The Civil Legal Aid (Costs) Regulations 2013

PART 1

INTERPRETATION AND GENERAL

Effect of these Regulations

3. Where one or more parties are receiving, or have received, civil legal services in relation to proceedings, nothing in these Regulations is to be construed as—

- (a) requiring a court to make a costs order where it would not otherwise have made a costs order; or
- (b) affecting the court's power to make a wasted costs order against a legal representative.
