EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which apply in England only, specify fees payable to the Secretary of State in the field of plant health. They revoke and replace the Plant Health Fees (England) Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/494) (“the 2013 Regulations”) (regulation 9).

The fees are payable in relation to specified inspections and other operations carried out pursuant to Council Directive 2000/29/EC on protective measures against the introduction into the Community of organisms harmful to plants or plant products and against their spread within the Community (OJ No L 169, 10.7.2000, p.1).

The fees for documentary, identity and plant health checks in relation to certain imports of plants, plant products and other objects from third countries (regulation 2 and Schedules 1, 2 and 3) are specified pursuant to the requirement in Article 13d of Council Directive 2000/29/EC.

The fee levels provided for in these Regulations form the final part of a phased move towards full cost recovery of fees over a period of three years. These Regulations provide for average decreases and increases in, and the continuation unchanged of, the fees specified in the 2013 Regulations as follows:

- (1) import inspection fees (other than documentary and identity checks) decrease by 3.5% (regulation 2 and Schedules 1 and 2);
- (2) fees for import inspection documentary and identity checks increase by 24.5% (regulation 2 and Schedule 3);
- (3) fees relating to seed potato inspections remain unchanged (regulation 3 and Schedule 4);
- (4) licensing fees increase by 2.2% (regulation 4 and Schedule 5);
- (5) fees for plant passporting services increase by 21.2% (regulation 5); and
- (6) fees for inspections of potatoes originating in Egypt remain unchanged (regulation 6).

New fees are introduced in relation to potatoes originating in Lebanon as follows: £31.86 for an application for a licence (Schedule 5, item 5) and £117.39 for an inspection (regulation 7).

Regulation 8 sets out the consequences of failure to pay any fee.
