

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE PUBLIC LENDING RIGHT SCHEME 1982 (COMMENCEMENT OF VARIATION) ORDER 2011

2011 No. 54

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Department for Culture, Media and Sport and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the Instrument

2.1 This instrument brings into force a variation to the Public Lending Right Scheme, which decreases the ‘rate per loan’ paid under the Scheme to authors from 6.29p to 6.25p.

3. Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

None.

4. Legislative Context

4.1 The Public Lending Right Act 1979 (‘the 1979 Act’) gave the Secretary of State powers to prepare and bring into force a scheme conferring a right known as the ‘public lending right’ on authors. The Scheme provides for eligible authors of eligible works to share in an annual fund relating to loans of their works through libraries. The Scheme was established by the Public Lending Right Scheme 1982 (Commencement) Order 1982 (SI 1982/719), which sets out in its Appendix the Scheme, including the rate per loan in its article 46. That rate per loan has subsequently been amended by further Orders.

4.2 Section 3(7) of the 1979 Act confers a power on the Secretary of State to vary the Scheme by Order. Any variation in the rate per loan that needs to be made is effected through a variation to the Scheme which is brought into force by such an Order. The variation will substitute ‘6.25p’ for ‘6.29p’ as the rate per loan in paragraph (1)(a) of article 46 of the Scheme.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

This instrument applies to all of the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

7. Policy background

The Public Lending Right Scheme was brought into force on 14th June 1982. It prescribed the rate per loan that should be paid to each author, calculated by dividing the money available in the fund by the total number of loans. The rate per loan has been amended from time to time.

Through efficiency savings and income generated the PLR Registrar was able to supplement the funding available for author payments in February 2010. This slightly larger fund combined with fewer loans during the 2008/09 loans year resulted in the rate per loan increasing for the first time since February 2007 from 5.98 pence to 6.29 pence.

The current funding climate meant that this year it has not been possible to maintain or increase the rate per loan and it will decrease from 6.29 pence to 6.25 pence.

8. Consultation outcome

The proposed decrease in the rate per loan was the subject of an eight week consultation (1 November - 27 December 2010). A letter was sent to major groups representing the interests of authors. These groups communicated news of the consultation to their members. A copy of the consultation letter was also made available on the DCMS and PLR websites and a was referred to in the PLR Registrar's news update which was emailed to approximately 19,000 registered authors.

Eight responses were received. A collated version of the responses is available at the following link: <http://www.culture.gov.uk/consultations/7709.aspx>. Three respondents raised objections to the proposed decrease of the rate per loan, generally based around the effect of the reduction on the income of authors. While a number of respondents expressed regret that the rate might fall, four of them (all from organisations, rather than individuals) stated or suggested that a decrease is understandable given the current economic climate.

Having considered the consultation responses, the Minister decided to proceed with the introduction of legislation to decrease the rate per loan from 6.29p to 6.25p.

9. Guidance

The Public Lending Right Scheme is administered by the Registrar of Public Lending Right. The Minister for Culture has notified the Registrar that he has varied the Scheme to provide for the new rate per loan for the 2009/10 loans year. The Public Lending Right Registrar will ensure that authors and other stakeholders are made aware of the new rate per loan.

10. Impact

10.1 A Regulatory Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this Order as it has no impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.

10.2 The impact on the public sector is to provide the Public Lending Right Scheme and the Registrar of the Scheme with an altered rate per loan allowing authors to be paid a rate per loan of 6.25p.

11. Regulating small business

The legislation does not apply to small business.

12. Monitoring & review

The appropriateness of the new rate per loan of 6.25p will be considered by the Registrar of Public Lending Right before making recommendations about the rate per loan to be fixed for the 2010/11 loans year.
