The Waste Batteries and Accumulators Regulations 2009

PART 12

ENFORCEMENT

Powers of entry and inspection

88.—(1) For the purposes of carrying out any functions under these Regulations, an enforcement officer may exercise the powers of entry and inspection in this regulation.

(2) Subject to the production if so requested of evidence of authorisation as an enforcement officer, an enforcement officer may—

- (a) enter at any reasonable time any premises (other than premises occupied only as a person's residence) which that officer considers it necessary to enter;
- (b) on entering any premises by virtue of sub-paragraph (a)—
 - (i) be accompanied by such other persons as may appear to the officer necessary and, where there is reasonable cause to apprehend any serious obstruction in the execution of the enforcement officer's duty, a constable; and
 - (ii) take any equipment or materials required for any purpose for which the power of entry is being exercised;
- (c) make such examination and investigation as may in the circumstances be necessary;
- (d) take such measurements and photographs and make such recordings as are considered necessary for the purpose of any examination or investigation under sub-paragraph (c);
- (e) take samples, or cause samples to be taken, of any records, parts of any records, copies of any records, copies of parts of any records, products and parts of products found in or on any premises which the enforcement officer has power to enter;
- (f) in the case of any such sample of a record or product as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (e), take possession of it and detain it for so long as is necessary for any of the following purposes—
 - (i) to examine it, or cause it to be examined, and to do, or cause to be done, to it anything which the enforcement officer has the power to do under that sub-paragraph;
 - (ii) to ensure that it is not tampered with before examination of it is completed; and
 - (iii) to ensure that it is available for use as evidence in any proceedings for an offence under these Regulations or in any other proceedings relating to an enforcement notice under regulation 87;
- (g) require any person who is considered to be able to give information relevant to any examination or investigation under sub-paragraph (c) to answer (in the absence of any person other than a person nominated by that person to be present and any person whom the enforcement officer may allow to be present) such questions as the enforcement officer thinks fit to ask and to sign a declaration of the truth of the answers given;

- (h) require the production of, or where the information is recorded in computerised form the furnishing of extracts from, any records—
 - (i) which are required to be kept under these Regulations, or
 - (ii) which it is necessary to see for the purposes of an examination or investigation under sub-paragraph (c), and inspect and take copies of, or of any entry in, the records; and
 - (i) require any person to afford such facilities and assistance with respect to any matters or things within that person's control or in relation to which that person has responsibilities as are necessary to enable the enforcement officer to exercise any of the powers conferred on the enforcement officer by this regulation.
- (3) In the application of paragraph (2)(b)(i) to Northern Ireland, “constable” has the meaning given in section 43A of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 ^{M1}.
- (4) If a justice of the peace, on written information on oath—
 - (a) is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that any information or material relevant to any examination or investigation under paragraph (2)(c) is on any premises; and
 - (b) is also satisfied either that—
 - (i) admission to the premises has been, or is likely to be, refused, and that notice of intention to apply for a warrant has been given to the occupier; or
 - (ii) an application for admission, or the giving of such a notice would defeat the object of the entry, or that the case is one of urgency, or that the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent, the justice may by warrant under the justice's hand, which continues in force for a period of one month, authorise the enforcement officer to enter the premises, if need be by force.
- (5) In the application of paragraph (4)—
 - (a) to Scotland, “justice of the peace” includes a sheriff and a stipendiary magistrate and references to written information on oath are to be construed as references to evidence on oath; and
 - (b) to Northern Ireland, the references to a “justice of the peace” are to be construed as being references to a “lay magistrate” as defined in section 9 of the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2002 ^{M2}.
- (6) An enforcement officer on entering any premises by virtue of this regulation may direct that those premises, or any part of them, or anything in them, must be left undisturbed (whether generally or in particular respects) for so long as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of any examination or investigation under paragraph (2)(c).
- (7) An enforcement officer who by virtue of this regulation enters any premises which are unoccupied or from which the occupier is temporarily absent, must leave them as effectively secured against unauthorised entry as they were found.
- (8) Nothing in this regulation authorises any person to stop any vehicle on a highway.
- (9) No answer given by a person in pursuance of a requirement imposed under paragraph (2) (g) is admissible in evidence in England, Wales and Northern Ireland against that person in any proceedings, or in Scotland against that person in any criminal proceedings.
- (10) Nothing in this regulation compels the production by any person of a document of which that person would be entitled to withhold production on grounds of—
 - (a) legal professional privilege on an order for discovery in an action in the High Court; or
 - (b) confidentiality in proceedings in the Court of Session in Scotland.

- (11) In these Regulations “enforcement officer” means—
- (a) an officer of an enforcement authority who is authorised in writing by that authority to act as an enforcement officer for the purposes of this Part; and
 - (b) a person authorised in writing by the Secretary of State to act as an enforcement officer for the purposes of this Part.
