(b) is or becomes aware that a relative has or proposes to have a business interest which, in the opinion of the member, interferes or could be seen as interfering with the impartial discharge of the member’s duties and has not previously been disclosed, the member shall immediately give written notice of that business interest to the chief officer.

(2) On receipt of a notice given under paragraph (1), the chief officer shall direct the appropriate officer to decide whether or not the business interest is compatible with the member concerned remaining a member of the police force.

(3) In deciding whether the business interest is compatible with the member concerned remaining a member of the police force, the appropriate officer shall have regard to whether, as a result of the business interest, the member’s conduct fails or would fail to meet the standards of professional behaviour set out in the Schedule to the Police (Conduct) Regulations 2008.

(4) Where the appropriate officer is minded to decide that the business interest is not compatible with the member concerned remaining a member of the police force, or is not so compatible unless conditions are imposed, the officer shall—

(a) notify the member in writing of this preliminary view and the reasons for it;

(b) give the member the opportunity to make representations in writing, at a meeting, or both, at the discretion of the member; and

(c) take any such representations into account.

 - (a) give the member the opportunity to make representations in writing, at a meeting, or both, at the discretion of the member; and
 - (b) take any such representations into account.
- (3) The chief officer shall decide the appeal unless it appears to the chief officer that—
 - (a) the member has adduced substantive reasons why the member should be permitted to have the business interest, or why conditions should not be imposed, which were not considered by the appropriate officer; or
 - (b) the appropriate officer failed to apply fair procedures, in which case the chief officer may direct the appropriate officer to decide the matter again under regulation 8.
