
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2008 No. 668

The Consumer Credit Appeals Tribunal Rules 2008

PART 5

Appeals from the Tribunal

Appeal remitted by the Court of Appeal or the Court of Session for rehearing

- 30. Where the Court of Appeal or the Court of Session remits an appeal to the Tribunal—
- (a) these Rules, so far as relevant and subject to any direction that the court may give when remitting the matter, apply to the remitted case as they did to the original hearing of the appeal; and
 - (b) the Tribunal must, within 28 days of the remittal, give directions in relation to the case.