FUEL AND ELECTRICITY CONTROL

The Fuel and Electricity (Heating)
(Control) (Revocations) Order 2014

Made	- - - -	6th June 2014
Laid before Parliament		10th June 2014
Coming into force	- -	9th July 2014

This Order is made by the Secretary of State in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 1(1) and 17(2) of the Energy Act 1976⁽¹⁾.

In accordance with section 1(2) and (3) of the Energy Act 1976, the Secretary of State no longer considers it to be desirable for the purpose of conserving energy to control the use of the substances mentioned in section 1(1)(a) of that Act, or of electricity, for heating premises. The Secretary of State has consulted with organisations in the United Kingdom appearing to him to represent those who will be affected, including both consumers and suppliers of energy, and such other organisations as he thinks appropriate.

Accordingly the Secretary of State makes the following Order:
