The Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal)
(Immigration and Asylum Chamber) Rules 2014

PART 5

Bail

Decision in bail proceedings

41.—(1) The Tribunal must provide written notice of its decision to—

- (a) the parties; and
- (b) if the bail application is for the bail party to be released on bail, the person having custody of the bail party.

[^{F1}(2) Where bail is granted or varied, the notice must state—

- (a) when the grant of bail commences;
- (b) any bail conditions, including any amounts payable under a financial condition; and
- (c) the information required under rule 42.]

(3) Where bail is refused or where the Tribunal orders [^{F2}payment of a sum under a financial condition], the notice must include reasons for the decision.

^{F3}(4)

(5) Paragraph (6) applies where the Tribunal determines that directions for the removal of the bail party from the United Kingdom are for the time being in force and the directions require the bail party to be removed from the United Kingdom within [^{F4}21] days of the date of the decision to release the bail party on bail ^{F5}....

(6) The notice provided under paragraph (1) must state—

- (a) the determination of the Tribunal under paragraph (5);
- (b) whether the Secretary of State has consented to the release of the bail party;
- (c) where the Secretary of State has not consented to that release, that the bail party must therefore not be released on bail.
