NOTES

1.Relevant or foreign offences

Relevant offences are the offences listed in Schedule 4 to the Licensing Act 2003:

The meaning of foreign offence is dealt with in section 113 of the Licensing Act 2003.

If you are the holder of a justices' licence and you are applying for a personal licence under regulation 8 of the Licensing Act (Personal licences) Regulations 2005 see paragraphs 23 and 28 in Part 3 of Schedule 8 to the Licensing Act 2003 for the information you are required to give.

If you are convicted of any relevant or foreign offence during the period between when your application is made and when your application is determined or withdrawn, you must notify the authority to which your application was made. Failure to do so without reasonable excuse could lead to prosecution and a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Licensing Act 2003 (Personal licences) Regulations 2005 (SI 2005/41).

The forms prescribed in Schedules 1 to 3 to these Regulations replace the forms prescribed respectively in Schedules 1 to 3 to the Licensing Act 2003 (Personal licences) Regulations 2005. These are respectively the forms of the application for the grant or renewal of a personal licence, and the form of declaration of disclosure of convictions which must accompany each of these applications.

Previously, each form contained reference to the Department for Culture, Media and Sport. This reference is redundant and has been deleted.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on businesses, charities, voluntary bodies or the public sector is foreseen.
