

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE REVENUE AND CUSTOMS APPEALS ORDER 2012

2012 No. 533

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

To insert a reference to the First-tier Tribunal in Great Britain into section 63(5) and (8) of the Tax Credits Act 2002 (c. 21). This reference was inadvertently omitted when tribunal functions were transferred to the new tribunal system by the Transfer of Tribunal Functions and Revenue and Customs Appeals Order 2009 (S.I. 2009/56)

3. Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

None.

4. Legislative Context

Section 63 of the Tax Credits Act 2002 provides for transitional arrangements for certain appeals and related matters.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

This instrument applies to all of the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

The Economic Secretary to the Treasury, Chloe Smith, has made the following statement regarding Human Rights:

In my view the provisions of the Revenue and Customs Appeals Order 2012 are compatible with the Convention rights.

7. Policy background

- What is being done and why

7.1 When Tax Credits appeals were transferred from the Social Security and Child Support Appeals Tribunal into the successor body, the Social Entitlement Chamber of the First-tier Tribunal, amendments were made to section 63 of the Tax Credits Act 2002 (by S.I. 2009/56) to reflect that change. However, in error, reference to this new Tribunal was not included in some of the amendments made to section 63(5) and (8). The consequence is that the settlement process provided for in section 63(8)(c) currently only applies to Northern Ireland cases.

7.2 To restore the legislation to the intended policy position this Order is made under Section 124 of the Finance Act 2008.

7.3 As this instrument corrects a defect in S.I. 2009/56, it will be issued free of charge to all known recipients of that instrument.

- Consolidation

Not applicable.

8. Consultation outcome

No formal consultation has taken place.

9. Guidance
