the business plan provided in the electronic money institution's application for authorisation or registration, subject to any adjustment to that plan required by the Authority.

Method A

20.—(1) “Method A” means the calculation method set out in this paragraph.

(2) The own funds requirement is 10% of the authorised electronic money institution's fixed overheads for the preceding financial year.

(3) If a material change has occurred in an authorised electronic money institution's business since the preceding financial year, the Authority may direct that the own funds requirement is to be a higher or lower amount than that calculated in accordance with sub-paragraph (2).

Method B

21.—(1) “Method B” means the calculation method set out in this paragraph.

(2) The own funds requirement is the sum of the following elements multiplied by the scaling factor—

- (a) 4% of the first 5,000,000 euro of payment volume;
- (b) 2.5% of the next 5,000,000 euro of payment volume;
- (c) 1% of the next 90,000,000 euro of payment volume;
- (d) 0.5% of the next 150,000,000 euro of payment volume; and
- (e) 0.25% of any remaining payment volume.

(3) “Payment volume” means the total amount of payment transactions that are not related to the issuance of electronic money executed by the authorised electronic money institution in the preceding financial year divided by the number of months in that year.

(4) The “scaling factor” is—

- (a) 0.5 for an authorised electronic money institution providing a payment service specified in paragraph 1(f) of Schedule 1 to the Payment Services Regulations [^{F12}2017];
- ^{F13}(b)
- (c) 1 for an authorised electronic money institution providing any other payment service [^{F14}specified in paragraph 1(a) to (e) of Schedule 1 to those Regulations].

Status: Point in time view as at 13/10/2017.

Changes to legislation: The Electronic Money Regulations 2011 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Method C

- 22.—(1) “Method C” means the calculation method set out in this paragraph.
- (2) The own funds requirement is the relevant indicator multiplied by—
- (a) the multiplication factor; and
 - (b) the scaling factor;
- subject to the proviso in sub-paragraph (7).
- (3) The “relevant indicator” is the sum of the following elements—
- (a) interest income;
 - (b) interest expenses;
 - (c) gross commissions and fees received; and
 - (d) gross other operating income.
- (4) For the purpose of calculating the relevant indicator—
- (a) each element must be included in the sum with its positive or negative sign;
 - (b) income from extraordinary or irregular items may not be used;
 - (c) expenditure on the outsourcing of services rendered by third parties may reduce the relevant indicator if the expenditure is incurred from a payment service provider;
 - (d) the relevant indicator is calculated on the basis of the twelve-monthly observation at the end of the previous financial year;
 - (e) the relevant indicator must be calculated over the previous financial year; and
 - (f) audited figures must be used unless they are not available in which case business estimates may be used.
- (5) The “multiplication factor” is the sum of—
- (a) 10% of the first 2,500,000 euro of the relevant indicator;
 - (b) 8% of the next 2,500,000 euro of the relevant indicator;
 - (c) 6% of the next 20,000,000 euro of the relevant indicator;
 - (d) 3% of the next 25,000,000 euro of the relevant indicator; and
 - (e) 1.5% of any remaining amount of the relevant indicator.
- (6) “Scaling factor” has the meaning given in paragraph 21(4).
- (7) The proviso is that the own funds requirement must not be less than 80% of the average of the previous three financial years for the relevant indicator.

23.—(1) “Method D” means the calculation method set out in this paragraph.

(2) The own funds requirement in respect of the activity of issuing electronic money and providing payment services that are related to the issuance of electronic money is an amount equal to 2% of the average outstanding electronic money of the authorised electronic money institution.

24.—(1) Where—

- (a) an electronic money institution provides payment services that are not related to the issuance of electronic money or carries out any of the activities referred to in regulation 32(1)(b) to (d) and (2); and
- (b) the amount of outstanding electronic money is unknown in advance,

Status: Point in time view as at 13/10/2017.

Changes to legislation: The Electronic Money Regulations 2011 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) the institution may calculate its own funds requirement on the basis of a representative portion assumed to be used for the issuance of electronic money and payment services related to the issuance of electronic money, provided that such representative portion can be reasonably estimated on the basis of historical data and to the satisfaction of the Authority.

(2) Where an electronic money institution has not completed a sufficiently long period of business to compile historical data adequate to make the calculation under sub-paragraph (1), it must make an estimate on the basis of projected outstanding electronic money as evidenced by its business plan, subject to any adjustments to that plan which are, or have been, required by the Authority.

Application of accounting standards

25. Except where this Schedule provides for a different method of recognition, measurement or valuation, whenever a provision in this Schedule refers to an asset, liability, equity or income statement item, an electronic money institution must, for the purpose of that provision, recognise the asset, liability, equity or income statement item and measure its value in accordance with whichever of the following are applicable for the purpose of the institution's external financial reporting—

- (a) Financial Reporting Standards and Statements of Standard Accounting Practice issued or adopted by [^{F15}the Financial Reporting Council Limited];
- (b) Statements of Recommended Practice, issued by industry or sectoral bodies recognised for this purpose by [^{F15}the Financial Reporting Council Limited];
- (c) International Financial Reporting Standards and International Accounting Standards issued or adopted by the International Accounting Standards Board;
- (d) International Standards on Auditing (United Kingdom and Ireland) issued by the [^{F16}Financial Reporting Council Limited or a predecessor body]; and
- (e) the Companies Act 2006.

PART 1 U.K.

Prohibitions and restrictions

Power to prohibit the entry into credit agreements U.K.

1.—(1) If it appears to the Authority that sub-paragraph (4) has been, or is likely to be, contravened as respects an EEA authorised electronic money institution exercising passport rights in the United Kingdom, it may by notice given to the institution in accordance with Part 2 of this Schedule impose on the institution a credit prohibition.

(2) If it appears to the Authority that a restriction imposed under paragraph 2 on an EEA authorised electronic money institution exercising passport rights in the United Kingdom has not been complied with, it may by notice given to the institution in accordance with Part 2 of this Schedule impose on the institution a credit prohibition.

(3) “A credit prohibition” means a prohibition on carrying on, or purporting to carry on, in the United Kingdom any business which consists of or includes carrying on an activity—

- (a) of the kind specified by article 36A, 36H, 39D, 39E, 39F, 39G, 60B, 60N, 89A or 89B of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, and
- (b) listed in the Annex to the payment services directive or which the institution is entitled to carry on in accordance with Article 16 of that directive as applied by Article 6 of the electronic money directive.

(4) This sub-paragraph is contravened as respects an EEA authorised electronic money institution exercising passport rights in the United Kingdom if—

- (a) the institution or any of its employees, agents or associates (whether past or present), or
- (b) where the institution is a body corporate, any controller of the institution or an associate of any such controller, does any of the things specified in sub-paragraph (5).

(5) A person does a thing specified in this sub-paragraph if the person—

- (a) commits any offence involving fraud or other dishonesty or violence;
- (b) contravenes any provision made by or under—
 - (i) the Consumer Credit Act 1974;
 - (ii) the 2000 Act, to the extent that that Act relates to any activity of the kind specified by article 36A, 36H, 39D, 39E, 39F, 39G, 60B, 60N, 89A or 89B of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001;
 - (iii) any other enactment regulating the provision of credit to individuals or other transactions with individuals;
- (c) contravenes any provision in force in an EEA State which corresponds to a provision of the kind mentioned in paragraph (b);
- (d) practices discrimination on grounds of sex, colour, race or ethnic or national origins in, or in connection with, the carrying on of any business;
- (e) engages in business practices appearing to the Authority to be deceitful or oppressive or otherwise unfair or improper (including practices that appear to the Authority to involve irresponsible lending).

(6) A credit prohibition may be absolute or may be imposed—

- (a) for such period,
- (b) until the occurrence of such event, or

Status: Point in time view as at 13/10/2017.

Changes to legislation: The Electronic Money Regulations 2011 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. - (c) until such conditions are complied with, as may be specified in the notice given under sub-paragraph (1) or (2).
- (7) Any period, event or condition so specified may be varied by the Authority on the application of the institution concerned (for which, see paragraph 5).
- (8) A credit prohibition may be withdrawn in whole or in part—
- (a) on the initiative of the Authority, by notice served by the Authority on the institution concerned, and any such notice takes effect on such date as is specified in the notice;
 - (b) on an application submitted by the institution concerned (for which, see paragraph 5).
- (9) Where the Authority withdraws a credit prohibition and imposes a restriction under paragraph (2), the Authority may specify that the withdrawal of the credit prohibition only takes effect when the imposition of the restriction is no longer subject to review (within the meaning of section 391(8) of the 2000 Act).
- (10) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (9), whether the imposition of a restriction is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8) of the 2000 Act as if the imposition of the restriction were a matter to which a supervisory notice (within the meaning of that section) relates.
- (11) An institution contravening a prohibition imposed under this paragraph is guilty of an offence and liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
- (12) In this paragraph—
- “associate” has the same meaning as in article 60L of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001;
 - “controller” has the meaning given by section 422 of the 2000 Act.
- (13) If a credit prohibition is in effect in relation to an institution, article 60JB of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001 does not apply in relation to that institution.

Power to restrict the entry into credit agreements U.K.

- 2.—(1) In this paragraph, “restriction” means a direction that an EEA authorised electronic money institution exercising passport rights in the United Kingdom may not carry on in the United Kingdom, otherwise than in accordance with such conditions as may be specified in the direction, any business which consists of or includes carrying on an activity—
- (a) of the kind specified in article 36A, 36H, 39D, 39E, 39F, 39G, 60B, 60N, 89A or 89B of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001;
 - (b) listed in the Annex to the payment services directive or which the institution is entitled to carry on in accordance with Article 16 of that directive as applied by Article 6 of the electronic money directive; and
 - (c) specified in the direction.
- (2) If it appears to the Authority that the situation as respects an EEA authorised electronic money institution exercising passport rights in the United Kingdom is such that the powers conferred by paragraph 1 are exercisable, the Authority may, instead of imposing a credit prohibition impose—
- (a) by notice given in accordance with Part 2 of this Schedule such restriction as appears to it desirable;

Status: Point in time view as at 13/10/2017.

Changes to legislation: The Electronic Money Regulations 2011 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. - (b) where it has already imposed a restriction, vary the restriction on the Authority's own initiative by notice given in accordance with Part 2 of this Schedule.
- (3) The Authority may also impose a restriction by notice given in accordance with Part 2 of this Schedule if it withdraws a credit prohibition.
- (4) A restriction may be—
 - (a) withdrawn on the initiative of the Authority, by notice served by the Authority on the institution concerned, and any such notice takes effect on such date as is specified in the notice;
 - (b) withdrawn or varied on an application submitted by the institution concerned (for which, see paragraph 5).
- (5) An institution contravening a restriction is guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

PART 2 U.K.

Procedure and appeals

Interpretation U.K.

3. In this Part—

“prohibition” means a credit prohibition imposed under paragraph 1(1) or (2) of Part 1 of this Schedule;

“restriction” means a restriction imposed under paragraph 2(2) or (3) of Part 1 of this Schedule;

“the Tribunal” means the Upper Tribunal.

Notice of prohibition or restriction U.K.

4.—(1) A prohibition or restriction takes effect—

- (a) immediately, if the relevant notice states that that is the case,
- (b) on such date as may be specified in the notice, or
- (c) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.

(2) An institution which is aggrieved by the imposition of a prohibition or a restriction by a notice given under this paragraph may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(3) A prohibition or restriction may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the Authority, having regard to the ground on which it is imposing the prohibition or restriction, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the prohibition or restriction to take effect immediately (or on that date).

(4) The notice must—

- (a) give details of the prohibition or restriction,
- (b) state the Authority's reasons for the prohibition or restriction,
- (c) inform the institution that it may make representations to the Authority within such period as is specified in the notice (whether or not the institution has referred the matter to the Tribunal),

Status: Point in time view as at 13/10/2017.

Changes to legislation: The Electronic Money Regulations 2011 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) inform the institution of when the prohibition or restriction takes effect, and
 - (e) inform the institution of its right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (5) The Authority may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.
- (6) If, having considered any representations made by the institution, the Authority decides—
- (a) to impose the proposed prohibition or restriction, or
 - (b) if the prohibition or restriction has taken effect, not to withdraw the prohibition or restriction,
- it must give the institution a notice.
- (7) If, having considered any representations made by the institution, the Authority decides—
- (a) not to impose the proposed prohibition or restriction,
 - (b) to impose a different prohibition or restriction, or
 - (c) if the prohibition or restriction has already taken effect, to withdraw the prohibition or restriction,
- it must give the institution a notice.
- (7) A notice under sub-paragraph (6) must inform the institution of its right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (8) A notice under sub-paragraph (7)(b) must comply with sub-paragraph (4).
- (9) If a notice under this paragraph informs an institution of its right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.
- (10) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(c)—
- (a) whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8) of the 2000 Act;
 - (b) the notice to which the matter relates is to be treated as a supervisory notice for the purposes of that section.
- (11) References in this paragraph to the imposition of a restriction include references to the variation of a restriction on the initiative of the Authority.

Application to revoke or vary prohibition or restriction U.K.

- 5.—(1) An application under Part 1 of this Schedule must—
- (a) be made in such manner as the Authority may direct, and
 - (b) contain, or be accompanied by, such other information as the Authority may reasonably require.
- (2) At any time after the application is received and before it is determined, the Authority may require the applicant to provide it with such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application.
- (3) Different directions may be given, and different requirements imposed, in relation to different applications or categories of application.
- (4) The Authority may require an applicant to provide information required under this paragraph in such form, or to verify it in such a way, as the Authority may direct.
- (5) If the Authority decides to grant an application, it must give the applicant a notice.
- (6) If the Authority proposes to refuse an application, or to take an action different from or in addition to the one applied for (including a proposal to impose a restriction when withdrawing a prohibition on an application under paragraph 1(8)(b)), it must give the applicant a warning notice.

Status: Point in time view as at 13/10/2017.

Changes to legislation: The Electronic Money Regulations 2011 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 27 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(7) If the Authority decides to refuse an application, or to take an action different from or in addition to the one applied for (including a decision to impose a restriction when withdrawing a prohibition on an application under paragraph 1(8)(b)), it must give the applicant a decision notice.

(8) An applicant who is aggrieved by a decision notice given under this paragraph may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

Notice to the home state competent authority U.K.

6. If the Authority sends a notice to an institution under this Schedule which imposes, varies or withdraws a prohibition or restriction, it must send a copy of the notice to the institution's home state competent authority]
