The Residential Holiday Schemes for Disabled
Children (England) Regulations 2013

PART 3

Conduct of Holiday Schemes for Disabled Children

CHAPTER 1

Welfare of Children

Restraint

15.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a measure of restraint may only be used on a child accommodated by the scheme for the purpose of—

- (a) preventing injury to any person; or
- (b) preventing serious damage to the property of any person, and then only where no alternative method of preventing the event specified in sub-paragraphs (a) or (b) is practicable.

(2) Where a measure of restraint is used on a child accommodated by the scheme—

- (a) the measure of restraint must be proportionate; and
- (b) no more force than is necessary may be used.
