Statement of reasons

54. Where the CAA makes a decision to—

- (a) revoke, suspend or vary an ATOL or an accreditation otherwise than on the application of the person concerned;
- (b) grant or vary an ATOL or an accreditation in terms other than those requested by the person concerned; or
- (c) refuse to grant an ATOL or an accreditation, the CAA must supply a statement of its reasons for the decision to the person concerned.

Publication of Decision

55. Where the CAA decides to revoke or suspend an ATOL or accreditation the decision must be published by the CAA.

CHAPTER 2

Requirement for and conduct of hearing

Requirement to hold a hearing

56.—(1) Within the time limit under regulation 53 for providing representations to the CAA, the person concerned may request a hearing.

(2) Where the person concerned requests a hearing, the Member must before making a decision, hold a hearing and consider any representations made or evidence submitted at such a hearing.

(3) Where the person concerned does not request a hearing, the Member may hold a hearing, if the Member considers it appropriate following consideration of representations and evidence submitted under regulation 53.

Giving notice of hearing

57.—(1) Subject to regulation 51, no hearing is to be held under this Part unless the CAA has served on the person concerned at least 7 days notice of the date, time and place of the hearing.

(2) The notice must clearly identify the matter to which it relates.

(3) The notice must be published at least 7 days before the date of the hearing unless the hearing is to be held in private.

(4) On the day of the hearing, the notice must be exhibited in a visible and accessible place at the venue where the hearing is scheduled to take place unless the hearing is to be held in private.

Expedited hearing

58.—(1) If the CAA is satisfied that for reasons of urgency it is desirable to do so, a hearing may be held without notice having been served, published and exhibited in accordance with regulation 57.

(2) In such a case, the CAA must give notice of the date, time and place of the hearing, being notice of such length and by such means as it thinks fit, to the applicant, the ATOL holder or accredited body.

Entitlement to attend and be heard

59. The person concerned and the CAA's employee who has made the proposal under regulation 36 or regulation 44 to be determined have a right to attend and be heard at the hearing.

Absence of party

60. Where the CAA is required to hold a hearing under this Part, the hearing may proceed in the absence of the person concerned or that person's representative and the CAA must consider any representations made or evidence submitted by any person entitled to attend who is in attendance.

Technical assessors

61. The Member conducting a hearing may appoint a technical assessor, so long as that assessor did not participate in the application or proposal which is the subject of the hearing, to provide advice and assistance.

Right to be represented, produce evidence and examine other persons

62.—(1) At a hearing every person with a right to be heard may appear in person or be represented by any other person who they have authorised to represent them.

- (2) A person with a right to be heard or their representative may—
- (a) produce oral and written evidence; and
 - (b) examine the other persons being heard, and any witness produced by such persons.

Hearings in public or in private

63.—(1) All hearings must be in public unless—

- (a) the CAA is satisfied that a private hearing is required—
- (i) in the interests of morals, public order or national security in a democratic society,
 - (ii) the interests of juveniles or the protection of the private lives of the parties, or
 - (iii) to the extent strictly necessary in the opinion of the CAA in special circumstances if publicity would prejudice the interests of justice; or
- (b) where the person concerned has requested in writing that the hearing be in private and the CAA is satisfied that there is no important public interest consideration that calls for the public to be present.

(2) The CAA may decide under paragraph (1) that part only of the hearing is to be in private or that information about the proceedings before the CAA, the names and identifying characteristics of persons concerned in the proceedings or specified evidence given in the proceedings must not be made public or disclosed to the person concerned.

(3) Any person who the CAA, with the consent of the person concerned or their representative, permits to attend the hearing may attend a hearing, whether or not it is in private.

Procedure at hearing

64.—(1) At the beginning of any hearing the CAA must explain the manner and order of proceeding, having regard to any applicable burden and standard of proof and rules of evidence.

- (2) The CAA may conduct the hearing in the manner it considers most suitable—
- (a) to the clarification of the issues before it; and
 - (b) to enable the CAA, with the assistance of the person concerned (or their representative) and the CAA employee responsible for the proposal, to deal with the case fairly and justly; seeking to avoid, where appropriate, formality and inflexibility in its proceedings.

(3) The CAA may consider evidence of any fact which seems to the CAA to be relevant even if the evidence would be inadmissible in proceedings before a court of law.

Provision of transcripts

65.—(1) All the proceedings at a hearing in accordance with this Part must be recorded in writing.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3), (4) and (5), a copy of the transcript of the proceedings must be made available to any person on request, unless a decision has been taken to hold the hearing in private, in which case a transcript must only be made available to those present at the hearing.

(3) If part of the hearing is held in private, a copy of the transcript of that part of the proceedings must only be supplied to persons present during that part.

(4) The CAA is entitled to require payment of a reasonable fee before supplying a copy of any transcript.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012. (See end of Document for details)

(5) The CAA is not required to supply an electronic recording or transcript of the proceedings at any time more than one year after it has published or notified its decision.

67.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), an appeal lies to a county court from any decision of the CAA that a person is not a fit person to hold an ATOL.

(2) If the court is satisfied that on the evidence submitted to the CAA it was wrong in deciding that a person is not a fit person to hold an ATOL, the court may reverse the CAA's decision and the CAA must give effect to the court's determination.

(3) If the appellant resides or has its registered or principal office in Scotland the appeal lies to the sheriff court within whose jurisdiction the appellant resides or has its registered or principal office and the appeal is by way of summary application ^{M11}.

(4) If the appellant resides or has its registered or principal office in Northern Ireland the appeal lies to a county court held under the County Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1980 ^{M12}.

(5) The CAA will be named by the appellant as respondent to any appeal under this regulation.

(6) For the purposes of any provision relating to the time within which an appeal may be brought, the CAA's decision is deemed to have been taken on the date on which the CAA supplied a statement of its reasons for the decision to the applicant for an ATOL or the holder or former holder of it.

(3) The application must state the grounds on which it is based and must be served on the CAA within a period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the applicant first became entitled to make the application.

(4) If no such application is made within that period, the ATOL ceases at the expiration of that period to be treated as if granted to a person other than the person to whom it was granted.

(5) The CAA must not grant an application for the transfer of an ATOL to any person if it would be bound under regulation 32(1) to refuse that application if it were an application for the grant of an ATOL to that person, and the provisions of Part 5 as to decisions and hearings apply accordingly and references in that Part to “the person concerned” are to be construed accordingly as including references to the legal personal representative.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation “legal personal representative” means a person constituted executor, administrator or other representative of a deceased person by probate, administration or other instrument.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations revoke and replace the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 1995, as amended. In addition to some minor and drafting amendments the following changes are made.

Regulation 2 requires the Secretary of State to review the operation and effect of these Regulations and publish a report within five years after they come into force and within every five years after that. Following a review it will fall to the Secretary of State to consider whether the Regulations should remain as they are, or be revoked or be amended. A further instrument would be needed to revoke the Regulations or to amend them.

Part 2 (regulations 9 to 23) regulates who in the United Kingdom is entitled to provide flight accommodation, and restricts how such provision is made.

Regulation 9 requires an Air Travel Organiser's Licence (ATOL) to be held by anyone in the United Kingdom (other than an aircraft operator) who makes available flight accommodation, unless they are exempt under regulation 10 or 11. The exemption applies to agents of an ATOL holder, persons acting as a member of an accredited body, airline ticket agents, those persons established in an EEA state other than the UK who is not a Flight-Only provider, a worker for an ATOL holder, the CAA, the trustees of the Air Travel Trust (acting in that capacity) and those exempted by the CAA under regulation 11. "Accredited body" and "airline ticket agent" are defined in regulations 4, 13 and 33. Regulation 10(f) also exempts a person who is making available flight accommodation as a component of a Flight-Plus, but this exemption will not come into force until 30th April 2019.

Regulation 22 requires the CAA to publish a schedule of terms for written agency agreements which may be required to be included in any agency agreement between an ATOL holder and its agent.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/09/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012. (See end of Document for details)

Part 3 (regulations 24 to 30) regulates the arrangement of a Flight-Plus; this term is defined in regulation 24 but in brief, it relates to where a flight out of or into the United Kingdom is made available, and living accommodation and car hire abroad are requested to be booked. A Flight-Plus arranger (defined in regulation 25) is liable to the consumer for the provision of the flight accommodation, living accommodation and self-drive car hire provided as part of a Flight-Plus. If prior to departure by the consumer, the Flight-Plus arranger becomes aware that any of these elements will not be provided, the Flight-Plus arranger must provide suitable alternatives at no extra cost to the consumer (regulation 26). If after departure the Flight-Plus arranger becomes aware that the flight will not be provided, the Flight-Plus arranger must provide the consumer at no extra cost suitable alternative transport back to the place of departure. In the case of living accommodation or self-drive car hire not being provided, the Flight-Plus arranger must provide the consumer at no extra cost with suitable alternative living accommodation or self-drive car hire, as appropriate (regulation 27). Where suitable alternative arrangements cannot be made, the Flight-Plus arranger must compensate the consumer (regulation 28). However, the Flight-Plus arranger is not liable unless the reason for the non-availability of the flight or living accommodation or self-drive car hire is due to the insolvency of any person concerned with its provision or the failure of the ATOL holder providing the flight accommodation (regulation 30).

Part 4 (regulations 31 to 48) regulates the process for the CAA in dealing with applications, refusals and variations for ATOLs and accreditations as an accredited body. Regulations 32 and 34 specify circumstances where the CAA must or may refuse an ATOL or accreditation. Regulations 37 and 45 provide for expedited suspension of an ATOL or accreditation and regulations 38 and 46 provide for provisional variation of an ATOL or accreditation where the CAA believes such provisional variation is in the interests of consumers. The CAA is required to publish a schedule of ATOL standard terms and in granting an ATOL, the CAA may make an ATOL subject to one or more of the ATOL standard terms (regulation 40). The CAA is also required to publish a schedule of standard terms which may be made applicable to accredited bodies (regulation 48).

Part 5 (regulations 49 to 66) regulates the process by which decisions on licensing are made by the CAA. Regulation 50 requires certain decisions to be made by a Member of the CAA, whilst other decisions may be made by a Member or an employee of the CAA. "Member" is defined in regulation 4. The process incorporates an opportunity for representations to be made by the person concerned (regulation 53) and for that person to make a request for a hearing (regulation 56). There is also provision for an expedited hearing for urgent cases (regulation 58) and hearings in private (regulation 63). CAA is required to publish decisions to revoke or suspend a licence or accreditation (regulation 55).

Part 6 (regulations 67 and 68) provides for appeals to the county court, or in Scotland the sheriff court, from any decision of the CAA that a person is not a fit person to hold an ATOL, and for the transfer of an ATOL following the death of a sole holder of an ATOL.

Part 7 (regulations 69 to 71) deals with offences and penalties. Regulation 69 specifies the offences and penalties and regulation 70 provides for a due diligence defence. Regulation 71 extends the time limit for prosecution to 12 months beginning with the date of the commission of the offence.

Part 8 (regulation 72) makes amendments to the Civil Aviation (Contributions to the Air Travel Trust) Regulations 2007.

Part 9 makes transitional and saving provision. Regulation 73 provides for an ATOL granted by the CAA under the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 1995 to remain in force. Regulation 74 provides for supplying an ATOL Certificate "immediately" in regulation 18 to include posting or emailing within 3 days, until the end of September 2012. An impact assessment has been prepared in relation to these Regulations. The assessment has been placed in the Library of each House of Parliament and can be found on the Department for Transport website (<http://www.dft.gov.uk>).
