STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2013 No. 377

SOCIAL SECURITY

The Social Security (Personal Independence Payment) Regulations 2013

Made - - - - 25th February 2013

Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1(2)

The Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 77(3), 78(3) and (4), 79(3) and (4), 80(1), (2), (3), (4) and (5)(a) and (c), 81(1), (3)(b) and (4), 83(3), 85(1), (5) and (6), 86(1) and (3), 87, 92(1) and 94(1), (2), (3)(a) and (4) of the Welfare Reform Act 2012^{F1}, makes the following Regulations.

A draft of this instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament pursuant to section 94(6) of that Act.

These Regulations are made under the provisions of that Act and are made before the end of a period of 6 months beginning with the coming into force of those provisions^{F2}.

Textual Amendments

F1 2012 c.5.

F2 See section 173(5)(a) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 \(c.5\) ('the 1992 Act'). The requirement to refer regulations to the Social Security Advisory Committee does not apply where regulations are contained in a statutory instrument made before the end of the period of six months beginning with the coming into force of the enactment under which the regulations were made. Schedule 9, paragraph 26(a) to the Welfare Reform Act 2012 \(c.5\) ('the Act') inserted a reference to Part 4 of that Act into section 170(5) of the 1992 Act which has the effect of making that Part of the Act a 'relevant enactment' and therefore subject to the requirement to refer regulations to the Social Security Advisory Committee unless section 173(5) applies.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/2022.

Changes to legislation: The Social Security (Personal Independence Payment) Regulations 2013 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 July 2024. Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“the 1998 Act” means the Social Security Act 1998^{F4};

“the Act” means the Welfare Reform Act 2012;

[^{F5}“adult disability payment” has the meaning given in regulation 2 of the Disability Assistance for Working Age People (Scotland) Regulations 2022;]

“aid or appliance”—

(a) means any device which improves, provides or replaces C's impaired physical or mental function; and

(b) includes a prosthesis;

“assessment” means the assessment referred to in regulation 4;

“C” means a person who has made a claim for or, as the case may be, is entitled to personal independence payment;

[^{F5}“child disability payment” has the meaning given in regulation 2 of the Disability Assistance for Children and Young People (Scotland) Regulations 2021;]

“component” means the daily living component or, as the case may be, the mobility component of personal independence payment;

“descriptor” means a descriptor in column 2 of the tables in Parts 2 and 3 of Schedule 1;

“disability living allowance” means disability living allowance under section 71 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992^{F6};

“medical treatment” means medical, surgical or rehabilitative treatment (including any course or diet or other regimen), and references to a person receiving or submitting to medical treatment are to be construed accordingly;

“prescribed date” means the date prescribed ^{F7} by regulation [^{F8}14, 15 or 15A];

“previous award” means an award of either or both components to which C has ceased to be entitled;

Changes to legislation: The Social Security (Personal Independence Payment) Regulations 2013 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“revised” means revised under section 9 of the 1998 Act, and “revision” is to be construed accordingly;

“superseded” means superseded under section 10 of the 1998 Act^{F9}, and “supersession” is to be construed accordingly; and terms defined for the purposes of a provision of Part 4 of the Act have the same meaning in these Regulations.

Assessment of ability to carry out activities

4.—(1) For the purposes of section 77(2) and section 78 or 79, as the case may be, of the Act, whether C has limited or severely limited ability to carry out daily living or mobility activities, as a result of C's physical or mental condition, is to be determined on the basis of an assessment.

(2) C's ability to carry out an activity is to be assessed –

- (a) on the basis of C's ability whilst wearing or using any aid or appliance which C normally wears or uses; or

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/2022.

Changes to legislation: The Social Security (Personal Independence Payment) Regulations 2013 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 July 2024. - (b) as if C were wearing or using any aid or appliance which C could reasonably be expected to wear or use.

[^{F10}(2A) Where C’s ability to carry out an activity is assessed, C is to be assessed as satisfying a descriptor only if C can do so—

- (a) safely;
- (b) to an acceptable standard;
- (c) repeatedly; and
- (d) within a reasonable time period.]

(3) Where C has been assessed as having severely limited ability to carry out activities, C is not to be treated as also having limited ability in relation to the same activities.

[^{F11}(4) In this regulation—

- (a) “safely” means in a manner unlikely to cause harm to C or to another person, either during or after completion of the activity;
- (b) “repeatedly” means as often as the activity being assessed is reasonably required to be completed; and
- (c) “reasonable time period” means no more than twice as long as the maximum period that a person without a physical or mental condition which limits that person’s ability to carry out the activity in question would normally take to complete that activity.]

Scoring for daily living activities

5.—(1) The score C obtains in relation to daily living activities is determined by adding together the number of points (if any) awarded for each activity listed in column 1 of the table in Part 2 of Schedule 1 (“the daily living activities table”).

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1), the number of points awarded to C for each activity listed in column 1 of the daily living activities table is the number shown in column 3 of the table against whichever of the descriptors set out in column 2 of the table for the activity applies to C under regulation 7.

(3) Where C has undergone an assessment, C has —

- (a) limited ability to carry out daily living activities where C obtains a score of at least 8 points in relation to daily living activities; and
- (b) severely limited ability to carry out daily living activities where C obtains a score of at least 12 points in relation to daily living activities.

Changes to legislation: The Social Security (Personal Independence Payment) Regulations 2013 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 July 2024. Scoring: further provision

7.—(1) The descriptor which applies to C in relation to each activity in the tables referred to in regulations 5 and 6 is—

- (a) where one descriptor is satisfied on over 50% of the days of the required period, that descriptor;
- (b) where two or more descriptors are each satisfied on over 50% of the days of the required period, the descriptor which scores the higher or highest number of points; and
- (c) where no descriptor is satisfied on over 50% of the days of the required period but two or more descriptors (other than a descriptor which scores 0 points) are satisfied for periods which, when added together, amount to over 50% of the days of the required period—
 - (i) the descriptor which is satisfied for the greater or greatest proportion of days of the required period; or,
 - (ii) where both or all descriptors are satisfied for the same proportion, the descriptor which scores the higher or highest number of points.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a descriptor is satisfied on a day in the required period if it is likely that, if C had been assessed on that day, C would have satisfied that descriptor.

(3) In paragraphs (1) and (2), “required period” means—

- (a) in the case where entitlement to personal independence payment falls to be determined, the period of 3 months ending with the prescribed date together with—
 - (i) in relation to a claim after an interval for the purpose of regulation 15 [^{F12}or 15A], the period of 9 months beginning with the date on which that claim is made;

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/2022.

- (ii) in relation to any other claim, the period of 9 months beginning with the day after the prescribed date.
- (b) in the case where personal independence payment has been awarded to C—
 - (i) during the period of 3 months following a determination of entitlement under a claim for the purpose of regulation 15 [^{F13}or 15A], the period of 3 months ending with the prescribed date together with, for each day of the award, the period of 9 months beginning with the day after that date;

PART 3

Required period condition

Required period condition: daily living component

12.—(1) C meets the required period condition for the purposes of section 78(1) of the Act (daily living component at standard rate) where —

- (a) if C had been assessed at every time in the period of 3 months ending with the prescribed date, it is likely that the Secretary of State would have determined at that time that C had limited ability to carry out daily living activities; and
- (b) if C were to be assessed at every time in the period of 9 months beginning with the day after the prescribed date, it is likely that the Secretary of State would determine at that time that C had limited ability to carry out daily living activities.

(2) C meets the required period condition for the purposes of section 78(2) of the Act (daily living component at enhanced rate) where —

- (a) if C had been assessed at every time in the period of 3 months ending with the prescribed date, it is likely that the Secretary of State would have determined at that time that C had severely limited ability to carry out daily living activities; and
- (b) if C were to be assessed at every time in the period of 9 months beginning with the day after the prescribed date, it is likely that the Secretary of State would determine at that time that C had severely limited ability to carry out daily living activities.

The prescribed date: claims for personal independence payment after an interval

15.—(1) Paragraphs (2) and (3) apply where—

- (a) C makes a claim for personal independence payment (“the new claim”);
 - (b) C had a previous award [^{F18}for personal independence payment or adult disability payment] which ended not more than 2 years before the date on which the new claim is made;
 - (c) the previous award referred to in sub-paragraph (b)[^{F19}, where that award was in respect of personal independence payment or adult disability payment,] consisted of the same component as the one to which C is entitled (or would be entitled if C met the required period condition) under the new claim; and
 - (d) the Secretary of State determines that the entitlement under the new claim results from—
 - (i) substantially the same physical or mental condition or conditions for which the previous award was made; or
 - (ii) a new physical or mental condition which developed as a result of a condition for which the previous award was made.
- (2) In relation to determination of entitlement under the new claim—
- (a) the prescribed date for the purposes of regulations 12(1)(a) and (2)(a) and 13(1)(a) and (2) (a) is the date on which the previous award ended [^{F20}where that award was in respect of personal independence payment or adult disability payment]; and
 - (b) regulations 12(1)(b) and (2)(b) and 13(1)(b) and (2)(b) have effect in relation to the new claim as if, for the words ‘the prescribed date’ there were substituted ‘the date on which the new claim for personal independence payment is made’.

^{F22}The prescribed date: claims for personal independence payment after award of Child Disability Payment

15A.—(1) Paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) apply where—

- (a) C makes a claim for personal independence payment (“the new claim”);
- (b) C had a previous award of child disability payment which ended not more than 2 years before the date on which the new claim is made; and
- (c) C is aged 16 years or over at the date of the new claim.

(2) In relation to determination of entitlement under the new claim—

- (a) the prescribed date for the purposes of regulations 12(1)(a) and (2)(a) and 13(1)(a) and (2)(a) is the date on which the previous award ended where that award was in respect of child disability payment; and
- (b) regulations 12(1)(b) and (2)(b) and 13(1)(b) and (2)(b) have effect in relation to the new claim as if, for the words “the prescribed date” there were substituted “the date on which the new claim for personal independence payment is made”.

(3) Where C is awarded either or both components under the new claim, in relation to entitlement to that component or, as the case may be, those components, for the period of 3 months following the date of the new claim—

26.—(1) Where C has reached the relevant age and makes a new claim in the circumstances set out in regulation 15 the following exceptions apply.

- (2) The exceptions referred to in paragraph (1) are—
 - (a) section 83(1) of the Act (persons of pensionable age) does not apply;
 - (b) the reference to ‘2 years’ in regulation 15(1)(b) is to be read as ‘1 year’;
 - (c) where C is assessed as having severely limited ability to carry out mobility activities for the purposes of the new claim—

Payability exceptions: care homes and hospitals

30.—(1) Subject to the following paragraphs, regulation 28(1) or, as the case may be, regulation 29(1) does not apply to C in respect of the first 28 days of any period during which C is someone to whom that regulation applies.

(2) Where, on the day on which C's entitlement to personal independence payment commences, C meets the condition in section 85(2) of the Act (care home residents: costs of qualifying services borne out of public or local funds) or section 86(2) of the Act (in-patient treatment: costs of treatment, accommodation and related services borne out of public funds), paragraph (1) does not apply to C in respect of any period of consecutive days, beginning with that day, on which C continues to satisfy that condition.

(3) Regulation 28 or, as the case may be, regulation 29 does not apply where C is residing in a hospice and is terminally ill, and the Secretary of State has been informed that C is terminally ill—

- (a) on a claim for personal independence payment;
- (b) on an application for a revision or a supersession of an award of personal independence payment; or
- (c) in writing in connection with an award of, or a claim for, or an application for a revision or a supersession of an award of, personal independence payment.

(4) In paragraph (3), “hospice” means a hospital or other institution whose primary function is to provide palliative care for persons resident there who are suffering from a progressive disease in its final stages, other than —

- (a) a health service hospital in England (within the meaning of section 275^{F100} of the National Health Service Act 2006);
- (b) a hospital in Wales vested in –
 - (i) an NHS trust;
 - (ii) a Local Health Board; or
 - (iii) the Welsh Ministers,
 for the purpose of functions under the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006^{F101};
- (c) a health service hospital in Scotland (within the meaning of section 108(1)^{F102} of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978);
- (d) a hospital maintained by the Defence Council; or
- (e) an institution similar to a hospital mentioned in any of the preceding sub-paragraphs of this paragraph.

(5) Regulation 28(1) does not apply to a case where, during any period the total cost of the qualifying services^{F103} are met —

- (a) out of the resources of the person for whom the qualifying services are provided, or partly out of that person's own resources and partly with assistance from another person or a charity^{F104}; or
- (b) on that person's behalf by another person or a charity.

Prisoners and detainees

31.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), section 87 of the Act (prisoners and detainees) does not apply in respect of the first 28 days of any period during which C is a person to whom that section would otherwise apply.

(2) Where, on the day on which C's entitlement to personal independence payment commences, C is a person to whom that section applies, paragraph (1) does not apply to C in respect of any period of consecutive days, beginning with that day, on which C continues to be a person to whom that section applies.

(3) Section 87 of the Act does not apply to C in respect of any period after the conclusion of criminal proceedings as a result of which C is detained in a hospital or similar institution in Great Britain as a person suffering from mental disorder unless C satisfies either of the conditions set out in paragraph (4).

(4) The conditions referred to in paragraph (3) are —

(a) C is -

(i) detained under section 45A of the Mental Health Act 1983 ^{F106} (power of higher courts to direct hospital admission) or section 47 ^{F107} of that Act (removal to hospital of persons serving sentences of imprisonment, etc); and

(ii) being detained on or before the day which the Secretary of State has certified to be C's release date within the meaning of section 50(3) of that Act ^{F108}; or

(b) C is being detained under-

(i) section 59A of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 ^{F109} (hospital direction);

- (ii) section 136 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 ^{F110} (transfer of prisoners for treatment of mental disorder).
- (5) For the purposes of this regulation —
- (a) “hospital or similar institution” means any place (not being a prison, a detention centre, a young offenders institution or remand centre and not being at or in any such place) in which persons suffering from mental disorder are or may be received for care or treatment;
 - (b) criminal proceedings against any person are deemed to be concluded upon that person being found insane in those proceedings with the effect that that person cannot be tried or the trial of that person cannot proceed.
- (6) Section 87 of the Act does not apply to C where —
- (a) C is undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody outside Great Britain; and

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations set out the principal provisions relating to personal independence payment which is established under Part 4 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 ('the 2012 Act').

Part 2 provides for the assessment for personal independence payment which will determine whether and to what extent a person who applies for such a payment has limited or severely limited ability to carry out daily living activities and mobility activities.

Status: Point in time view as at 18/10/2022.

Changes to legislation: The Social Security (Personal Independence Payment) Regulations 2013 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Regulation 3 provides that daily living activities and mobility activities are those set out in Schedule 1 to these Regulations.

Regulation 4 provides that a person's ability to carry out those activities is to be determined by an assessment and regulations 5 to 7 set out how those activities are to be scored in the assessment.

Regulation 8 allows the Secretary of State to request information or evidence to enable the determination of the claim to be made and requires that such information or evidence is provided within one month or such other period as the Secretary of State considers reasonable. If such information is not provided without good reason, a negative determination shall be made in relation to the relevant component (regulation 8(3)). A negative determination is a finding that the claimant does not meet the requirements to be entitled to personal independence payment.

Regulation 9 provides that a claimant may be called to attend and participate in a consultation in person or to participate in a consultation by telephone or both and failure to attend or participate without good reason shall result in a negative determination being made in relation to the relevant component.

Regulation 10 sets out matters which are to be taken into account in determining a good reason in regulations 8 and 9.

The Secretary of State may determine afresh the ability of a claimant to carry out activities (regulation 11).

Regulations 12 to 15 set out provisions relating to the required period condition, which the claimant needs to satisfy to be entitled to personal independence payment.

Part 4 sets out the residence and presence conditions for entitlement to personal independence payment.

Regulation 16 provides that a person must be present in Great Britain; have been present in Great Britain for 104 weeks out of the previous 156 weeks; be habitually resident in Great Britain and not subject to immigration control on every day of a claim.

Regulations 17 to 23 provide exceptions to regulation 16.

Regulation 24 sets out the rates of personal independence payment.

Part 6 contains provisions in relation to age. Regulations 25 to 27 make exceptions to the provision in section 83(1) of the Act that people over the 'relevant age' cannot claim personal independence payment.

Part 7 makes provision about when payment of personal independence payment will cease because the claimant is resident in a particular place. Regulation 28 applies to claimants residing in care homes and regulation 29 to claimants residing in hospitals or similar institutions where certain conditions are satisfied. Regulation 30 provides exceptions to regulations 28 and 29. Regulation 31 makes an exception to section 87 of the Act which provides that prisoners and detainees cannot receive personal independence payment. Regulation 32 provides further information about periods of time spent in a care home, a hospital or similar institution or in legal custody.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no impact on the private sector or civil society organisations.
