
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2014 No. 1230

The Universal Credit (Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2014

PART 2

TRANSITION TO UNIVERSAL CREDIT

CHAPTER 3

EFFECT OF TRANSITION TO UNIVERSAL CREDIT

Sanctions: temporary return to certain existing benefits

34. If an award of universal credit terminates while there is an outstanding reduction period (within the meaning of regulation 107 of the Universal Credit Regulations) and the claimant becomes entitled to old style JSA, old style ESA or income support (“the relevant benefit”) during that period—

- (a) regulation 107 of the Universal Credit Regulations (reduction period to continue where award terminates) ceases to apply; and
- (b) the reduction period is to terminate on the first date of entitlement to the relevant benefit.