

SCHEDULE

Article 3

Provision of information as to compliance with licensed body's licence

1.—(1) The High Court, on the application of the Council for Licensed Conveyancers, may order a person who does not fall within section 93(2) of the 2007 Act (information) to—

- (a) provide information, or information of a description, specified in the order; or
- (b) produce documents, or documents of a description, specified in the order.

(2) The High Court may make an order under this paragraph only if it is satisfied that—

- (a) it is likely that the information or document is in the possession or custody of, or under the control of, the person; and
- (b) there is reasonable cause to believe that the information or document is likely to be of material significance for the purpose of enabling the Council for Licensed Conveyancers to ascertain whether the terms of a licensed body's licence are being, or have been, complied with.

(3) An order under this paragraph may direct the Council for Licensed Conveyancers to pay to a person specified in the order such reasonable costs as may be incurred by that person in connection with the provision of any information, or production of any document, by that person pursuant to the order.

(4) An order under this paragraph —

- (a) may specify the time and place at which, and the manner and form in which, the information is to be provided or the document is to be produced;
- (b) must specify the period within which the information is to be provided or the document produced;
- (c) may require the information to be provided, or the document to be produced, to the Council for Licensed Conveyancers or to a person specified in the order.

(5) Paragraphs 10, 12, 13 and 15 to 17 of Schedule 14 to the 2007 Act apply in relation to an order under this paragraph as they apply in relation to an order under paragraph 9 of that Schedule, except that for this purpose, each reference to the licensing authority in paragraph 13(1) and (2) of that Schedule is to be construed as including a reference to any person specified under sub-paragraph (4) (c) of this paragraph.

Bank accounts of licensed bodies

2.—(1) This paragraph applies where a licensed body keeps an account with a bank or a building society in accordance with licensing rules made by the Council for Licensed Conveyancers.

(2) The bank or building society—

- (a) does not incur any liability;
- (b) is not under any obligation to make any inquiry;
- (c) is not deemed to have any knowledge of any right of any person to any money paid or credited to the account, which it would not incur, or be under, or be deemed to have, in the case of an account kept by a person entitled absolutely to all the money paid or credited to it.

(3) The bank or building society has no recourse or right against money standing to the credit of the account, in respect of any liability of the licensed body to the bank or society, other than a liability in connection with the account.

(4) In this paragraph—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (a) “bank” means—
  - (i) the Bank of England;
  - (ii) a person (other than a building society) who under Part 4 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(1) has permission to accept deposits;
  - (iii) an EEA firm of the kind mentioned in paragraph 5(b) of Schedule 3(2) to that Act that has permission under paragraph 15 of that Schedule(3) (as a result of qualifying for authorisation under paragraph 12(1) of that Schedule(4)) to accept deposits; and
- (b) “building society” means a building society incorporated (or deemed to be incorporated) under the Building Societies Act 1986(5).

Modifications to existing enactments relating to conveyancing etc

3.—(1) Any reference to a solicitor to which this sub-paragraph applies shall be construed as including a reference to a licensed body.

(2) Any reference to a person’s solicitor to which this sub-paragraph applies shall be construed as including a reference to a licensed body acting for that person.

(3) Sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) apply to any such reference in sections 10(2), 48 and 182 of the Law of Property Act 1925(6).

4. The Estate Agents Act 1979(7) shall not, by virtue of section 1 of that Act, apply to things done in the course of the provision of conveyancing services by a licensed body.

Interpretation

5. In this Schedule—

- (a) “the 2007 Act” means the Legal Services Act 2007;
- (b) “licensed body” means a licensed body which holds a licence issued by the Council for Licensed Conveyancers which is in force under Part 5 of the 2007 Act; and
- (c) references to the Council for Licensed Conveyancers are to the Council for Licensed Conveyancers in its capacity as a licensing authority.
