

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

Excepted Pupils

11. A child who is normally educated in a unit which forms part of the school and is specially organised to provide education for pupils with special educational needs, but spends a minority of their time in the infant class.