Duty of relevant landlord to comply with a remedial notice

6.—(1) Where a remedial notice is served on a landlord who is in breach of one or more of the duties under regulation 4(1), the landlord must take the remedial action specified in the notice within the period specified in regulation 5(2)(d).

(2) A landlord is not to be taken to be in breach of the duty under paragraph (1) if the landlord can show he, she or it has taken all reasonable steps, other than legal proceedings, to comply with the duty.

Duty of local housing authority to arrange remedial action

7.—(1) Where a local housing authority is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that a landlord on whom it has served a remedial notice is in breach of the duty under regulation 6(1), the authority must, if the necessary consent is given, arrange for an authorised person to take the remedial action specified in the remedial notice.

(2) The local housing authority must ensure the authorised person takes the remedial action within 28 days beginning with the day on which the authority is first satisfied under paragraph (1).

(3) An authorised person must—

- (a) give not less than 48 hours' notice of the remedial action to the occupier of the premises on which it is to be taken; and
- (b) if required to do so by or on behalf of the landlord or occupier, produce evidence of identity and authority.

(5) A local housing authority is not to be taken to be in breach of a duty under this regulation where the authority can show it has taken all reasonable steps, other than legal proceedings, to comply with the duty.

PART 4

Penalty charges

Penalty for breach of the duty under regulation 6(1)

8.—(1) Where a local housing authority is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that a landlord on whom it has served a remedial notice is in breach of the duty under regulation 6(1), the authority may require the landlord to pay a penalty charge of such amount as the authority may determine.

(2) The amount of the penalty charge must not exceed £5,000.

(3) Where a local housing authority decides to impose a penalty charge, the authority must serve notice of that fact on the landlord (“a penalty charge notice”) within six weeks beginning with the day on which the authority is first satisfied under paragraph (1).

Content of penalty charge notice

9.—(1) A penalty charge notice must state—

- (a) the reasons for imposing the penalty charge;

- (b) the premises to which the penalty charge relates;

  - (ii) to give written notice to the local housing authority that the landlord wishes the authority to review the penalty charge notice;
- (f) how payment of the penalty charge must be made; and
- (g) the person to whom, and the address (including if appropriate any email address) at which, a notice requesting a review may be sent and to which any representations relating to the review may be addressed.

(3) The period specified under paragraph (1)(e) must not be less than 28 days beginning with the day on which the penalty charge notice is served.

Review of penalty charge notice

- (c) serve notice of its decision to the landlord.

Appeals

11.—(1) A landlord who is served with a notice under regulation 10(2)(c) confirming or varying a penalty charge notice may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the local housing authority's decision.

(2) The grounds for appeal are that—

- (a) the decision to confirm or vary the penalty charge notice was based on an error of fact;
- (b) the decision was wrong in law;
- (c) the amount of the penalty charge is unreasonable;
- (d) the decision was unreasonable for any other reason.

(3) Where a landlord appeals to the First-tier Tribunal, the operation of the penalty charge notice is suspended until the appeal is finally determined or withdrawn.

(4) The Tribunal may quash, confirm or vary the penalty charge notice, but may not increase the amount of the penalty charge.

Recovery of penalty charge

12.—(1) The local housing authority may recover the penalty charge on the order of a court, as if payable under a court order.

(2) Proceedings for the recovery of the penalty charge may not be started before the end of the period specified under regulation 9(1)(e).

(3) Paragraph (4) applies if, within that period, the landlord gives notice to the local housing authority that the landlord wishes the authority to review the penalty charge notice.

(4) Proceedings for the recovery of the penalty charge may not be started—

(a) before the end of the period within which the landlord may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the local housing authority's decision on review; and

(b) where the landlord so appeals, before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the appeal is finally determined or withdrawn.

(5) In proceedings for the recovery of the penalty charge a certificate which is—

(a) signed by the local housing authority's chief finance officer (within the meaning of section 5 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989(a)), and

(b) states that the penalty charge has not been received by a date specified in that certificate, is conclusive evidence of that fact, and a certificate to that effect and purporting to be signed is to be treated as being signed, unless the contrary is proved.

(6) Sums received by a local housing authority under a penalty charge may be used by the authority for any of its functions.

Information to be published by local housing authority

13.—(1) A local housing authority must prepare and publish a statement of principles which it proposes to follow in determining the amount of a penalty charge.

(2) A local housing authority may revise its statement of principles and, where it does so, it must publish the revised statement.

(3) In determining the amount of a penalty charge, a local housing authority must have regard to the statement of principles which was most recently prepared and published at the time when the breach in question occurred.

PART 5

Notices

Service of notices

14.—(1) Any notice served on a landlord under these Regulations must be in writing and may be amended, suspended or revoked in writing at any time.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations impose duties on certain landlords of residential premises in respect of smoke and carbon monoxide alarms. The duties do not apply to a landlord who is a registered provider of social housing. The Regulations require local housing authorities to enforce the requirements.

Part 1 sets out preliminary matters and defines terms used in the Regulations. In particular, a “specified tenancy” is defined as a tenancy (including a licence, lease, sub-lease and sub-tenancy) of residential premises in England which grants one or more persons the right to occupy all or part of the premises as their only or main residence, provides for the payment of rent and is not of a description mentioned in the Schedule.

Part 2 sets out the requirements on a “relevant landlord”.

Regulation 3 describes who is a “relevant landlord” for the purposes of these Regulations.

Regulation 4(1) requires a relevant landlord in respect of a specified tenancy to ensure that, during any period when the premises are occupied under the tenancy, a smoke alarm is equipped on every storey and a carbon monoxide alarm is equipped in any room which contains a solid fuel-burning combustion appliance. The landlord also has to ensure that any such alarm is in proper working order at the start of a new tenancy.

Part 3 places enforcement duties on local housing authorities. Where a local housing authority has reasonable grounds to believe a landlord is in breach of a duty under regulation 4(1), the authority must serve a remedial notice on the landlord (regulation 5). Regulation 6(1) makes it a duty to comply with a remedial notice. If the landlord fails to do so, the authority must arrange for remedial action to be taken at the premises (regulation 7).

Part 4 provides for a local housing authority to impose a penalty charge on a landlord who fails to comply with a remedial notice in breach of the duty under regulation 6(1). Regulations 8, 9 and 10 set out the procedure to be followed in imposing a penalty charge. A penalty charge notice must be served on the landlord. A landlord may give written notice requesting that the local housing authority review the penalty charge notice.

Regulation 11 provides for a right of appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against a local authority’s decision on review. The process for bringing an appeal is governed by the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (General Regulatory Chamber) Rules 2009 (SI 2009/1976).

Regulation 12 provides for the enforcement of a penalty charge.

Regulation 13 requires a local housing authority to publish a statement of principles which it must have regard to in determining the amount of a penalty charge.

Part 5 contains provision about the serving of notices on landlords under these Regulations.

Part 6 makes amendments to paragraph 1 of Schedule 4 to the Housing Act 2004. These have the effect of introducing new and revised conditions, in respect of smoke and carbon monoxide alarms, which must be included in a licence under Part 2 or 3 of that Act of a house in England.

Two regulatory impact assessments have been prepared in relation to these Regulations (one relating to smoke alarms and the other relating to carbon monoxide alarms). The assessments will be placed in the Library of each House of Parliament and made available on www.gov.uk. Copies may be obtained from the Department for Communities and Local Government, 2 Marsham Street, London, SW1P 4DF.
