- 80.23.—(1) The Secretary of State is required to make a reasonable search for relevant material and to file and serve that material in accordance with the rules in this Part.
- (2) The duty to search for, file and serve material under paragraph (1) continues until the proceedings in question have been determined.

Closed material

Consideration of the Secretary of State's objection or application

- 80.25.—(1) This rule applies where the Secretary of State has—
- (a) objected under rule 80.21(5)(b) to a proposed communication by the special advocate; or
  - (b) applied under rule 80.24 for permission to withhold closed material.
- (2) The court must fix a hearing for the Secretary of State and the special advocate to make oral representations, unless—

- (b) the court has previously considered—
  - (i) an objection under rule 80.21(5)(b) to the same or substantially the same communication; or
  - (ii) an application under rule 80.24(1) for permission to withhold the same or substantially the same material, and is satisfied that it would be just to uphold that objection or to give permission without a hearing; or
- (c) the Secretary of State and the special advocate consent to the court deciding the issue without a hearing.

(3) If the special advocate does not challenge the objection or the application, he or she must give notice of that fact to the court and the Secretary of State no later than the end of 14 days after the date the Secretary of State serves on the special advocate the notice under rule 80.21(5)(b) or the material under rule 80.24(2), or such other period as the court may direct.

(4) Where the court fixes a hearing under this rule, the Secretary of State and the special advocate must before the hearing file with the court a schedule identifying the issues which cannot be agreed between them, which must also—

- (a) give brief reasons for their contentions in relation to each issue; and
- (b) set out any proposals for the court to resolve those issues.

(5) A hearing under this rule shall take place in the absence of the relevant party and the relevant party's legal representative.

(6) Where the court gives permission to the Secretary of State to withhold closed material, the court must—

- (a) consider whether to direct the Secretary of State to serve a summary of that material on the relevant party and the relevant party's legal representative; but
- (b) ensure that no such summary contains information or other material the disclosure of which would be contrary to the public interest.

(7) Where the court has not given permission to the Secretary of State to withhold closed material from, or has directed the Secretary of State to serve a summary of that material on, the relevant party and the relevant party's legal representative—

- (a) the Secretary of State shall not be required to serve that material or summary; but
- (b) if the Secretary of State does not do so, at a hearing on notice the court may—
  - (i) if it considers that the material or anything that is required to be summarised might be of assistance to the relevant party in relation to a matter under consideration by the court, direct that the matter is withdrawn from its consideration or that the Secretary of State makes such concessions or takes such other steps as the court specifies; and
  - (ii) in any other case, direct that the Secretary of State shall not rely in the proceedings on that material or (as the case may be) on what is required to be summarised.

(8) The court must give permission to the Secretary of State to withhold closed material where it considers that the disclosure of that material would be contrary to the public interest.

Order of filing and serving material and written submissions

80.26. Subject to any directions given by the court, the parties must file and serve any material and written submissions, and the special advocate must file and serve any written submissions, in the following order—

- (d) the Secretary of State must file with the court any further relevant material;
- (e) the Secretary of State must serve on—
  - (i) the relevant party or the relevant party’s legal representative; and
  - (ii) the special advocate (as soon as one is appointed) or those instructing the special advocate, any open material filed with the court under paragraph (d);
- (f) the Secretary of State must serve on the special advocate (if one has been appointed) any closed material;
- (g) the parties and the special advocate (if one has been appointed) must file and serve any written submissions as directed by the court.

(Rules 80.24 and 80.25 will apply where any closed material is filed by the Secretary of State).

Failure to comply with directions

80.27.—(1) Where a party or the special advocate fails to comply with a direction of the court, the court may serve on that person a notice which states—

- (a) the respect in which that person has failed to comply with the direction;
- (b) a time limit for complying with the direction; and
- (c) that the court may proceed to determine the proceedings before it, on the material available to it, if the party or special advocate fails to comply with the direction within the time specified.

(2) Where a party or special advocate fails to comply with such a notice, the court may proceed in accordance with paragraph (1)(c).

Judgments

80.28.—(1) When the court gives judgment in any proceedings to which this Part applies, it may withhold any or part of its reasons if and to the extent that it is not possible to give those reasons without disclosing information contrary to the public interest.

(2) Where the judgment of the court does not include the full reasons for its decision, the court must serve on the Secretary of State and the special advocate a separate written judgment including those reasons.

Application by the Secretary of State for reconsideration of decision

80.29.—(1) If the court proposes, in any proceedings to which this Part applies, to serve notice on a relevant party of any—

- (a) order or direction made or given in the absence of the Secretary of State; or

- (b) any judgment,

then before the court serves any such notice on the relevant party, it must first serve notice on the Secretary of State of its intention to do so.

(2) The Secretary of State may, within 5 days of being served with notice under paragraph (1), apply to the court to reconsider the terms of the order or direction or to review the terms of the proposed judgment if the Secretary of State considers that—

- (a) the Secretary of State’s compliance with the order or direction; or
- (b) the notification to the relevant party of any matter contained in the judgment, order or direction; would cause information to be disclosed contrary to the public interest.

(3) Where the Secretary of State makes an application under paragraph (2), the Secretary of State must at the same time serve on the special advocate, if one has been appointed—

- (a) a copy of the application; and
- (b) a copy of the notice served on the Secretary of State pursuant to paragraph (1).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of these Rules)

These Rules amend the Civil Procedures Rules 1998 (S.I. 1998/3132) (“the CPR”) by—

- (a) amending rule 1.2 (application by the court of the overriding objective), so that it is subject to rule 80.2 (modification to the overriding objective); and
- (b) inserting a new Part 80 containing rules about proceedings under the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011 (including the modification of the application of certain other Parts of the CPR for the purposes of those proceedings).

The Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011 (“the Act”) provides for the imposition of measures by way of TPIM notice on individuals whom the Secretary of State reasonably believes to be, or to have been, involved in terrorism-related activity.

Section 1 of Part 80 contains rules about the scope, interpretation and application of the Part. Rule 80.2 modifies the overriding objective for the purposes of Part 80 by placing a duty on the court to ensure that information is not disclosed contrary to the public interest and by requiring that the overriding objective be read and given effect in a way which is compatible with that duty. This, and the rest of Part 80, is however subject to paragraph 5(1) of Schedule 4 to the Act which provides that nothing in Part 80 is to be read as requiring the court to act in a manner inconsistent with the TPIM subject’s right to a fair trial under article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights.

Section 2 contains rules about—

- (c) applications by the Secretary of State for permission to impose measures;
- (d) references of measures imposed by the Secretary of State without permission;
- (e) the requirement for directions to be given for a review hearing following permission being granted or a TPIM notice being confirmed by the court; and
- (f) appeals to the High Court against—
  - (i) the extension or revival of a TPIM notice;
  - (ii) the variation, without the consent of the TPIM subject, of a measure imposed by a TPIM notice; or
  - (iii) a decision by the Secretary of State on an application by the TPIM subject for permission in connection with a measure specified in the TPIM notice, for the revocation of the TPIM notice or for the variation of a measure specified in the TPIM notice.

Rule 80.8 modifies the application of Part 52 of the CPR (appeals) to appeals to the High Court relating to TPIM notices under section 16 of the Act. Rule 80.9 makes provision in relation to the TPIM subject giving notice of appeal. Rules 80.10 and 80.11 prescribe the time limit for giving notice of appeal and for the Secretary of State’s reply.

Section 3 contains a rule modifying the application of Part 52 of the CPR (appeals) to appeals to the Court of Appeal against an order of the High Court in TPIM proceedings.

The rules in Section 4 are general provisions applying to all proceedings to which Part 80 applies. They include provision for—

- applications for an order requiring anonymity for the TPIM subject (rule 80.15);
- hearings (rules 80.16 to 80.18);
- notifying the Attorney General of proceedings, the functions of a special advocate and the special advocate’s communications with others (rules 80.19 to 80.21);
- the modification of the general rules of evidence and disclosure (rule 80.22);
- the filing and service of relevant material by the Secretary of State (rule 80.23);

- applications by the Secretary of State to withhold closed material from a relevant party and consideration of that application or of the Secretary of State's objection to a special advocate's proposed communication (rules 80.24 and 80.25);
  - the order in which the filing and service of material and submissions must take place and directions of the court (rules 80.26 and 80.27);
  - the court to withhold any or part of its reasons when giving judgment if it is not possible to give reasons without disclosing information contrary to the public interest (rule 80.28);
  - applications by the Secretary of State for the court to reconsider the terms of any order or direction given in the Secretary of State's absence, or the terms of any judgment, to prevent the disclosure of information contrary to the public interest (rule 80.29).
