

THE SCHEDULE

Article 3

Amendments to the Judicial Committee (Appellate Jurisdiction) Rules 2009

1. In the heading to rule 1 (Scope) there shall be added “and objective” and after rule 1(2), there shall be inserted the following—

“(3) The rule in Part 9 of this Schedule applies to appeals against draft Pastoral Schemes and the rules in Part 10 of this Schedule provide the procedure where matters are referred under section 4 of the Judicial Committee Act 1833 to the Judicial Committee for the Committee to hear or consider and to give advice to Her Majesty.

(4) These Rules must be applied and interpreted with a view to securing that the Judicial Committee is accessible, fair and efficient and that unnecessary disputes over procedural matters are discouraged.”.

2. Rule 2(1) (Interpretation) shall be amended by inserting, after “certificate of service”, the following—

“‘certificate of value’ means a certificate given under rule 7(6);”.

3. Rule 7 (Filing) shall be amended by inserting, after paragraph (5), the following—

“(6) An appellant must file with an application for permission to appeal or a notice of appeal a certificate of value in accordance with paragraph (7).

(7) In a certificate of value, the appellant must state—

- (a) the sum of money or the amount of damages he is claiming;
- (b) the sum of money or the amount of damages he has been awarded;
- (c) the value of the land or property which is the subject of the appeal or
- (d) the monetary value of the relief he is seeking is—
 - (i) not more than GBP£100,000,
 - (ii) more than GBP£100,000 but not more than GBP£500,000, or
 - (iii) more than GBP£500,000.

(8) When calculating the amount or value to be specified in a certificate of value, an appellant must disregard any possibility that he may recover interest or costs.

(9) Where an appellant is unable to quantify the amount or value to be specified in a certificate of value, he must file a signed statement to that effect and the minimum fees provided for by the Appendix to these Rules will be payable.”.

4. Rule 13(1) (time limit for filing notice of objection by respondent) shall be amended by substituting “28 days” for “14 days”.

5. For rule 18(2) (filing of notice of appeal), there shall be substituted the following—

“(2) The notice of appeal together with the requisite number of copies must be filed within 56 days of the date of the order or decision of the court below granting permission or final leave to appeal.”.

6. Rule 21(1) (time limit for filing statement of facts and issues) shall be amended by substituting, for the words from “Within” to “notice of appeal”, the words “Within 42 days after the receipt by the Registrar of the record”.

7. For rule 29 there shall be substituted the following—

“PART 9

Appeals against draft Pastoral Schemes

Appeals against draft Pastoral Schemes

55. The provisions of Parts 1 to 6 of these Rules (except rule 7(6)), and the Practice Directions which supplement them, shall be applied with such modifications and variations as may be required to applications for leave to appeal and appeals against draft pastoral schemes⁽¹⁾.

PART 10

References to the Judicial Committee

References under section 4 of the Judicial Committee Act 1833

56. Subject to the provisions of this Part, where a reference is made to the Judicial Committee, the provisions of Parts 1 to 6 of these Rules, and the Practice Directions which supplement them, shall be applied with such variations or modifications as may be required by the particular circumstances of the reference.

57. The person at whose request the reference was made (in this Part referred to as “the applicant”) must, within 21 days after the making of the reference—

- (a) provide the Registrar with the name and address of any person who is affected by the reference (in this Part referred to as “the respondent”); and
- (b) supply the Registrar with the names, addresses and contact details of the applicant’s legal representatives and (if known) of the respondent’s legal representatives.

58.—(1) At least 8 weeks before the hearing, the applicant must file 12 copies of an appendix of the essential documents which are necessary for consideration of the matter referred.

(2) The appendix must be submitted to, and agreed with, every respondent before being filed.

(3) The applicant and every respondent must then sequentially exchange their respective written cases and file 12 copies of them.

59. The Judicial Committee may make such orders as it considers just in respect of the reference or other proceeding on the reference before the Judicial Committee and it may, during the course of the proceedings, order the applicant to make a payment on account of the respondent’s costs in such sum as it considers fit.”.

15. For the Appendix there shall be substituted the following—

(1) The Mission and Pastoral Measure 2011 \(2011 No.3\) provides for appeals to be made to the Judicial Committee against draft pastoral schemes made by the Church Commissioners.
