The Quality Standards for Green Bananas
(England and Wales) Regulations 2012

PART 3

Powers of Authorised Officers

Power to affix a re-graded label

8.—(1) Where an authorised officer who has entered premises under regulation 6 finds bananas which have affixed to them a label or are accompanied by a notice or a document, or are in a container to which a label is affixed or that is accompanied by a notice or document—

- (a) indicating that the bananas are of a particular class provided for in the marketing standards, but
- (b) which the authorised officer has reasonable cause to believe to be of an inferior class under the marketing standards, the authorised officer may amend or cancel the label, notice or document and may affix to those bananas, or, as the case may be, to the notice, document or container, a label indicating that fact (a “re-graded label”).

(2) The re-graded label must show one of the following as appropriate—

- (a) the words “RE-GRADED CLASS I”; or
- (b) the words “RE-GRADED CLASS II”.
