  - (i) a failure which is sanctionable under section 6J of the 1995 Act (higher-level sanctions), where the reduction was under section 19 of the 1995 Act; or
  - (ii) a failure which is sanctionable under section 6K of the 1995 Act (other sanctions), where the reduction was under section 19A of the 1995 Act or regulation 69B of the JSA Regulations 1996;
- (b) the award (in its continuation as a new style JSA award) is to be reduced in relation to the relevant failure, in accordance with the provisions of this article and Part 3 of the JSA Regulations (sanctions), as modified by this article; and
- (c) the reduction is to be treated, for the purposes of the JSA Regulations 2013, as a reduction under section 6J or, as the case may be, section 6K of the 1995 Act.

(3) The reduction period for the purposes of the JSA Regulations 2013 is to be the number of days which is equivalent to the length of the period of reduction of a jobseeker’s allowance which is applicable to the person under regulation 69, 69A or 69B of the JSA Regulations 1996, minus the number of days (if any) in that period in respect of which the amount of a jobseeker’s allowance was reduced.

(4) Accordingly, regulation 18 of the JSA Regulations 2013 (general principles for calculating reduction periods) applies in relation to the relevant failure as if—

- (a) in paragraph (1), for the words “in accordance with regulations 19, 20 and 21”, there were substituted the words “in accordance with article 18 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 (Commencement No. 9 and Transitional and Transitory Provisions and Commencement No. 8 and Savings and Transitional Provisions (Amendment)) Order 2013”; and
- (b) in paragraph (3), for the words “in accordance with regulation 19, 20 or 21”, there were substituted the words “in accordance with article 18 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 (Commencement No. 9 and Transitional and Transitory Provisions and Commencement No. 8 and Savings and Transitional Provisions (Amendment)) Order 2013”.

Escalation of sanctions: transition from old style JSA

19.—(1) This article applies where a person is entitled to a new style JSA award and, at any time previously, the person was entitled to an old style JSA award.

(2) Where this article applies, for the purposes of determining the applicable reduction period under regulation 19 (higher-level sanction), 20 (medium-level sanction) or 21 (low-level sanction) of the JSA Regulations 2013 in relation to a sanctionable failure by the person other than a failure which is treated as sanctionable by virtue of article 17 or 18—

- (a) a reduction of a new style JSA award in accordance with article 17 or 18; and
- (b) a reduction of an old style JSA award under section 19 (as it applied both before and after substitution by the Act) or 19A of the 1995 Act, or under regulation 69B of the JSA Regulations 1996, which did not result in a reduction under article 17 or 18, is, subject to paragraph (3), to be treated as arising from a sanctionable failure for which the reduction period is the number of days which is equivalent to the length of the period which applied under regulation 69, 69A or 69B of the JSA Regulations 1996.

(3) In determining a reduction period under regulation 19 (higher-level sanction), 20 (medium-level sanction) or 21 (low-level sanction) of the JSA Regulations 2013 in accordance with paragraph (2), no account is to be taken of—

- (b) a reduction of an old style JSA award under section 19 (as it applied both before and after substitution by the Act) or 19A of the 1995 Act, or under regulation 69B of the JSA Regulations 1996, if, at any time after that reduction, the person was entitled to universal credit, a new style JSA award or a new style ESA award, and was subsequently entitled to an old style JSA award, an old style ESA award or income support.

Termination of sanctions under a new style ESA or JSA award

20.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies where—

- (a) a new style ESA award or new style JSA award terminates while there is an outstanding reduction period (within the meaning of regulation 55 of the ESA Regulations 2013 (reduction period to continue where award of employment and support allowance terminates) or regulation 23 of the JSA Regulations 2013 (reduction period to continue where award of jobseeker's allowance terminates)) and the claimant becomes entitled to an old style ESA award, an old style JSA award or income support during that period; or
- (b) article 6(2) applies to a new style ESA award or new style JSA award (such that it continues as an old style ESA award or an old style JSA award) and there is such an outstanding reduction period on the last day of the period of the new style ESA award or new style JSA award.

(2) Where this paragraph applies—

- (a) regulation 55 of the ESA Regulations 2013 or regulation 23 of the JSA Regulations 2013, as the case may be, are to cease to apply; and
- (b) the reduction period is to terminate on the first day of entitlement to an old style ESA award, old style JSA award or income support as the case may be.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order commences provisions of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 (c. 5) (“the Act”) that relate to universal credit (UC) and the abolition of income-related employment and support allowance and of income-based jobseeker’s allowance, by reference to the cases set out in articles 3 and 4. It also makes transitional provision with respect to that abolition, and other provision as referred to below.

An award of an employment and support allowance (ESA) under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2007 (c. 5) in a case where income-related employment and support allowance has been abolished is referred to as a “new style ESA award” and an award of a jobseeker’s allowance (JSA) under the Jobseekers Act 1995 (c. 18) in a case where income-based jobseeker’s allowance has been abolished is referred to as a “new style JSA award”.

An award of ESA under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2007 in a case where income-related employment and support allowance has not been abolished is referred to as an “old style ESA award” and an award of JSA under the Jobseekers Act 1995 in a case where income-based jobseeker’s allowance has not been abolished is referred to as an “old style JSA award”.

Article 3(1) brings into force on 29th April 2013 various provisions relating to UC including certain supplementary and consequential provisions set out in Schedule 2 to the Act.

Article 3(2) brings into force provisions relating to UC in Part 1 of the Act, as set out in Schedule 2, where one of six different cases referred to in article 3(3), relating to claims for UC and any resulting award and to awards of UC without a claim, applies.

The case in article 3(3)(a) relates to the making of a claim for UC in respect of a period that begins on or after 29th April 2013 where a person resides in a “relevant district” at the time that the claim is made (the “relevant districts” are described in Schedule 1). Other conditions (“Pathfinder Group conditions”) for making a claim for UC are set out in the Universal Credit (Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/386).

The other cases referred to in article 3(3) relate to situations where—

- a) a person claims UC and provides incorrect information as to their residence in a relevant district but this is only discovered once payments of UC have been made;
- b) a single person becomes a member of a couple where the other member is entitled to UC;
- c) a couple cease to be a couple and the member of the couple who is not exempt from making a claim for UC, makes a claim within a period of 1 month;
- d) a person is awarded UC as a result of changes in their income within 6 months of their income being such that they were not entitled to UC;
- e) a couple cease to be a couple and an award of UC is made without a claim to the member of the couple who is exempt from making a claim or an award of UC is made without a claim to a couple where the members of the couple were previously entitled to UC as single claimants. In addition, where an award of UC is made without a claim to a member of a couple where the other member of the couple has died.

Article 4(1) brings into force provisions relating to the abolition of income-related employment and support allowance and of income-based jobseeker’s allowance (“the amending provisions”) including the repeal of provisions relating to the abolished allowances as set out in Schedule 3, where one of six different cases applies.

WELFARE REFORM ACT 2012 (COMMENCEMENT NO. 9 AND TRANSITIONAL AND TRANSITORY PROVISIONS AND COMMENCEMENT NO. 8 AND SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS (AMENDMENT)) ORDER 2013

Under article 4(2)(a), the amending provisions come into force in relation to a claim for UC, ESA or JSA, and any award that is made in respect of the claim, where a person claims UC, ESA or JSA in respect of a period that begins on or after 29th April 2013 and, at the time that the claim is made, resides in a relevant district and meets the Pathfinder Group conditions.

Under article 4(2)(b), the amending provisions come into force in relation to a claim for UC and any award that is made in respect of the claim where a person claims UC in respect of a period that begins on or after 29th April 2013 and provides incorrect information as to their residence in a relevant district, or as to their meeting the Pathfinder Group conditions, but this is only discovered once payments of UC have been made.

The other cases in article 4(2) are the same as the cases in (b) to (e) above that relate to UC.

Article 4(4) provides that a reference in paragraph (1) to an award of UC includes a reference to any claim for ESA or JSA, and any award that is made in respect of that claim, where the claim is made within the period of the UC award by a person to whom the award is made and with respect to a period that commences on or after the first day of entitlement to UC. It also includes a reference to any notice under the Employment and Support Allowance (Transitional Provisions, Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit)(Existing Awards)(No. 2) Regulations 2010 (S.I. 2010/1907) (“2010 Transitional Regulations”) that is issued to such a person, relating to the conversion of existing awards of incapacity benefit (IB) and severe disablement allowance (SDA) to ESA, and to any award of ESA that is made as a result of a conversion decision, where the notice is issued within the period of the UC award.

Article 5 contains provisions that apply in connection with article 4.

Article 6 makes transitional provision with respect to the case where—

- a) a person has a new style ESA award or new style JSA award;
- b) any award of UC has come to an end;
- c) the person applies for supersession of the decision to make the award or makes a claim for UC, any claim for UC does not fall within the cases in article 4(2)(b) to (d), and the person does not reside in a relevant district or does not meet the Pathfinder Group conditions at the time that the application is received or the claim is made.

Subject to certain other conditions being satisfied, the award is treated as though the amending provisions had not come into force, such that the person is able to claim income-related ESA or income-based JSA once again.

Article 7 provides for the appointed day and transitional provisions for the provisions in the Act that relate to claimant responsibilities in relation to a new style ESA award or a new style JSA award; these provisions come into force in relation to any case with respect to which the amending provisions come into force.

Article 8 brings into force provisions of Schedule 11 to the Act that concern consideration of revision before appeal.

Article 9 and Schedule 4 provide for transitional provisions whereby, in relation to cases with respect to which the amending provisions have come into force, the 2010 Transitional Regulations are to be read as if the amendments set out in Schedule 4 were made; the amendments substitute references to provisions that apply to new style ESA awards including the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/379).

Articles 10 and 11 provide for transitional provisions with respect to assessments of limited capability for work or for work and work-related activity where a person has a new style ESA award and previously had an old style ESA award, or vice versa.

Articles 12 and 13 provide for transitional provisions with respect to the continuity of jobseeking periods where a person has a new style JSA award and previously had an old style JSA award, or vice versa.

Articles 14 to 16 provide for transitional provisions in relation to sanctions where a person has a new style ESA award and previously had an old style ESA award and was subject to sanctions. Articles 17 to 19 make similar provision for JSA.
