PART 2

Conversion in England and Wales

Conversion declaration

- 3.—(1) The parties to a civil partnership are to be regarded as having converted their civil partnership to a marriage when, having followed one of the procedures mentioned in regulation 5—
- (a) at the invitation of the superintendent registrar, and in the presence of the superintendent registrar and of each other, each of them has signed the conversion declaration; and
  - (b) the superintendent registrar has also signed the conversion declaration in the presence of the parties.
- (2) In this Part of these Regulations, “conversion declaration”, in relation to a conversion, means a document containing—

(7) 1953 c. 37; section 10(1) and (3) was amended by section 251 of, and paragraph 41 of Schedule 29 to, the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70).

(8) Section 5(1) was amended by section 251 of, and paragraph 41 of Schedule 29 to, the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70).

Status: Point in time view as at 07/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Marriage of Same Sex Couples (Conversion of Civil Partnership) Regulations 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the information recorded by the superintendent registrar in accordance with regulation 4(1);
  - (b) a declaration in the following terms: “I solemnly and sincerely declare that we are in a civil partnership with each other and I know of no legal reason why we may not convert our civil partnership into a marriage. I understand that on signing this document we will be converting our civil partnership into a marriage and you will thereby become my lawful wife [or husband].”; and
  - (c) a declaration that the party believes that all of the information and evidence given for the purposes of the conversion is true.
- (3) As well as signing the conversion declaration as mentioned in paragraph (1)(a), the parties may, if they wish, say the words of the declaration in paragraph (2)(b) to each other in the presence of the superintendent registrar.

Commencement Information

I3 Reg. 3 in force at 10.12.2014, see reg. 1

Information to be provided to Superintendent Registrar

4.—(1) Before the parties to a civil partnership may convert their civil partnership into a marriage, the information in paragraphs (2) and (3) must be provided by the parties in accordance with regulations 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10 (as the case may be) and recorded by the superintendent registrar on the conversion declaration.

- (2) Each party must provide the following details pertaining to that party—
  - (a) forenames;
  - (b) surname;
  - (c) date of birth;
  - (d) sex;
  - (e) rank or profession;
  - (f) address; and
  - (g) subject to paragraph (4), father’s forenames, surname, and rank or profession;
- (3) The parties must jointly provide details of—
  - (a) the date and place of the formation of the parties’ civil partnership;
  - (b) the place at which it is proposed that the conversion declaration will be made.
- (4) Paragraph (2)(g) must be recorded by the superintendent registrar as follows—
  - (a) if the father of either party is deceased, the superintendent registrar must record the word “deceased” after the father’s surname;
  - (b) if either party wishes to record a step-father’s name instead of the father’s name, the superintendent registrar must record the word “step-father” after the surname, provided he is or has been married to the mother.
- (5) Where it appears to the superintendent registrar that a party is unable to provide certain of the details required by paragraph (2), the superintendent registrar may convert the civil partnership without those details if it is reasonable to do so.
- (6) The superintendent registrar must record the date on which the information in paragraphs (2) and (3) is recorded on the conversion declaration.

(7) For the purposes of section 4A(3) of the Gender Recognition Act 2004<sup>(9)</sup>, the date on which the conversion application is made means the date recorded by the superintendent registrar in accordance with paragraph (6).

Commencement Information

I4 Reg. 4 in force at 10.12.2014, see reg. 1

Conversion procedures

5. The parties to a civil partnership may convert their civil partnership into a marriage in accordance with, as applicable—

- (a) the standard procedure (regulation 6);
- (b) the procedure for housebound persons (regulation 7);
- (c) the procedure for detained persons (regulation 8);
- (d) the special procedure (which is for cases where a person is seriously ill and is not expected to recover) (regulation 9); or
- (e) the two stage procedure (regulations 10 to 12).

Commencement Information

I5 Reg. 5 in force at 10.12.2014, see reg. 1

Standard procedure for conversion

6.—(1) For the parties to a civil partnership to convert their civil partnership into a marriage in accordance with the standard procedure—

- (a) they must attend together in person before the superintendent registrar of a registration district to provide the information required by regulation 4(2) and (3);
- (b) each party must give the superintendent registrar the evidence specified in Schedule 1 relating to the name, address and date of birth of that party;
- (c) the parties must jointly give the superintendent registrar the evidence specified in Schedule 1 relating to the formation of their civil partnership; and

(2) A conversion in accordance with the standard procedure must take place at a register office or any other premises provided by the local authority for the exercise of the superintendent registrar's functions (not being premises approved for the solemnization of marriages under section 46A of the 1949 Act<sup>(10)</sup>).

F7 Reg. 6(1)(d) substituted (5.10.2016) by The Registration of Births, Deaths, Marriages and Civil Partnerships \(Fees\) Regulations 2016 \(S.I. 2016/911\), reg. 1, Sch. 2 para. 3\(3\)

(9) 2004 c. 7; section 4A was inserted by section 12 of, and paragraph 4 of Schedule 5 to, the Marriage (Same Sex Couples) Act 2013 (c. 30).

(10) 1949 c. 76; section 46A was inserted by section 1(2) of the Marriage Act 1994 (c. 34). There are amendments to the section, not relevant here.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Marriage of Same Sex Couples (Conversion of Civil Partnership) Regulations 2014. (See end of Document for details)

Commencement Information

I6 Reg. 6 in force at 10.12.2014, see reg. 1

Procedure for housebound persons

7.—(1) This regulation applies if the parties to a civil partnership wish to convert their civil partnership into a marriage at the place where one of them is housebound.

(2) A person is housebound at any place if, in relation to that person, a statement is made by a registered medical practitioner that, in his or her opinion—

- (a) because of illness or disability, that person ought not to move or be moved from the place where he or she is at the time the statement is made; and
- (b) it is likely to be the case for at least the following three months that because of the illness or disability that person ought not to move or be moved from that place.

(3) The procedure under which the parties may convert their civil partnership into a marriage is the same as the standard procedure, except that—

- (a) the details and evidence required by regulation 6(1)(a) to (c) must be accompanied by a statement made under paragraph (2) (a “medical statement”), which must have been made not more than 14 days before the day on which the medical statement is received by the superintendent registrar;
- (b) the superintendent registrar must attend the parties together at the place at which one of the civil partners is housebound in order to convert the civil partnership;
- (c) if the conversion does not take place within three months after the date on which the medical statement was made, the superintendent registrar may require the civil partners to provide a new medical statement before any conversion in accordance with the procedure for housebound persons;
- (d) the fact that the superintendent registrar has received the medical statement must be recorded in the conversion register; and

(4) A medical statement may not be made in relation to a person who is detained as described in regulation 8.

F8 Reg. 7(3)(e) substituted (5.10.2016) by The Registration of Births, Deaths, Marriages and Civil Partnerships \(Fees\) Regulations 2016 \(S.I. 2016/911\), reg. 1, Sch. 2 para. 3\(4\)

Commencement Information

I7 Reg. 7 in force at 10.12.2014, see reg. 1

Procedure for detained persons

8.—(1) This regulation applies if the parties to a civil partnership wish to convert their civil partnership into a marriage at the place where one of them is detained.

(2) “Detained” means detained—

- (a) as a patient in a hospital (but otherwise than by virtue of section 2, 4, 5, 35, 36 or 136 of the Mental Health Act 1983(11) (short term detentions)), or

(11) 1983 c. 20. There are amendments to all sections referred to, none relevant here.

- (b) in a prison or other place to which the Prison Act 1952(12) applies.
- (3) The procedure under which the parties may convert their civil partnership into a marriage is the same as the standard procedure, except that—
- (a) the details and evidence required under regulation 6(1)(a) to (c) must be accompanied by a supporting statement, which must have been made not more than 21 days before the day on which the supporting statement is received by the superintendent registrar;
  - (b) the superintendent registrar must attend the parties together at the place identified in the supporting statement in order to convert the civil partnership;
  - (c) if the conversion of the civil partnership does not take place within three months after the day on which the supporting statement was made, the superintendent registrar may require the parties to provide a new supporting statement before any conversion in accordance with the procedure for detained persons;
  - (d) the fact that the superintendent registrar has received the supporting statement must be recorded in the conversion register; and
- [<sup>F9</sup>(e) the parties must pay the appropriate fee to the superintendent registrar.]
- (4) A supporting statement, in relation to a detained person, is a statement made by the responsible authority which—
- (a) identifies the establishment where the person is detained; and
  - (b) states that the responsible authority has no objection to the superintendent registrar attending the establishment to convert the person's civil partnership into a marriage.
- (5) "The responsible authority" means—
- (a) if the person is detained in a hospital, the hospital's managers;
  - (b) if the person is detained in a prison or other place to which the Prison Act 1952 applies, the governor or other officer for the time being in charge of that prison or other place.
- (6) "Patient" and "hospital" have the same meaning as in Part 2 of the Mental Health Act 1983, and "managers" in relation to a hospital, has the same meaning as in section 145(1) of that Act(13).

F9 Reg. 8(3)(e) substituted (5.10.2016) by The Registration of Births, Deaths, Marriages and Civil Partnerships \(Fees\) Regulations 2016 \(S.I. 2016/911\), reg. 1, Sch. 2 para. 3\(5\)

Commencement Information

I8 Reg. 8 in force at 10.12.2014, see reg. 1

The special procedure

9.—(1) This regulation applies if the parties to a civil partnership wish to convert their civil partnership into a marriage under the special procedure, which applies where one of the parties is seriously ill and is not expected to recover.

(2) For the parties to convert their civil partnership into a marriage in accordance with the special procedure, one of them must—

(12) 1952 c. 52.

(13) The definition of "managers" in section 145(1) was amended by section 2(1) of, and paragraph 107(14)(b) of Schedule 1 to, the Health Authorities Act 1995 (c. 17); article 3 of, and paragraph 13(13)(ii) of Schedule 1 to, the References to Health Authorities Order 2007 (S.I. 2007/961); section 2 of, and paragraph 70(d) of Schedule 1 to, the National Health Service (Consequential Provisions) Act 2006 (c. 43); and section 55(2) of, and paragraph 31(1)(a) of Schedule 5 to, the Health and Social Care Act 2012 (c. 7).

Status: Point in time view as at 07/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Marriage of Same Sex Couples (Conversion of Civil Partnership) Regulations 2014. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) attend in person before the superintendent registrar of a registration district to provide the details required by regulation 4(2) and (3) in respect of both parties;
  - (b) provide such evidence as the superintendent registrar may require in order to be satisfied—
    - (i) of the name, address and date of birth of each of the parties;
    - (ii) of the formation of their civil partnership;
    - (iii) that one of the parties—
      - (aa) is seriously ill and is not expected to recover;
      - (bb) cannot be moved to a register office in England and Wales; and
      - (cc) understands the nature and purport of signing the conversion declaration;
- [<sup>F10</sup>(c) pay the appropriate fee to the superintendent registrar.]

(3) The certificate of a registered medical practitioner is sufficient evidence of any or all of the matters referred to in paragraph (2)(b)(iii).

(4) The superintendent registrar must attend the parties at any place at which the seriously ill party referred to in paragraph (2)(b)(iii) is present in order to convert the civil partnership.

(5) A conversion in accordance with the special procedure must take place within one month of the date recorded by the superintendent registrar in accordance with regulation 4(6).

(6) The fact that the conversion was carried out in accordance with the special procedure must be recorded in the conversion register.

F10 Reg. 9(2)(c) substituted (5.10.2016) by The Registration of Births, Deaths, Marriages and Civil Partnerships \(Fees\) Regulations 2016 \(S.I. 2016/911\), reg. 1, Sch. 2 para. 3(6)

The two stage procedure

10.—(1) This regulation and regulation 11 or 12, as the case may be, apply if the parties to a civil partnership wish to convert their civil partnership into a marriage at one of the places mentioned in regulation 11(1) or 12(1).

(2) For the parties to convert their civil partnership into a marriage in accordance with this regulation and regulation 11 or 12—

- (a) they must attend together in person before the superintendent registrar of a registration district to provide the information required by regulation 4(2) and (3);
- (b) each party must give the superintendent registrar the evidence specified in Schedule 1 relating to the name, address and date of birth of that party;
- (c) they must jointly give the superintendent registrar the evidence specified in Schedule 1 relating to the formation of their civil partnership; and
- (d) they must pay to the superintendent registrar the [<sup>F11</sup>appropriate fee].

(3) A conversion in accordance with this regulation and regulation 11 or 12, as the case may be, must take place within one year of the date recorded by the superintendent registrar in accordance with regulation 4(6).

F11 Words in reg. 10\(2\)\(d\) substituted (5.10.2016) by The Registration of Births, Deaths, Marriages and Civil Partnerships \(Fees\) Regulations 2016 \(S.I. 2016/911\), reg. 1, Sch. 2 para. 3(7)

I10 Reg. 10 in force at 10.12.2014, see reg. 1

Conversion on secular premises

11.—(1) This regulation applies if the parties to a civil partnership wish to convert their civil partnership into a marriage—

- (a) in a register office (otherwise than in accordance with the standard procedure in regulation 6); or
- (b) on premises approved for the solemnization of marriages under section 46A of the 1949 Act<sup>(14)</sup> (“approved premises”).

(2) The superintendent registrar referred to in regulation 10(2) must either—

- (a) if the conversion is to take place in the superintendent registrar’s registration district, arrange with the parties, on payment by the parties of the fee for a conversion on secular premises (in addition to the fee payable under regulation 10(2)(d)), to attend at a place mentioned in paragraph (1) to sign the conversion declaration in accordance with regulation 3(1); or
- (b) if the conversion is to take place in a different registration district, notify the parties and the superintendent registrar of that registration district that the requirements of regulation 10(2) are met in respect of the parties to the civil partnership.

(3) On receipt of a notification under paragraph (2)(b), and on payment by the parties of the fee for a conversion on secular premises, the superintendent registrar of the registration district in which the conversion is to take place must arrange with the parties to attend at a place mentioned in paragraph (1) to sign the conversion declaration in accordance with regulation 3(1).

(4) No religious service may be used at a conversion in accordance with this regulation.

[<sup>F12</sup>(5) The fee for a conversion on secular premises referred to in paragraph (2)(a) and (3)—

- (a) is payable to the superintendent registrar of the registration district in which the conversion is to take place; and
- (b) is of an amount to be determined by the authority as reasonably representing all the costs to it of providing a superintendent registrar to attend at the conversion.]

(6) In this regulation,

“authority” means the local authority in whose area the register office or approved premises are situated.

F12 Reg. 11(5) substituted (5.10.2016) by The Registration of Births, Deaths, Marriages and Civil Partnerships \(Fees\) Regulations 2016 \(S.I. 2016/911\), reg. 1, Sch. 2 para. 3\(7\)\(a\)

- (a) in a building registered for the solemnization of marriages of same sex couples under section 43A of the 1949 Act(15), and in which a ceremony under section 46 of the 1949 Act(16) is to be held in respect of the marriage immediately following the conversion;
  - (b) (except where regulations 7, 8 or 9 apply), at a place at which a ceremony according to the usages of the Jews or the Society of Friends under section 46 of the 1949 Act is to be held in respect of the marriage immediately following the conversion; or
  - (c) where at least one of the parties to a proposed conversion is a qualified person within the meaning of section 68(2) of the 1949 Act(17), in a naval, military or air force chapel registered for the solemnization of marriages of same sex couples under section 70A of the 1949 Act(18), and in which a ceremony under section 46 of the 1949 Act is to be held in respect of the marriage immediately following the conversion.
- (2) If the superintendent registrar referred to in regulation 10(2) is satisfied that the requirements section 46(1C)(19) of the 1949 Act are met, the superintendent registrar must either—
- (a) if the conversion is to take place in the superintendent registrar’s registration district, arrange with the parties, on payment by the parties of the [F13appropriate] fee for a conversion on religious premises (in addition to the fee payable under regulation 10(2) (d)), to attend at a place mentioned in paragraph (1) to sign the conversion declaration in accordance with regulation 3(1); or
  - (b) if the conversion is to take place in a different registration district, notify the parties and the superintendent registrar of that registration district that the requirements of regulation 10(2) and section 46(1C) of the 1949 Act are met in respect of the parties to the civil partnership.
- (3) On receipt of a notification under paragraph (2)(b), and on payment by the parties of the [F14appropriate] fee for a conversion on religious premises, the superintendent registrar of the registration district in which the conversion is to take place must arrange with the parties to attend at a place mentioned in paragraph (1) to sign the conversion declaration in accordance with regulation 3(1).
- F15(4) .....
- (5) The superintendent registrar (referred to in regulation 10(2) or in regulation 12(3), or both) may require—
- (a) the relevant governing authority to produce evidence relating to the consent referred to in section 46(1C) of the 1949 Act; and
  - (b) the trustees or governing body of the relevant religious organisation to provide written confirmation that a ceremony under section 46 of the 1949 Act is to be held in respect of the marriage immediately following the conversion.
- (6) In determining if a person is a qualified person for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the “relevant date” for the purposes of section 68 of the 1949 Act is the date of the conversion.
- (7) In this regulation, “relevant governing authority” and “relevant religious organisation” have the same meaning as in section 46(1D) of the 1949 Act.

Duty to register marriage resulting from conversion

18.—(1) As soon as practicable after the conversion declaration is signed, the superintendent registrar who has signed the conversion declaration in accordance with regulation 3(1)(b) must register the following details in the conversion register—

- (a) the date and place of registration of the marriage (see paragraph (2));
- (b) the date from which the marriage is to be treated as having subsisted by virtue of section 9(6) of the 2013 Act<sup>(20)</sup>;
- (c) the condition of each of the parties, which is to be registered as ‘civil partner’;
- (d) the following details pertaining to each of the parties—
  - (i) forenames;
  - (ii) surname;
  - (iii) age;
  - (iv) rank or profession;
  - (v) address; and
  - (vi) subject to paragraph (3), father’s forenames, surname, and rank or profession.

(2) In paragraph (1)(a), the date and place of registration of the marriage means the date on, and place at which the conversion declaration is signed, whether or not the marriage was registered on that date and at that place.

(3) Paragraph (1)(d)(vi) must be completed as follows—

- (a) if the father of either party is deceased, the superintendent registrar must enter the word “deceased” after the father’s surname;
- (b) if either party wishes to record a step-father’s name instead of the father’s name, the superintendent registrar must enter the word “step-father” after the surname, provided he is or has been married to the mother.

(4) The parties to the conversion are entitled, once the marriage has been registered, to a certified copy of the entry relating to it in the conversion register on payment, to the superintendent registrar, of [<sup>F18</sup>the appropriate fee].

(5) A superintendent registrar must not register any marriage resulting from a conversion to which he or she is a party.

<sup>(20)</sup> 2013 c. 30. Section 9(6) provides that where a civil partnership is converted into a marriage under section 9, the resulting marriage is to be treated as having subsisted since the date the civil partnership was formed.

Verification of information and evidence

20.—(1) A superintendent registrar may obtain from the persons mentioned in paragraph (2), information relating to persons seeking to convert a civil partnership for the purposes mentioned in paragraph (3).

(2) The persons from whom information may be obtained are—

- (a) the superintendent registrar of any registration district in England and Wales;
- (b) any registration authority;
- (c) the Registrar General.

(3) The purposes for which information may be obtained are—

- (a) to verify the formation and existence of the civil partnership;
- (b) to verify any of the information and evidence provided by the civil partners.

(4) A superintendent registrar may interview each of the persons seeking to convert a civil partnership into a marriage individually.

(5) Nothing in this regulation limits any other power under which information may be disclosed or obtained.

Commencement Information

Conversion declaration

32. In this Part of these Regulations, the “conversion declaration” means a document containing—

- (a) the following details pertaining to each of the parties—
  - (i) forenames;
  - (ii) surname;
  - (iii) nationality;
  - (iv) date of birth;
  - (v) sex;
  - (vi) address;
- (b) the date and place of the formation of the civil partnership;
- (c) a statement to the effect that the party has had, for the period of 28 days ending on the day on which the conversion declaration is signed, their usual residence within the consular district of the registration officer;
- (d) a declaration in the following terms: “I solemnly and sincerely declare that we are in a civil partnership with each other and I know of no legal reason why we may not convert our civil partnership into a marriage. I understand that on signing this document we will be converting our civil partnership into a marriage and you will thereby become my lawful wife [or husband]”; and

- (e) a declaration that the party believes all of the information and evidence given for the purposes of the conversion declaration is true.

Commencement Information

I30 Reg. 32 in force at 10.12.2014, see reg. 1

Duty to register conversions

33.—(1) The registration officer for the consular district, nominated for such purposes by the Secretary of State, must maintain a register, in which each registration officer must register the details included pursuant to regulation 32(a) and (b) on every conversion declaration signed by him or her in accordance with regulation 30(1)(c).

(2) Every nominated registration officer must, at such times as are determined by the Secretary of State, send to the Registrar General for England and Wales a copy of any entry in the register made since that information was last sent, and if there has been no entry over the relevant time period, confirmation of that fact.

(3) A certified copy of any entry in the register must be provided to any person upon request and on payment of the appropriate fee<sup>(28)</sup>, by the Secretary of State until such time as a certified copy is available from the Registrar General for England and Wales and, at all other times, by the Registrar General for England and Wales upon payment of the same fee as would be charged for a copy of an entry in the conversion register in the custody of the Registrar General for England and Wales.

<sup>[F23]</sup>(4) Where the Registrar General for England and Wales receives under paragraph (2) a copy of an entry relating to—

- (a) the conversion of a convertible Northern Ireland civil partnership into a marriage, or
- (b) the conversion, under Part 4 of the Marriage and Civil Partnership (Northern Ireland) (No. 2) Regulations 2020, of a marriage into a civil partnership, the Registrar General for England and Wales must send a certified copy of the entry to the Registrar General for Northern Ireland.

(5) A copy of an entry sent to the Registrar General for Northern Ireland under paragraph (4)(a) is a marriage registration record for the purposes of Article 35 of the Marriage (Northern Ireland) Order 2003.

(6) A copy of an entry sent to the Registrar General for Northern Ireland under paragraph (4)(b) is a civil partnership registration record for the purposes of section 155 of the Civil Partnership Act 2004.]

Power to dispense with requirements

34.—(1) If the Secretary of State is satisfied that there are good reasons why the requirement as to residence in regulation 32(c) cannot be complied with, the Secretary of State may authorise the registration officer to amend this part of the conversion declaration to reduce the residence period.

<sup>(28)</sup> The fee for a certified copy provided by the Secretary of State is prescribed by Order under the Consular Fees Act 1980 (c. 23).

Status: Point in time view as at 07/12/2020.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Marriage of Same Sex Couples (Conversion of Civil Partnership) Regulations 2014. (See end of Document for details)

(2) The Secretary of State must notify the registration officer in writing of the decision to authorise the reduction of the residence period and provide a statement of reasons for the decision.

(3) If the Secretary of State authorises the registration officer to amend the conversion declaration in accordance with paragraph (1), the registration officer must record the good reasons referred to in paragraph (1) and initial the amendment made to the conversion declaration.

Conversion declaration

39. In this Part of these Regulations, the “conversion declaration” means a document containing—

- (a) the following details pertaining to each of the parties—
  - (i) forenames;
  - (ii) surname;
  - (iii) nationality;
  - (iv) date of birth;
  - (v) sex;
  - (vi) address;
  - (vii) in respect of each of the parties to the civil partnership who falls within one of the descriptions in regulation 36(1)—
    - (aa) where that person is a member of Her Majesty’s forces serving in the country or territory in which the conversion is proposed to take place, the name and location of the unit in which that person is serving;
    - (bb) where that person is a relevant civilian employed in that country or territory, the name and location of the post where that person is employed;
    - (cc) where the person falls within the description in regulation 36(1)(c) (but does not fall within either sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of regulation 36(1)), the information referred to in sub-paragraph (aa) or (bb) (as the case may be) about each of that person’s parents who falls within the description in regulation 36(1)(a) or (b).
- (b) the date and place of the formation of the civil partnership;
- (c) a declaration in the following terms: “I solemnly and sincerely declare that we are in a civil partnership with each other and I know of no legal reason why we may not convert our civil partnership into a marriage. I understand that on signing this document we will be converting our civil partnership into a marriage and you will thereby become my lawful wife [or husband]”; and
- (d) a declaration that the party believes all of the information and evidence given for the purposes of the conversion declaration is true.
