
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2011 No. 2914

The Local Authorities (Referendums)
(Petitions)(England) Regulations 2011

PART 2

Petitions and Referendums

Publicity for valid petitions

13.—(1) Where the proper officer is satisfied that a petition is valid, he or she shall, within the notice period, notify the petition organiser—

- (a) of his or her conclusion; and
- (b) that a referendum will be held.

(2) In a case to which paragraph (1) applies, the authority shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the paragraph (1) requirement has been met, publish a notice which contains a statement—

- (a) that a valid petition has been received;
- (b) of the constitutional change sought by the petition;
- (c) of the petition date;
- (d) that the petition is available at the authority's principal office for inspection by members of the public at all reasonable times and free of charge;
- (e) of the address of the authority's principal office; and
- (f) that a referendum will be held.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Local Authorities (Referendums) (Petitions)(England) Regulations 2011, Section 13.