The Reserve Forces (Payments to Employers and Partners) Regulations 2014

Determination and payment of claims

8.—(1) An adjudication officer must consider and determine a claim promptly and in accordance with the relevant provisions of these Regulations.

(2) As soon as reasonably practicable after making a determination, an adjudication officer must provide to the claimant a written notification of that determination containing a statement—

- (a) giving reasons for the determination;
- (b) showing how any payment has been calculated;
- (c) that the claimant may, if he or she is dissatisfied with the determination of his or her claim, appeal against the determination to a reserve forces appeal tribunal, and giving the address to which such an appeal should be sent.
