PART 2

Selection for and participation in the Mandatory Work Activity Scheme

Selection for participation in the Scheme

3.—(1) The Secretary of State may select a claimant who is aged at least 18 for participation in the Scheme.

(2) Only a claimant who is required to meet the jobseeking conditions⁽¹³⁾ may be required to participate in the Scheme.

Requirement to participate and notification

4.—(1) Subject to regulation 5, a claimant (“C”) selected under regulation 3 is required to participate in the Scheme where the Secretary of State gives C a notice in writing complying with paragraph (2).

(2) The notice must specify—

- (a) that C is required to participate in the Scheme;
- (b) the day on which C’s participation will start;
- (c) that C’s participation will be for four weeks;
- (d) details of what C is required to do by way of participation in the Scheme;
- (e) that the requirement to participate in the Scheme will continue until C is given notice by the Secretary of State that C’s participation is no longer required, or C’s award of jobseeker’s allowance terminates, whichever is earlier;
- (f) information about the consequences of failing to participate in the Scheme.

(3) Any changes made to the requirements mentioned in paragraph (2)(d) after the date on which C’s participation starts must be notified to C in writing.

Circumstances in which requirement to participate in the Scheme ceases to apply

5.—(1) A requirement to participate in the Scheme ceases to apply to a claimant (“C”) if—

- (a) the Secretary of State gives C notice in writing that C is no longer required to participate in the Scheme, or
- (b) C’s award of jobseeker’s allowance terminates, whichever is earlier.

(2) The requirement ceases to apply on the day specified in the notice.

PART 3

Sanctions

Failure to participate in the Scheme

6. A claimant (“C”) is to be regarded as having failed to participate in the Scheme in accordance with these Regulations where C fails to comply with any requirement notified under regulation 4.

⁽¹³⁾ See section 17A(10) of the Act for the meaning of the “jobseeking conditions”.

Good cause

7.—(1) A claimant (“C”) who fails to participate in the Scheme must show good cause for that failure within 5 working days of the date on which the Secretary of State notifies C of the failure.

(2) The Secretary of State must determine whether C has failed to participate in the Scheme and, if so, whether C has shown good cause for that failure.

(3) In deciding whether C has shown good cause for the failure, the Secretary of State must take account of all the circumstances of the case, including in particular C’s physical or mental health or condition.

Consequences of failure to participate in the Scheme

8.—(1) Where the Secretary of State determines that a claimant (“C”) has failed to participate in the Scheme, and C has not shown good cause for the failure in accordance with regulation 7, the appropriate consequence for the purpose of section 17A of the Act is as follows.

(2) In the case of a jobseeker’s allowance other than a joint-claim allowance, the appropriate consequence is that C’s allowance is not payable for the period specified in paragraph (4) or (5) (“the specified period”).

(3) In the case of a joint-claim jobseeker’s allowance, the appropriate consequence is that C is to be treated as subject to sanctions for the purposes of section 20A of the Act (denial or reduction of a joint-claim jobseeker’s allowance) for the specified period.

(4) The period is 13 weeks in a case which does not fall within paragraph (5).

(5) The period is 26 weeks where—

(a) on a previous occasion the Secretary of State determined that C’s jobseeker’s allowance was not payable or was payable at a lower rate because C failed without good cause to participate in the Scheme (“the first determination”); and

(b) a subsequent determination is made not more than 12 months after the date on which the first determination took effect.

(6) The specified period begins—

(a) where, in accordance with regulation 26A(1) of the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987⁽¹⁴⁾, C’s jobseeker’s allowance is paid otherwise than fortnightly in arrears, on the day following the end of the last benefit week in respect of which that allowance was paid; and

(b) in any other case, on the first day of the benefit week following the date on which C’s jobseeker’s allowance is determined not to be payable or to be payable at a lower rate.

(7) In this regulation “benefit week” has the same meaning as in regulation 1(3)⁽¹⁵⁾ of the Jobseeker’s Allowance Regulations.

PART 4

Hardship

9.—(1) This paragraph applies to a claimant (“C”) if, during the period in which C’s jobseeker’s allowance is not payable by virtue of regulation 8(2), C is a person in hardship within the meaning of regulation 140(1) or (2) (meaning of “person in hardship”) of the Jobseeker’s Allowance Regulations(16).

(2) Regulations 140 to 146 of the Jobseeker’s Allowance Regulations have effect in relation to a person to whom paragraph (1) applies.

(3) In regulation 141(6) (circumstances in which an income-based jobseeker’s allowance is payable to a person in hardship) of the Jobseeker’s Allowance Regulations(17) insert “regulations made under section 17A (“work for your benefit” schemes etc.),” after “even though”.

Hardship for joint-claim couples

10.—(1) This paragraph applies to a joint-claim couple if, during the period in which the sanctions referred to in regulation 8(3) apply, they are a couple in hardship within the meaning of regulation 146A(1) or (2) (meaning of “couple in hardship”) of the Jobseeker’s Allowance Regulations(18).

(2) Regulations 146A and 146C to 146H of the Jobseeker’s Allowance Regulations have effect in relation to a couple to whom paragraph (1) applies.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations establish the Mandatory Work Activity Scheme, under section 17A of the Jobseekers Act 1995 (“the Jobseekers Act”), which is designed to provide work or work-related activity for up to 30 hours per week over a period of four consecutive weeks with a view to assisting jobseeker’s allowance claimants to improve their prospects of obtaining employment.

Part 1 contains general provisions, including provisions concerning interpretation.

Part 2 concerns the circumstances in which jobseeker’s allowance claimants are required to participate in the Scheme. Regulation 3 provides that any claimant who is aged at least 18 can be selected. It also provides that a claimant who is not required to meet the jobseeking conditions is not required to participate in the Scheme.

Regulation 4 requires a person so selected to participate in the Scheme upon being notified by the Secretary of State, and to do so for a period of four weeks from the date specified in the notice. It also prescribes the contents of the notice.

Regulation 5 concerns the circumstances in which a claimant is not required (or no longer required) to participate in the Scheme. They are where a claimant’s award of jobseeker’s allowance terminates or where the Secretary of State gives the claimant notice in writing that participation is no longer required.

Part 3 deals with failure to participate in the Scheme and good cause for failure to participate.

Regulation 6 provides that a claimant who fails to comply with any of the requirements notified under regulation 4, is to be regarded as having failed to participate in the Scheme.

Regulation 7 provides that a person who fails to participate in the Scheme must show good cause for that failure within 5 working days. It is then for the Secretary of State to determine whether that person has shown good cause, taking into account his or her circumstances.

Regulation 8 provides that where a claimant fails without good cause to participate in the Scheme, the claimant’s jobseeker’s allowance will not be payable for 13 or 26 weeks.

Part 4 allows for an income-based jobseeker’s allowance to be payable even though a sanction applies to the claimant because of a failure without good cause to participate in the Scheme. It does so by applying the hardship provisions in Parts 9 and 9A of the Jobseeker’s Allowance Regulations 1996.

Part 5 makes various consequential amendments to other Regulations in relation to a person’s participation in the Scheme.

Regulation 11 inserts a definition of the Mandatory Work Activity Scheme in the Jobseeker’s Allowance Regulations 1996, the Housing Renewal Grants Regulations 1996, the Council Tax Benefit Regulations 2006 and the Housing Benefit Regulations 2006. Regulations 12 and 13 ensure that persons will not be treated as having notional income or notional capital by virtue of their participation in the Scheme, and regulations 14 and 15 provide that travel and other expenses paid to participants are disregarded as income and capital for the purposes of certain income-related benefits.

Regulations 16 and 17 make consequential amendments to other Regulations to ensure that, where a sanction is imposed on a claimant for failure without good cause to participate in the Mandatory Work Activity Scheme, the claimant is treated consistently with a claimant who incurs a sanction under section 19 or 20A of the Jobseekers Act.

Regulation 18 deals with consequential changes in relation to decisions and appeals. The effect is to ensure that provision is made for sanctions imposed under these Regulations as well as those incurred under section 19 or 20A of that Act.

Regulation 19 revokes certain provisions of the Jobseeker's Allowance (Work for Your Benefit Pilot Scheme) Regulations 2010. Those Regulations modify various regulations to make provision in relation to schemes under section 17A of the Jobseekers Act 1995. The modifications cease to have effect on 21st November 2013. In order to avoid duplication and to ensure that the provisions relating to schemes under section 17A of that Act are permanent, these Regulations amend the relevant provisions and regulation 19 revokes the unnecessary modifications.

Regulation 20 makes provision for contracting out the Mandatory Work Activity Scheme functions (with the exception of functions relating to good cause and the imposition of sanctions).

A full impact assessment has not been published for this instrument as it has no impact on the private sectors and civil society organisations.
