

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE IMMIGRATION (DESIGNATION OF TRAVEL BANS) (AMENDMENT
No. 3) ORDER 2011

2011 No. 932

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Home Office and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

2.1 The Immigration (Designation of Travel Bans) (Amendment No.3) Order 2011 amends the Immigration (Designation of Travel Bans) Order 2000 ('the 2000 Order') by adding to Part 1 of the Schedule to the 2000 Order United Nations Security Council Resolution (UNSCR) 1973 (2011) of 17 March 2011 and to Part 2 of the Schedule to the 2000 Order European Union Council Implementing Decision 2011/175/CFSP of 21st March 2011 concerning restrictive measures in view of the situation in Libya. The effect is to impose travel bans on additional members of the Libyan regime and Government officials and thereby to implement the UK's obligations under paragraph 22 of UNSCR 1973 (2011) and Article 1 of Council Implementing Decision 2011/175/CFSP.

3. Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

3.1 On 17th March 2011 the UN Security Council agreed additional measures in respect of Libya including a travel ban on two individuals not previously listed. On 21st March 2011, the Council of the European Union agreed a travel ban on an additional eleven members of the Libyan regime. The travel ban elements of the earlier measures (UNSCR 1970 (2011) and Council Decision 2011/137/CFSP) were implemented by The Immigration (Designation of Travel Bans)(Amendment) Order 2011 which came into force on 28th February 2011 and by The Immigration (Designation of Travel Bans)(Amendment No.2) Order 2011 which came into force on 5th March. This Order was made on 24th March 2011 to come into force at the start of 26th March 2011 in order to immediately implement the United Kingdom's obligations under United Nations Security Council Resolution 1973 and Council Implementing Decision 2011/175/CFSP. The Order was laid before Parliament the day before coming into force.

3.2 This is the third amendment Order made recently. A decision was made to bring the amendment No.3 Order into force immediately in line with the decision to bring The Immigration (Designation of Travel Bans)(Amendment) Order 2011 and The Immigration (Designation of Travel Bans)(Amendment No2) Order 2011 into force immediately on 28th February 2011 and 5th March 2011 respectively. This Order implements the UK's obligations under both the new UN Security Council Resolution and the European Council Implementing Decision.

4. Legislative Context

4.1 Section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971 (as inserted by Section 8 of Immigration and Asylum Act 1999) provides for the exclusion from the United Kingdom of persons subject to United Nations or European Union restrictive travel measures which have been designated by Order.

4.2 The United Kingdom complies with United Nations Security Council Resolutions or instruments of the Council of the European Union that impose restrictive travel measures by including them in the Immigration (Designation of Travel Bans) Order 2000. This Order is made under Section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971 and came into force on 10th October 2000. The effect of including travel bans in the 2000 Order is that, unless subject to one of the exemptions set out in Article 3 of the 2000 Order, a person named by or described in a designated travel ban is an excluded person and must be refused leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom, including transit through the United Kingdom. Any existing leave is automatically cancelled and any exemption from immigration control e.g. as a diplomat, ceases.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

5.1 This instrument applies to all of the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

6.1 As the instrument is not subject to any parliamentary procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

7. Policy background

- What is being done and why

7.1 United Nations or European Union travel bans restrict the movement of certain individuals associated with regimes or groups, whose behaviour is considered unacceptable by Member States. In this instance United Nations Security Council Resolution 1973 (2011) and Council Implementing Decision 2011/175/CFSP require States to restrict the entry to or transit through their territory, except in very limited circumstances, of additional members of the Libyan regime or Government officials to those specified in the earlier United Nations Security Council Resolution and Council Decision. Now United Nations Security Council Resolution 1973 (2011) and Council Implementing Decision 2011/175/CFSP are designated in UK legislation by means of the Immigration (Designation of Travel Bans) Order 2000, these individuals are excluded persons and must be refused leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom, including transit through the United Kingdom, on the basis of the travel ban except where limited grounds apply.

7.2 Provisions in the Immigration Rules enable a person not yet designated under the 2000 Order to be refused entry to the UK, or to have a visa revoked, on the basis that it is conducive to the public good to do so. The Schedule to the 2000 Order which lists the relevant UN and EU travel bans is usually updated annually in order to take account of changes to the various travel restrictions, including the lists of designated persons. In view of the particular circumstances in Libya, the use of force by the regime against unarmed civilians and the authorisation by the UN of additional measures to protect civilians there, a decision was made to implement these changes immediately rather than wait for the annual review in November.

- Consolidation

7.3 In light of the timeframe in which the Order was made consolidation was not considered appropriate.

8. Consultation outcome

8.1 This Order is giving effect to the United Kingdom's legal obligations under international law. Consultation is not required.

9. Guidance

9.1 This Order brings into United Kingdom law international obligations restricting entry and travel in accordance with UNSCR 1973 (2011) and EU Council Implementing Decision 2011/175/CFSP, which both provide lists of additional individuals to be subject to restrictive measures.
