(c) omit paragraph (5);

(d) for paragraph (6), substitute—

“(6) The Practice Committee may make an interim order notwithstanding the absence of the registrant or the absence of any written representations from the registrant on whether or not an interim order should be made, if the Committee is satisfied that—

(a) all reasonable efforts have been made, in accordance with these Rules, to serve the registrant with the interim order notice,

(b) in the case that no interim order notice has been served in accordance with paragraph (2), that all reasonable efforts have been made, in accordance with these Rules, to serve the notice of meeting or hearing under rule 11 or rule 11A; or

(c) the registrant has informed the Council that she does not wish to appear and be heard on the question whether an interim order should be made.

(7) In paragraph (6), reference to the Practice Committee making an interim order includes reference to that Committee revoking, varying, confirming or replacing an interim order in accordance with article 31(7) of the Order.”.

9. In rule 9 (action upon referral of an allegation)—

(a) for paragraph (1), substitute—

“(1) Upon referral of an allegation to the Conduct and Competence Committee or to the Health Committee, that Committee shall notify the registrant of the allegation by serving a notice of referral upon her.”;

17. For rule 34 (service of documents), substitute—

“Service of documents

34.—(1) Any notice of hearing required to be served upon the registrant shall be delivered by sending it by a postal service or other delivery service in which delivery or receipt is recorded to, or by leaving it at—

- (a) her address in the register; or
- (b) where this differs from, and it appears to the Council more likely to reach her at, her last known address, the registrant’s last known address.

(2) If the registrant is represented by a solicitor, professional body or trade union, a copy of the notice served in accordance with paragraph (1) may also be—

- (a) sent or delivered to the solicitor’s practising address;
- (b) sent or delivered to the professional body or trade union’s business address; or
- (c) sent by electronic mail to an electronic mail address of the solicitor, professional body or trade union, where the address has been notified to the Council as an address for communications.

(3) Any other notice or document to be served on a person under these Rules may be sent by—

- (a) ordinary post; or
- (b) electronic mail to an electronic mail address that the person has notified to the Council as an address for communications.

(4) The service of any notice or document under these Rules may be proved by—

- (a) a confirmation of posting issued by or on behalf of the Post Office, or other postal operator or delivery service;
- (b) a confirmation of receipt of the notice or document sent by electronic mail; or
- (c) a signed statement from the person sending by ordinary post or delivering the notice in accordance with this rule.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(5) Where any notice or document is sent or otherwise served under these Rules, it shall be treated as having been served—

- (a) on the day after it was sent by delivery service; or
- (b) where the notice has been left at an address or sent by electronic mail, on the day on which it was left or sent.

Protection of third party information

35. Nothing in these Rules shall prevent the Council from taking such steps as it thinks fit in order to prevent the disclosure of personal data within the meaning of section 1 of the Data Protection Act 1998⁽³⁾ which relates to individuals who are not a party to the proceedings.”.
