2011 No. 2131

The Plant Protection Products Regulations 2011

Citation, commencement, extent and review

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Plant Protection Products Regulations 2011 and come into force on 24th September 2011.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3) and subject to paragraphs (4) and (5), these Regulations extend to Great Britain.

(3) Regulation 4 extends to the United Kingdom.

(4) Any amendment made by Schedule 4 has the same extent as that of the enactment, or instrument made by the Scottish Parliament, to which it relates.

(5) Any revocation made by Schedule 5 has the same extent as that of the enactment, or instrument made by the Scottish Parliament, to which it relates.

(6) Before the end of each review period, the Secretary of State must—

- (a) carry out a review of regulations 2 to 31;
- (b) set out the conclusions of the review in a report; and
- (c) publish the report.

(7) The review shall relate to the operation of these Regulations as they have effect in relation to England<sup>F1</sup>... only.

(8) In carrying out the review the Secretary of State must, so far as is reasonable, have regard to how Regulation 1107/2009 (which is implemented by means of these Regulations) is implemented in other Member States.

(9) The report must in particular—

- (a) set out the objectives intended to be achieved by the regulatory system established by these Regulations;
- (b) assess the extent to which those objectives are achieved; and
- (c) assess whether those objectives remain appropriate and, if so, the extent to which they could be achieved with a system that imposes less regulation.

(10) If a report under these Regulations is published before the last day of the review period to which it relates, the following review period is to begin with the day on which that report is published.

(11) “review period” means—

- (a) the period of five years beginning with the day on which these Regulations come into force, and
- (b) subject to paragraph (10), each successive period of five years.

Obstruction of an authorised person

22.—(1) A person—

- (a) must not intentionally obstruct any person performing his or her functions under these Regulations; and
- (b) must comply with any requirement made by an authorised person performing his or her functions under these Regulations.

(2) A person purporting to give information required by an authorised person performing his or her functions under these Regulations must not—

- (a) make a statement which they know to be false in a material particular;
- (b) recklessly make a statement which is false in a material particular; or
- (c) intentionally fail to disclose any material particular.

Offence

23. A person who contravenes or fails to comply with—

- (a) any paragraph of regulations 9 to 13, 15 to 19, or 22;
- (b) regulation 14(1) or 14(3);
- (c) regulation 20(1), 20(3), 20(4) or 20(5);
- (d) regulation 21(1);

- (e) Article 56(1);
- (f) Article 56(4); or
- (g) the second sentence of Article 62(2),

is guilty of an offence.

Offences by bodies corporate

24.—(1) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence under these Regulations, and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of—

- (a) any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate; or
- (b) any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he or she, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of the offence and be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) In paragraph (1) “director”, in relation to a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, means a member of the body corporate.

(3) Where an offence under these Regulations is committed in Scotland by a Scottish partnership and is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of a partner or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he or she as well as the partnership shall be guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Defences

25.—(1) In any proceedings for an offence under these Regulations, other than in relation to regulation 15(2), 22(1)(a) or 22(2), it is a defence for the person charged to prove that they took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence.

(2) A person is to be taken to have established the defence provided by paragraph (1) if they prove—

- (a) that they acted under instructions given to them by their employer; or
- (b) that they acted in reliance on information supplied by another person without any reason to suppose that the information was false or misleading, and in either case that they took all such steps as were reasonably open to them to ensure that no offence would be committed.

(3) If, in any case, the defence provided by paragraph (1) involves an allegation that the commission of the offence was due to—

- (a) an act or omission by another person, other than the giving of instructions to the person charged with the offence by their employer; or
- (b) reliance on information supplied by another person,
