*Co-ownership schemes: rights and liabilities of participantsContracts

261M.—(1) In this section “authorised contract” means a contract which the operator of a co-ownership scheme is authorised to enter into on behalf of the relevant participants for the purposes of, or in connection with, the acquisition, management or disposal of property subject to the scheme (but does not include a contract by which a person becomes a participant in the scheme).

(2) The relevant participants are—

- (a) in the case of a contract relating to a stand-alone co-ownership scheme, the participants in the scheme;
- (b) in the case of a contract relating to an umbrella co-ownership scheme, the participants in the sub-scheme of the umbrella co-ownership scheme to which the contract relates.

(3) The operator on behalf of the relevant participants may—

- (a) exercise rights under an authorised contract;
- (b) bring and defend proceedings for the resolution of any matter relating to an authorised contract; and
- (c) take action in relation to the enforcement of any judgment given in such proceedings.

(4) The relevant participants may not themselves do any of the things mentioned in subsection (3), but this does not affect their rights as against the operator.

(5) A person who enters into a contract which purports to be an authorised contract is deemed to have actual knowledge of the scope of the authority given to the operator by the contractual scheme deed.

(6) The validity of an authorised contract is not to be called into question on the ground that a participant lacks capacity to authorise the operator to enter into such a contract.

(7) An authorised contract must make provision for any property which is acquired under or by virtue of the contract to be held by, or to the order of, the depositary of the scheme concerned.

Effect of becoming or ceasing to be a participant

261N.—(1) A person who at any time becomes a participant in a relevant scheme acquires the rights and becomes subject to the liabilities to which the other participants in the relevant scheme are entitled or subject at that time under, or in connection with, authorised contracts.

(2) A person who ceases to be a participant in a relevant scheme ceases to have any of the rights and to be subject to any of the liabilities to which a participant in the relevant scheme is entitled or subject under, or in connection with, authorised contracts.

(3) In this section—

- (a) “authorised contract” has the meaning given in section 261M(1); and
- (b) each of the following is a “relevant scheme”—
 - (i) a stand-alone co-ownership scheme; and
 - (ii) a sub-scheme of an umbrella co-ownership scheme.

Limited liability

261O.—(1) The debts of a relevant scheme are to be paid by the operator out of the property subject to the relevant scheme.

(2) The participants in a relevant scheme are not liable for the debts of the relevant scheme beyond the amount of the property subject to the relevant scheme which is available to the operator to meet the debts.

(3) In this section—

- (a) a reference to the debts of a relevant scheme is a reference to debts and obligations incurred under, or in connection with, authorised contracts;
- (b) “authorised contract” has the meaning given in section 261M(1); and
- (c) “relevant scheme” has the meaning given in section 261N(3).

Segregated liability in relation to umbrella co-ownership schemes

261P.—(1) The property subject to a sub-scheme of an umbrella co-ownership scheme must not be used to discharge any liabilities of, or meet any claims against, any person other than the participants in that sub-scheme.

(2) Any provision contained in any contract, agreement or other document is void in so far as it is inconsistent with subsection (1), and any transaction involving the application of property in contravention of that subsection is void.

(3) The FCA may give a direction under section 261X(2) in relation to a sub-scheme of an umbrella co-ownership scheme as if the sub-scheme were an authorised contractual scheme, but this subsection does not enable the FCA to apply to the court for an order under section 261Y in relation to a sub-scheme of an umbrella co-ownership scheme.

(4) Where such a direction is given, the reference in section 261Z1(6) to the scheme is to be read as a reference to the sub-scheme concerned.

Alterations

Alteration of contractual schemes and changes of operator or depositary

261Q.—(1) This section applies where the operator of an authorised contractual scheme proposes to make an alteration to the scheme, other than an alteration—

- (a) to which section 261S applies; or
- (b) to which Part 4 of the Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities Regulations 2011(26) (mergers) applies.

(2) The operator must give written notice of the proposal to the FCA.

(3) Any notice given in respect of a proposal to alter the scheme involving a change in the contractual scheme deed must be accompanied by a certificate signed by a solicitor to the effect that the change will not affect the compliance of the deed with the contractual scheme rules.

(4) The operator of an authorised contractual scheme must give written notice to the FCA of any proposal to replace the depositary of the scheme.

(5) The depositary of an authorised contractual scheme must give written notice to the FCA of any proposal to replace the operator of the scheme.

(6) Effect is not to be given to any proposal of which notice has been given under subsection (2), (4) or (5) unless—

- (a) the FCA, by written notice, has given its approval to the proposal; or

- (b) one month, beginning with the date on which the notice was given, has expired without the operator or the depositary having received from the FCA a warning notice under section 261R in respect of the proposal.

(7) The FCA must not approve a proposal to replace the operator or the depositary of an authorised contractual scheme unless it is satisfied that, if the proposed replacement is made, the scheme will continue to comply with the requirements of section 261D(4) to (9).

Procedure when refusing approval of a proposal under section 261Q

261R.—(1) If the FCA proposes to refuse approval of a proposal under section 261Q to replace the depositary or operator of an authorised contractual scheme, it must give a warning notice to the person by whom notice of the proposal was given under section 261Q(4) or (5).

(2) If the FCA proposes to refuse approval of a proposal under section 261Q to alter an authorised contractual scheme, it must give separate warning notices to the operator and the depositary of the scheme.

(3) To be valid the warning notice must be received by the person to whom it is given before the end of one month beginning with the date on which notice of the proposal was given.

(4) If, having given a warning notice to a person, the FCA decides to refuse approval—

- (a) it must give that person a decision notice; and
- (b) that person may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

Proposal to convert to a non-feeder UCITS

261S.—(1) This section applies where the operator of an authorised contractual scheme which is a feeder UCITS proposes to make an alteration to the scheme which—

- (a) involves a change in the contractual scheme deed, and
- (b) will enable the scheme to convert into a UCITS which is not a feeder UCITS.

(2) The operator must give written notice of the proposal to the FCA.

Ending of authorisation

Revocation of authorisation order otherwise than by consent

261U.—(1) An authorisation order may be revoked by an order made by the FCA if it appears to the FCA that—

(4) If the FCA proposes to refuse a request under this section, it must give separate warning notices to the operator and the depositary of the scheme.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations provide for the formation of undertakings for collective investment constituted in accordance with contract law. Such undertakings are called contractual schemes and are a new class of collective investment scheme (as defined by section 235 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c.8) (“FSMA”). A contractual scheme may be either a co-ownership scheme, which has no legal personality distinct from the persons who take part as investors, or a partnership scheme, which is a limited partnership under the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (c.24).

The Regulations also provide for the authorisation and supervision of contractual schemes by the Financial Conduct Authority (“the FCA”).

Provision for the formation of contractual schemes arises out of and is related to the right conferred by Article 1.3 of Directive 2009/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (OJ No. L 302, 17.11.2009, p.32). Article 1.3 confers a right to constitute undertakings of this description (“UCITS”) as common funds managed by management companies.

Part 2 (regulations 3, 4, 5 and 6) provides for contractual schemes by amending Part 17 of FSMA (collective investment schemes) and other primary legislation. Unless otherwise specified in this note, a reference to a section is a reference to a section of FSMA.

Regulation 3(5) inserts section 235A, which defines “contractual scheme” and “contractual scheme deed”. The operator of a co-ownership scheme has authority to acquire, manage and dispose of scheme property, and for that purpose to enter into contracts on behalf of the participants in the scheme. The operator of a partnership scheme is the general partner of the limited partnership.

Regulation 3(6) amends section 237 to take account of contractual schemes—

- sub-paragraph (a) amends section 237(1) to exclude contractual schemes from the definition of “unit trust scheme”;

- sub-paragraph (b) amends section 237(2) to specify who the operator is for a co-ownership scheme and a partnership scheme;
- sub-paragraph (d) inserts definitions for co-ownership schemes that consist of segregated sub-schemes and those that do not.

Regulation 3(12) inserts Chapter 3A into Part 17 of FSMA (collective investment schemes). Chapter 3A consists of sections 261C to 261Z5.

Sections 261C to 261G provide for the determination of applications for authorisation of contractual schemes. In order to be authorised, a scheme must meet specified requirements, including a requirement that the scheme must not allow units in the scheme to be issued to anyone other than—

- a professional client for the purpose of Directive 2004/39/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 April 2004 on markets in financial instruments (OJ No. L 145, 30.4.2004, p.1); or
- someone who makes a payment or contributes property having a value of not less than £1,000,000 in exchange for the units or already holds units in the scheme.

Sections 261I and 261J extend to authorised contractual schemes the power which the FCA has under sections 247 and 248 to make rules in relation to authorised unit trust schemes. Rules may be modified or waived under section 261L.

Sections 261M to 261P make provision about the contracts and the rights and liabilities of the participants in an authorised co-ownership scheme. Section 261O limits their liability for debts incurred under, or in connection with, contracts which the operator is authorised to enter into on their behalf. Section 261P provides for the segregation of the liabilities of participants in sub-schemes (where a co-ownership scheme is constituted as an umbrella co-ownership scheme).

Sections 261Q to 261S provide for the alteration of authorised contractual schemes, including the replacement of the operator or the depository and the conversion of a UCITS which is a feeder UCITS into a UCITS which is not a feeder UCITS.

Sections 261U, 261V and 261W provide for the revocation of an authorisation order made for a contractual scheme.

Sections 261X to 261Z5 confer intervention powers on the FCA and on the court on application by the FCA. Powers of direction include powers exercisable where a master UCITS which has one or more feeder UCITS which are authorised contractual schemes is wound up, merges with another UCITS or is divided into two or more UCITS.

Regulation 4 amends the Stock Transfer Act 1963 (c.18) so that provision made by that Act for the simplified transfer of securities applies to the transfer of units of an authorised contractual scheme.

Regulation 5 amends the Corporation Tax Act 2010 (c.4) so that no charge to corporation tax arises in relation to a co-ownership scheme.

Part 3 (regulations 7 to 15) amends secondary legislation. Regulation 13 amends the Limited Partnerships (Forms) Rules 2009 (S.I. 2009/2160) by substituting the form which is required to be used for registering changes to limited partnerships. The form in Schedule 1 allows for the registration of additional changes required to be registered in relation to partnership schemes.

Part 4 (regulation 16) modifies the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (c.24) in relation to a limited partnership which is a partnership scheme for which an authorisation order under Part 17 of FSMA has been made. The modifications include the following—

- the general partner's liability for partnership debts and obligations is qualified by regulations 18 and 19 of these Regulations;
- a limited partner is not liable for partnership debts and obligations beyond the amount of partnership property which is available to the general partner to meet them, and a person who ceases to be a limited partner ceases to have any liability for debts and obligations;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- the exercise of rights conferred on participants in a contractual scheme by FCA rules does not constitute taking part in the management of the partnership; and
- modified provision is made in relation to the registration of changes in the partnership.

Part 5 (regulations 17, 18 and 19) provide for winding up insolvent contractual schemes.

Regulation 17 and Schedules 2 to 5 provide for winding up a stand-alone co-ownership scheme or a sub-scheme of an umbrella co-ownership scheme (a “relevant scheme”) by the court as if it were an unregistered company, including provision—

- for determining which court has jurisdiction to wind up a relevant scheme;
- applying with modifications specified provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 (c.45) and the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989/2405 (N.I. 19));
- enabling a winding up petition to be presented by the operator or a creditor of a relevant scheme or by the FCA on the ground that the operator is unable to meet the debts of the relevant scheme, or that it is just and equitable that the relevant scheme should be wound up;
- enabling a winding up petition to be presented by the Secretary of State (or the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment if a relevant scheme is being wound up in Northern Ireland) on the ground that winding up is just and equitable in the public interest; and
- requiring the operator of a relevant scheme, if a petition is presented, immediately to cease investment activity and the issue and redemption of units.

Regulations 18 and 19 limit the liability of the general partner of an insolvent authorised partnership. The general partner of an authorised partnership which is wound up by the court as an unregistered company (in England and Wales or Northern Ireland) or whose estate is sequestrated under the Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act 1985 (c.66) is not personally liable for partnership debts incurred at a time when the authorisation order was in force. This does not affect the power of the court to award a remedy for misapplying partnership property or for misfeasance or breach of duty or, in the case of a partnership wound up as an unregistered company, for fraudulent or wrongful trading.

Part 6 (regulations 20 to 23) modifies the application to authorised contractual schemes of—

- the Law of Property Act 1925 (c.20) and the Statute of Frauds (Ireland) 1695 (c.12 (Ir), which would require transfers of title to units in a co-ownership scheme to be in writing; and
- the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995 (c.7), which would require gifts of title to units in any contractual scheme to be in writing.

The modifications allow such transfers to be made by electronic communication.

Part 7 (regulation 24) makes transitional provision in relation to depositaries of authorised contractual schemes. A person who already has permission under Part 4A of FSMA to act as the trustee of an authorised unit trust scheme and as the depositary of an open-ended investment company, if that person gives the FCA notice in accordance with the regulation, is treated as having permission under that Part to act as the depositary of an authorised contractual scheme.

Part 8 (regulation 25) requires the Treasury to review the operation and effect of these Regulations and publish a report within five years after they come into force and within every five years after that. Following a review it will fall to the Treasury to consider whether the Regulations should remain as they are or be revoked or amended. A further instrument would be needed to revoke the Regulations or to amend them.

A full impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector is available from Her Majesty’s Treasury, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ or on www.hm-treasury.gov.uk, and is published with the Explanatory Memorandum alongside the instrument on www.legislation.gov.uk.
