The Civil Legal Aid (Financial Resources and Payment for Services) Regulations 2013

PART 2

Determinations in respect of an individual's financial resources

CHAPTER 1

Financial eligibility limits and waivers

Determination in respect of an individual's financial resources

4.—(1) This Part applies for the purposes of determining whether an individual qualifies for civil legal services under Part 1 of the Act in accordance with section 11(1)(a).

(2) Subject to regulation 5, the Director must determine whether the individual's financial resources are such that the individual is eligible for civil legal services in accordance with these Regulations.

Exceptions from requirement to make a determination in respect of an individual's financial resources

5.—(1) The following forms of civil legal services [^{F1}are available] without a determination in respect of an individual's financial resources—

- (a) such legal help and help at court as is authorised, under the provider's arrangement with the Lord Chancellor under section 2(1) (arrangements) of the Act, to be provided without a determination in respect of an individual's financial resources;
- (b) such forms of civil legal services as are provided through grants under section 2(2) (arrangements) of the Act where the terms of the grant provide that the services are available without a determination in respect of an individual's financial resources;
- [^{F2}(ba) legal representation or family help (higher) where the individual is a child;]
- (c) legal representation in a special Children Act 1989 case;
- (d) legal representation in proceedings related to any proceedings in sub-paragraph (c) to the extent that the individual to whom the legal representation may be provided is an individual to whom legal representation is being provided under sub-paragraph (c) and—
 - (i) the proceedings are being heard together with those proceedings referred to in sub-paragraph (c); or
 - (ii) an order is being sought in the proceedings as an alternative to an order in the proceedings referred to in sub-paragraph (c);

Financial eligibility limit – gross income

7.—(1) For the purposes of this regulation, “gross income” means income under regulation 21 before any deductions are made other than—

- (a) those payments which are to be disregarded under regulation 24; and
- (b) any housing benefit paid under section 130 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 ^{M28} or section 129 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992.

(2) This regulation does not apply to any applications to which regulation 5 or 6 applies.

(3) In relation to the calculation of gross income—

- (a) regulations 13, 15, 16, 17 and 20 apply as if “gross income” were substituted for “disposable income” each time it appears; and
- (b) regulations 26 and 27 do not apply.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), where the gross monthly income of the individual exceeds £2,657, the Director must determine that the individual's financial resources are such that the individual is not eligible for civil legal services.

(5) Where the individual has more than four dependent children in respect of whom the individual receives child benefit, the sum referred to in paragraph (4) must be increased by £222 in respect of the fifth and each subsequent child.

(6) In this regulation “child benefit” means child benefit under section 141 ^{M29} of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 or section 137 ^{M30} of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992.

Financial eligibility limit – disposable income and disposable capital

8.—(1) This regulation has effect subject to regulations 5, 6 and 7.

(2) Except where paragraph (3) applies, where an individual's monthly disposable income does not exceed £733 and the individual's disposable capital does not exceed £8,000, the Director must determine that the individual's financial resources are such that the individual is eligible for civil legal services.

(3) Where an individual's monthly disposable income does not exceed £733 and the individual's disposable capital does not exceed £3,000, the Director must determine that the individual's financial resources are such that the individual is eligible for legal representation in respect of any matter described in paragraphs 25 to 29 (immigration) [^{F44}, 32(1) (victims of trafficking in human beings) and 32A(1) (victims of slavery, servitude or forced or compulsory labour)] of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act before—

CHAPTER 2

Making a determination in respect of an individual's financial resources

Provision of information

13. Where an application is made, or a further determination falls to be made under regulation 20, the individual must provide the Director with the information necessary to enable the Director to—

- (a) make the determination referred to in regulation 4(2); and
- (b) calculate, where relevant, the disposable income and disposable capital of the individual.

Calculations

14.—(1) The Director must, subject to regulation 6—

- (a) calculate the gross income of the individual in accordance with regulation 7;
- (b) calculate the disposable income and disposable capital of the individual in accordance with regulations 21 to 43; and
- (c) calculate any contributions payable in accordance with regulations 44 and 45.

(2) When calculating—

- (a) gross income for the purposes of regulation 7; or
- (b) disposable income for the purposes of regulation 8,

the period of calculation is one month.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, one month means the period of one calendar month which ends on the date on which the application is made, or such other equivalent period as the Director considers appropriate.

(4) Where the Director calculates that an individual has disposable income or disposable capital of an amount which does not make the individual eligible for civil legal services, the Director must determine that the individual's financial resources are such that the individual is not eligible for civil legal services.

Application in representative, fiduciary or official capacity

15.—(1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where the individual is acting in a representative, fiduciary or official capacity.

(2) The Director, in calculating the individual's disposable income and disposable capital, and the amount of any contribution to be paid—

- (a) subject to sub-paragraph (c), must not take the personal resources of the individual acting in such a capacity into account unless the Director considers that the individual might benefit from the proceedings;
- (b) must have regard to the value of any property or estate, or the amount of any fund, out of which that individual is entitled to be indemnified; and

Changes to legislation: The Civil Legal Aid (Financial Resources and Payment for Services) Regulations 2013, PART 2 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) may also have regard to the resources of any person who has a beneficial interest in that property, estate or fund.

Resources to be treated as the individual's resources

16.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), in calculating the disposable income and disposable capital of the individual, the resources of the individual's partner must be treated as the individual's resources.

(2) The resources of the individual's partner must not be treated as the individual's resources if the individual has a contrary interest in the dispute in respect of which the application is made.

(3) Paragraph (4) applies where an application is made for any form of civil legal services except legal representation [^{F53}or family help (higher)].

(4) Where the individual is a child, the resources of a parent, guardian or any other person who is responsible for maintaining the child, or who usually contributes substantially to the child's maintenance, must be treated as the child's resources, unless, having regard to all the circumstances, including the age and resources of the child and any conflict of interest, it appears inequitable to do so.

(5) Where it appears to the Director that—

- (a) another person is, has been or is likely to be substantially maintaining the individual or any person whose resources are to be treated as the individual's resources under this regulation; or
- (b) any of the resources of another person have been or are likely to be made available to the individual or any person whose resources are to be treated as the individual's resources under this regulation, the Director may treat all or any part of the resources of that other person as the resources of the individual, and may assess or estimate the value of those resources as well as the Director is able.

(6) A reference to “individual” in regulations 21 to 36 and 40 to 43 is a reference to—

- (a) the individual in respect of whom the determination about financial resources is being made; and
- (b) any person whose resources are to be treated as the individual's resources under this regulation.

Deprivation or conversion of resources

17. If it appears to the Director that the individual, or any person whose resources are to be treated as the individual's resources in accordance with regulation 16, has, with intent to reduce the amount of their disposable income or disposable capital, whether for the purpose of making the individual eligible to receive civil legal services, reducing the individual's liability to pay a contribution, or otherwise—

- (a) directly or indirectly deprived themselves of any resources;
- (b) transferred any resources to another person; or

Status: Point in time view as at 03/08/2023.

Changes to legislation: The Civil Legal Aid (Financial Resources and Payment for Services) Regulations 2013, PART 2 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) converted any part of their resources into resources which under these Regulations are to be wholly or partly disregarded, those resources must be treated as part of the individual's resources or as not so converted as the case may be.

Duty to report change in financial circumstances

18. The individual must immediately inform the Director of any change in the individual's financial circumstances (or those of any person whose resources are to be treated as the individual's resources in accordance with regulation 16)—

- (a) of which the individual is, or should reasonably be, aware;
- (b) which has occurred since any application or determination in respect of the individual's financial resources; and
- (c) which might affect a determination that the individual's financial resources are such that the individual is eligible for civil legal services or the amount, if any, of any contribution payable.

Amendment of determination due to error or receipt of new information

19. Where—

- (a) it appears to the Director that there has been an error in a determination in respect of an individual's financial resources or the amount of any contribution payable, or in any calculation or estimate upon which that determination was based; or
- (b) new information which is relevant to the determination in respect of an individual's financial resources has come to light, the Director may amend the determination in respect of the individual's financial resources, and may take such steps as appear equitable to give effect to it in relation to any period during which civil legal services have already been provided.

Further determinations

20.—(1) Where—

- (a) the Director has determined under regulation 8 that the individual's financial resources are such that the individual is eligible to receive civil legal services; and
- (b) it appears to the Director that the circumstances of the individual may have changed so that—
 - (i) their normal disposable income may have increased by an amount greater than £60 or decreased by an amount greater than £25; or
 - (ii) their disposable capital may have increased by an amount greater than £750, the Director must, subject to paragraph (7), make a further determination in respect of the individual's financial resources, and the contribution (if any) payable in accordance with these Regulations.

(2) Where—

- (a) the Director has determined under regulation 6 that the individual's financial resources are such that the individual is eligible for civil legal services; and
- (b) it appears to the Director that the individual is not, or is no longer, properly in receipt, directly or indirectly, of a benefit or support referred to in that regulation,

the Director must, subject to paragraph (7), make a further determination in respect of the individual's financial resources, and contribution (if any) payable in accordance with these Regulations.

(3) For the purposes of the further determination under paragraph (1) or (2), the period of calculation must be the period of one month following the date of the change of circumstances or such other period of one month as the Director considers appropriate.

(4) Where a further determination is made, the amount or value of every resource of a capital nature acquired since the date the original application was made must be ascertained as at the date of receipt of that resource.

(5) Any contribution out of capital in accordance with regulation 44(3) which becomes payable as a result of a further determination must be paid in respect of the cost of the civil legal services, including costs already incurred.

(6) Where a determination in relation to which a certificate was issued is withdrawn as a result of a further determination, the Director may require a contribution to be paid in respect of costs already incurred.

(7) The Director may decide not to make a further determination under paragraph (1) or (2) if the Director considers such a further determination inappropriate, having regard in particular to the period during which civil legal services are likely to continue to be provided to the individual.

CHAPTER 3

Calculation of income

Calculation of income

21. The income of the individual must be taken to be—

- (a) the gross amount the individual has earned or will earn;
- (b) the gross amount of any entitlements that have accrued, or will accrue, to the individual; and
- (c) any other gross sums from any source which the individual has received, or is likely to receive, in cash or in kind, during the period of calculation (referred to in regulation 14(2) and (3)), but in calculating such income the Director may have regard to the average income of the individual during such other period as the Director considers appropriate.

Calculation of income from trade, business or gainful employment

22.—(1) The income from a trade, business or gainful occupation other than an occupation at a wage or salary must be deemed to be whichever of the following the Director considers more appropriate and practicable—

- (a) the profits which have accrued or will accrue to the individual in respect of the period of calculation; or
- (b) the drawings of the individual.

(2) In calculating the profits under paragraph (1)(a)—

- (a) the Director may have regard to the profits of the last accounting period of such trade, business or gainful occupation for which accounts have been prepared; and
- (b) there must be deducted all sums necessarily expended to earn those profits, but no deduction may be made in respect of the living expenses of the individual or any member of their family or household, except in so far as such member of their family or household is wholly or mainly employed in such trade or business and such living expenses form part of that member's remuneration.

Deductions for income tax and national insurance contributions

23.—(1) For the purposes of this regulation, “national insurance contributions” means contributions under Part 1 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 ^{M32}.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), in calculating the disposable income of the individual, any income tax and national insurance contribution paid on that income in respect of the period of calculation must be deducted.

(3) Where an application is made for family help (higher) or legal representation, in calculating the disposable income of the individual any income tax and national insurance contribution payable on that income in respect of the period of calculation must be deducted.

Deductions in respect of a partner and dependants of the individual

25.—(1) For the purposes of this regulation, “the Schedule” means Schedule 2 to the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 ^{M47}.

Status: Point in time view as at 03/08/2023.

Changes to legislation: The Civil Legal Aid (Financial Resources and Payment for Services) Regulations 2013, PART 2 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), in calculating the disposable income of the individual there must be a deduction at or equivalent to the following rates (as they applied at the beginning of the period of calculation)—

- (a) in respect of the maintenance of the individual's partner, the difference between the income support allowance for a couple both aged not less than 18 (which is specified in column 2 of item (3)(d) of the table in paragraph 1 of the Schedule), and the allowance for a single person aged not less than 25 (which is specified in column 2 of item (1)(e) of the table in paragraph 1 of the Schedule); and
- (b) in respect of the maintenance of any dependent child or dependent relative of the individual, where such persons are members of the individual's household—
 - (i) in the case of a dependent child or a dependent relative aged 15 or under at the beginning of the period of calculation, the amount specified at (a) in column 2 in the table in paragraph 2 of the Schedule; and
 - (ii) in the case of a dependent child or a dependent relative aged 16 or over at the beginning of the period of calculation, the amount specified at (b) in column 2 in the table in paragraph 2 of the Schedule.

(3) The Director may reduce any rate provided by virtue of paragraph (2) by taking into account the income and other resources of the dependent child or dependent relative to such extent as appears to the Director to be equitable.

(4) In ascertaining whether a child is a dependent child or whether a person is a dependent relative for the purposes of this regulation, regard must be had to their income and other resources.

Deduction in respect of maintenance

26. Where the individual is making and, throughout such period as the Director considers adequate, has regularly made payments for the maintenance of—

- (a) a former partner;
- (b) a child; or
- (c) a relative,

who is not a member of the individual's household, a reasonable amount must be deducted in respect of such payments.

Deductions in respect of employment expenses and child care costs

27.—(1) Where the income of the individual consists, wholly or partly, of a wage or salary from employment, there must be deducted—

- (a) the sum of £45 per month; and

- (b) where it would be reasonable to do so, an amount to provide for the care of any dependent child living with the individual during the time that individual is absent from home by reason of their employment.

(2) Where the income of the individual consists, wholly or partly, of income from a trade, business or gainful occupation other than an occupation at a wage or salary, there must be deducted, where it would be reasonable to do so, an amount to provide for the care of any dependent child living with the individual during the time that individual is absent from home whilst the individual is engaged in that trade, business or gainful occupation.

[^{F73}(3) Where the income of the individual consists, wholly or partly, of study-related income, there must be deducted, where it would be reasonable to do so, an amount to provide for the care of any dependent child living with the individual during the time that individual is absent from home by reason of their course of study.

- (4) In this regulation, the “study-related income” of an individual means income consisting of a—
- (a) student loan;
 - (b) student grant; or
 - (c) other income received from a person who is not a partner or relative of the individual, and the purpose of the income is to support the individual’s course of study.]

Deductions in respect of rent or cost of living accommodation

28.—(1) Paragraphs (2) to (5) apply only if the individual is a householder.

(2) Subject to paragraph (4), in calculating the disposable income of the individual—

- (a) the net rent payable by the individual in respect of their main or only dwelling must be deducted; and
- (b) where the individual resides in more than one dwelling, the Director must decide which is the main dwelling.

(3) In calculating the amount of net rent payable, there must be deducted—

- (a) any housing benefit paid under section 130 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 ^{M48} or section 129 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992;
- (b) any proceeds of sub-letting any part of the premises; and
- (c) an amount reasonably attributable to any person other than the individual, their partner or any dependant of the individual, who is accommodated in the premises otherwise than as a sub-tenant.

(4) Where the amount of net rent paid by the individual is less than the amount of net rent payable, the Director may deduct the lesser amount where the Director considers it is reasonable to do so in the circumstances, having regard to—

- (a) the likelihood that the individual will recommence payment of the full contractual amount in the future;
- (b) the relationship of the individual with the landlord; and
- (c) any agreement with the landlord or mortgagee for payment deferral.

(5) Paragraph (4) does not apply where the individual makes an application in respect of a matter described in paragraph 33 (loss of home) of Part 1 of Schedule 1, to the extent that—

- (a) the matter concerns possession of the individual's home; and
- (b) the individual is resisting a court order for such possession.

(6) If the individual is not a householder, a reasonable amount in respect of the cost of their living accommodation must be deducted.

(7) If no deduction has been made under regulation 25(2), the maximum amount to be deducted under paragraph (2) or (4) or, as the case may be, (6), must be £545.

(8) In this regulation—

“householder”, in relation to domestic premises, means a person who—

- (a) owns the dwelling (as a freeholder or leaseholder); or
- (b) rents accommodation at that address (as a tenant or sub-tenant); and

“net rent” means—

- (a) any monthly rent; and
- (b) any monthly instalment (whether of interest or capital) in respect of a debt secured by a mortgage or charge on the property.

CHAPTER 4

Calculation of capital

Calculating disposable capital

30. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, in calculating the disposable capital of the individual, the amount or value of every resource of a capital nature belonging to the individual on the date on which the application is made must be included.

Value of resource of a capital nature

31. In so far as any resource of a capital nature does not consist of money, its value must be taken to be—

- (a) the amount which that resource would realise if sold; or
- (b) the value assessed in such other manner as appears to the Director to be equitable.

Value of any money due

32. Where money is due to the individual—

- (a) whether it is payable immediately or otherwise; and
- (b) whether payment is secured or not,

its value must be taken to be its present value.

Value of life insurance etc

33. The value to the individual of any life insurance or endowment policy must be taken to be the amount which the individual could readily borrow on the security of that policy.

Exclusions from disposable capital

34. Other than in circumstances which are exceptional having regard in particular to the quantity or value of the items concerned, nothing may be included in the disposable capital of the individual in respect of—

- (a) the household furniture and effects of the main or only dwelling occupied by the individual;
- (b) articles of personal clothing; and
- (c) the implements of the trade of the individual, unless they form part of the plant or equipment of a business to which the provisions of regulation 36 apply.

Interest in common property

35. Subject to regulation 36, in calculating the value of the interest of the individual in any resource of a capital nature which the individual owns jointly or in common with any other person, the Director may treat that resource as being owned—

- (a) in equal shares; or
- (b) in such other proportions as appear to the Director to be equitable.

Value of the business etc

36.—(1) Paragraphs (2) to (4) apply where an application is made for—

- (a) legal representation, except legal representation for proceedings in—
 - (i) the Immigration and Asylum Chamber of the First-tier Tribunal ^{M50};
 - (ii) the Immigration and Asylum Chamber of the Upper Tribunal ^{M51} in relation to an appeal or review from the Immigration and Asylum Chamber of the First-tier Tribunal; or
- (b) family help (higher).

(2) Where the individual is the sole owner of, or a partner in, a business, the value of the business to the individual must be taken to be the greater of—

- (a) such sum, or their share of such sum, as could be withdrawn from the assets of the business without substantially impairing its profits or normal development; and
- (b) such sum as the individual could borrow on the security of their interest in the business without substantially injuring its commercial credit.

(3) Where the individual stands in relation to a company in a position analogous to that of a sole owner of, or a partner in, a business, the Director may, instead of ascertaining the value of the individual's stocks, shares, bonds or debentures in that company, treat the individual as if they were a sole owner of, or a partner in, a business and calculate the amount of the individual's capital in respect of that resource in accordance with paragraph (2).

(4) Where the individual owns solely, jointly or in common with other persons, any interest on the termination of a prior estate—

- (a) whether—
 - (i) legal or equitable;
 - (ii) vested or contingent; or
 - (iii) in reversion or remainder; and
- (b) whether in real or personal property or in a trust or other fund, the Director must calculate the value of such interest in such manner as appears to the Director to be both equitable and practicable.

(5) Where an application is made for other forms of civil legal services, the sums described in this regulation must be disregarded from the calculation of capital.
