The Criminal Procedure Rules 2013

PART 41

RETRIAL FOLLOWING ACQUITTAL FOR SERIOUS OFFENCE

Response of the acquitted person

41.3.—(1) An acquitted person who wants to oppose a section 76 application must serve a response in the form set out in the Practice Direction on the Registrar and the prosecutor which—

(a) indicates if he is also seeking an order under section 80(6) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003⁽¹⁾ for—

(i) the production of any document, exhibit or other thing, or

(ii) a witness to attend for examination and to be examined before the Court of Appeal;
and

(b) exhibits any relevant documents.

(2) The acquitted person must serve that response not more than 28 days after receiving notice under rule 41.2.

(3) The Court of Appeal may extend the period for service under paragraph (2), either before or after that period expires.
