The Faculty Jurisdiction Rules 2015

PART 24

Appeals in the provincial courts

Respondent's notice

- 24.4.—(1) A respondent may file a respondent's notice with the registrar of the provincial court.
- (2) A respondent must file a respondent's notice if the respondent—
- (a) is seeking permission to appeal; or
  - (b) wishes to ask the provincial court to uphold the decision of the consistory court for reasons different from or additional to those given by the consistory court.
- (3) Any respondent's notice must be filed within 14 days of the date on which the respondent receives a copy of the notice of appeal in accordance with rule 24.1(1)(b) or the Dean's determination in accordance with rule 24.2(1)(b).
- (4) A respondent who files a respondent's notice must serve a copy on the appellant and every other party not later than 7 days after it is filed.
