The Inter-authority Recoupment (England) Regulations 2013

Claims for recoupment

10. Any claim for payment which a providing authority in England makes to a home authority in England or Wales by virtue of these Regulations must—

- (a) be made in writing;
- (b) specify the person in respect of whom payment is claimed and the amount claimed; and
- (c) be submitted to the appropriate home authority within 12 months from the end of the financial year in which the provision for education to which the claim relates was made.
