they consider that the child's welfare is not being adequately safeguarded or promoted.

(2) Every local authority must ensure that a person carrying out a visit in accordance with paragraph (1)—

(a) sees the child in private during the course of the visit unless—

(i) the child, being of sufficient age and understanding to do so, refuses,

(ii) the person carrying out the visit considers it inappropriate to do so, having regard to the child's age and understanding, or

(iii) the person carrying out the visit is unable to do so, and

(b) takes steps to discover whether the responsible authority have made suitable arrangements to perform their duties under these Regulations, and those under sections 61 and 64 of the 1989 Act.

(3) A local authority must report to Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills any concerns they may have about the responsible authority.
