the costs of the removal and transport of the product from the premises to the place at which it is stored;
 - (b) the costs of the storage of the product for up to 28 days;
 - (c) any costs for the removal and transport of the product if it is moved from one place of storage to another place of storage;
 - (d) the costs of the transport of the product from the place of storage to the place of destruction; and
 - (e) the costs of the destruction of the product.
- (11) If a notification of a claim is received within 28 days in respect of an item seized under regulation 11(5), the enforcement authority must—
- (a) return the seized product within 28 days, beginning with the day on which the claim is received;
 - (b) if a decision is taken by the enforcement authority not to destroy the seized product but to retain it for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings or for use as evidence at a trial, retain the product for as long as necessary for one of those purposes but the enforcement authority must notify the claimant that the seized product is being retained, and of the reason why it is being retained, within 28 days of the claim, beginning with the day on which the claim is received; or
 - (c) within 28 days of the claim, beginning with the day on which the claim is received, take proceedings (“paragraph (11)(c) proceedings”) in a [^{F82}magistrates' court] for an order giving them authority to destroy the product.
- (12) In paragraph (11)(c) proceedings the [^{F82}magistrates' court] may—
- (a) authorise the enforcement authority to destroy the seized product;
 - (b) authorise the enforcement authority to retain the product for the purpose of any criminal investigation or proceedings, or for use as evidence at a trial, for as long as necessary for one of those purposes; or
 - (c) require the enforcement authority to return the product to the claimant and impose a deadline by which this must be done.
- (13) If, in paragraph (11)(c) proceedings, the [^{F82}magistrates' court] authorises the enforcement authority to destroy the seized product, it may also make an order requiring the claimant (but not a claimant who is a creditor with a debt secured on the product) to pay such of the following costs as the court may specify—
- (a) the costs of the removal and transport of the product from the premises to the place at which it is stored;
 - (b) the costs of the storage of the product for up to 28 days;
 - (c) any costs for the removal and transport of the product if it is moved from one place of storage to another place of storage;

- (d) the costs of the transport of the product from the place of storage to the place of destruction; and
- (e) the costs of the destruction of the product.

(14) If a notification of a claim is received within 28 days in the case of any computer equipment seized under regulation 11(6), the enforcement authority must—

- (a) return the seized computer equipment within 7 days of the claim, beginning with the day on which the claim is received, or, if shorter, within the remainder of the maximum 28 day period provided for in regulation 11(6); or
- (b) take proceedings in a [^{F82}magistrates' court] within 7 days of the claim, beginning with the day on which the claim is received unless there are 7 days or less remaining before the expiry of the maximum 28 day period provided for in regulation 11(6), for an order authorising the enforcement authority to retain the seized computer equipment in accordance with the requirements laid down in regulation 11(6).

(15) If, in the case of any computer equipment seized under regulation 11(6), the [^{F82}magistrates' court] authorises the enforcement authority to retain the seized computer equipment, they may impose conditions as to the basis on which the equipment may continue to be retained, including the imposition of a deadline by which the equipment must be returned that is shorter than the 28 day maximum period provided for in regulation 11(6).

Offences by bodies corporate etc.

19.—(1) Where an offence committed by a body corporate (other than a limited liability partnership or a Scottish partnership) is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to the neglect of, an officer of the body corporate, or a person purporting to act in such a capacity, that officer or person (as well as the body corporate) is guilty of the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, paragraph (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member, and a person purporting to act in such a capacity, in connection with the member's functions of management as it applies to an officer of a body corporate.

(3) Where an offence committed by an unincorporated body (other than an unincorporated partnership) is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to the neglect on the part of, any officer of that body or a person purporting to act in such a capacity, that officer or person (as well as the unincorporated body) is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where an offence committed by a partnership (including a limited liability partnership and a Scottish partnership) is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to the neglect of a partner, or a person purporting to act in such a capacity, the partner or person (as well as the partnership) is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(5) In this regulation "offence" means an offence under these Regulations.

Default of third person

20. Where the commission by one person ("A") of an offence under these Regulations is due to the act or default of another ("B"), B also commits the offence, and B may be charged with and convicted of the offence by virtue of this paragraph whether or not proceedings are taken against A.

Defences

21.—(1) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under these Regulations to prove that they took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence.

(2) A may not rely on a defence that involves an allegation that the commission of the offence was due to the act or default of B unless—

- (a) at least seven clear days before the hearing A has given to the prosecutor a notice in writing giving such information identifying or assisting in the identification of B as was then in their possession; or
- (b) the court grants them leave.

(3) In proceedings for an offence under regulation 4\(1\) as read with the provisions of Regulation 110/2008 mentioned in Part 2 of Schedule 2 insofar as they apply to the advertisement of spirit drinks, or an offence under regulation 4\(2\) committed by the way in which a spirit drink is advertised, it is a defence for the person charged with the offence to prove that—

- (a) at the time of the alleged offence they were a person whose business it was to publish or arrange for the publication of advertisements;
 - (b) they received the advertisement for publication in the ordinary course of business; and
 - (c) they did not know, and had no reason to suspect, that publication of the advertisement would constitute an offence under these Regulations.
- (4) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under regulation 9(4) to prove that they reasonably believed—
- (a) that it was lawful to disclose the information disclosed; or
 - (b) that the information disclosed had already and lawfully been made available to the public.

Giving of penalty notice for penalty offence

22. An enforcement authority may give a penalty notice to a person (“P”) where the authority has reason to believe that P has—

- (a) committed an offence under regulation 4(1) by contravening or failing to comply with a provision of Regulation (EC) No 110/2008 mentioned in Schedule 3; ^{F49} ...
- (b) committed an offence under regulation 4(2)^{F50}; or]
- ^{F51}(c) committed an offence under regulation 4(5) by contravening Article 1 of Regulation (EU) No 936/2009.]

Contents of penalty notice

23. A penalty notice given by an enforcement authority must—
- (a) give such particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information about the offence;
 - (b) state the amount of the penalty;
 - (c) state the period during which, by virtue of regulation 25, proceedings will not be taken for the offence;
 - (d) state the person to whom, and the address at which, the penalty may be paid, and the ways in which the penalty may be paid; and
 - (e) state that payment must not be made in cash.

Amount of penalty

24.—(1) The amount of the penalty must be determined by the enforcement authority and must not be less than £1,000 or more than £4,000.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Spirit Drinks Regulations 2008. (See end of Document for details)

(2) The factors to be taken into account by the enforcement authority in determining the amount of the penalty may include the factors mentioned in Schedule 4.

Restriction on proceedings for penalty offence

25.—(1) Where a person is given a penalty notice—

- (a) no proceedings may be brought against them for the penalty offence to which that notice relates before the end of the period of 28 days, beginning with the day on which they were given the notice; and
- (b) that person may not be convicted of the offence if the penalty is paid in accordance with regulation 26 before the end of that period.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply if the penalty notice is withdrawn in accordance with regulation 29.

Payment of penalty

26.—(1) Payment of any penalty must be made to the person specified in the penalty notice by sending it by post or by such method as may be specified in the notice.

(2) Payment of any penalty may not be made in cash.

Certificate of payment or non-payment of a penalty

27. In any proceedings a certificate purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the enforcement authority, stating that payment in respect of a penalty notice was or was not received on or before a date specified in the certificate is evidence of the facts stated.

Penalty receipts

28. Penalties paid to an enforcement authority must be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Withdrawal of penalty notice

29.—(1) A penalty notice may be withdrawn by an enforcement authority which has reason to believe that it ought not to have been given (whether to the person named in the penalty notice or otherwise).

(2) A penalty notice may be withdrawn by the enforcement authority giving written notice to the person named in the penalty notice before or after payment of the penalty.

(3) Where an enforcement authority withdraws a penalty notice it must repay any penalty paid under the penalty notice to the person named in the penalty notice within 28 days, beginning with the day on which the notice of the withdrawal of the penalty notice is given.

Giving of notices

30.—(1) Any notice required to be given under these Regulations to any person may be given to them by—

- (a) delivering it to them;
- (b) leaving it at their proper address; or
- (c) sending it to them by post at that address.

(2) The notice may be given to a body corporate by being given to an officer of that body.

(3) The notice may be given to a limited liability partnership, Scottish partnership or unincorporated partnership by being given to a partner or a person having control or management of the partnership business.

(4) The notice may be given to any other unincorporated body by being given to an officer of that body.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation and section 7 of the Interpretation Act 1978⁽⁵⁾ (service of documents by post) in its application to this regulation, the proper address of any person to whom a notice is to be given is—

- (a) in the case of a body corporate, the address of the registered or principal office of the body;
- (b) in the case of a limited liability partnership or a Scottish partnership, the address of the registered or principal office of the partnership;
- (c) in the case of an unincorporated partnership or any other unincorporated body, the address of the principal office of the partnership or body;
- (d) in the case of a person to whom the notice is given in reliance of any of paragraph (2), (3) or (4), the proper address of the body corporate, partnership or other unincorporated body in question; and
- (e) in any other case, the last known address of the person in question.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (5) the references to “the principal office” in relation to a company which is registered outside the United Kingdom, a partnership which is carrying on business outside the United Kingdom and any other unincorporated body which has its principal office outside the United Kingdom, include a reference, in each case, to their principal office within the United Kingdom (if any).

(7) Paragraph (8) applies if a person to be given a notice under these Regulations has specified an address (“the specified address”) within the United Kingdom other than their proper address (as decided under paragraph (5)) as the one at which they, or someone on their behalf, will accept documents of the same description as a notice given under these Regulations.

(8) The specified address is also to be treated for the purposes of this regulation and section 7 of the Interpretation Act 1978 in its application to this regulation as the person’s proper address.

[^{F52}(9) In relation to Wales, any notice required to be given under these Regulations to any person must be in English and Welsh.]

(10) In this regulation “body corporate” does not include a limited liability partnership or a Scottish partnership.
