Alteration of police areas

8.—(1) This regulation applies if a police area<sup>M5</sup> in relation to a home police force is combined with another police area to form part of that police area, or is divided into 2 or more police areas, by an order made under—

- (a) section 32 of the Police Act 1996;
- (b) section 58 of the Local Government Act 1972; or
- (c) section 17 of the Local Government Act 1992.

(2) If a police area (“the original police area”) is combined with another police area to form part of that police area (“the combined police area”), for the purpose of these Regulations—

- (a) the police force for the combined police area is taken to be the police force for the original police area; and
- (b) the police pension authority for a member of the police force for the combined police area is taken to be the police pension authority for a member of the police force for the original police area.

(3) If as a result of dividing a police area (“the divided police area”), a member of the home police force in the divided police area is transferred to a home police force in another police area (“the new police area”), for the purpose of these Regulations—

- (a) the police force for the new police area is taken to be the police force for the divided police area; and
- (b) the police pension authority for a member of the police force for the new police area is taken to be the police pension authority for a member of the police force for the divided police area.

Scheme manager approval

10. In this Part, “scheme manager approval” means—

- (a) for a Police Pensions Board established to assist one scheme manager, the approval of that scheme manager; or
- (b) for a Police Pensions Board established to assist more than one scheme manager, the approval of each of those scheme managers.

Delegation

11.—(1) The Secretary of State may delegate any functions under these Regulations, including this power to delegate.

(2) The scheme manager may delegate any functions under these Regulations, including this power to delegate.

Scheme manager's obligation to pass on member's records

12.—(1) Paragraph (2) applies if a member of a police force in England and Wales (“the original police force”) becomes a member of another police force in England and Wales (“the new police force”).

(2) The scheme manager for the original police force must give the scheme manager for the new police force within 3 months after the member becomes a member of the new police force any information or documents required by the scheme manager for the new police force for the purpose of—

- (a) the scheme manager's functions under these Regulations; or
- (b) records required to be kept by the scheme manager under regulations made under section 16 of the Act.

(3) Paragraph (4) applies if a member of a police force in England and Wales (“the original police force”) becomes a member of the Police Service of Scotland.

(4) The scheme manager for the original police force must give the scheme manager for the Police Service of Scotland any information or documents required by the scheme manager for the Police Service of Scotland for the purpose of—

- (a) the scheme manager's functions under the 2015 Scotland police pension scheme; or

(b) records required to be kept by the scheme manager under regulations made under section 16 of the Act.

(5) Paragraph (6) applies if a member of a police force in England and Wales (“the original police force”) becomes a member of the police service in Northern Ireland (“the NI police service”).

(6) The scheme manager for the original police force must give the scheme manager for the NI police service any information or documents required by the scheme manager for the NI police service for the purpose of—

- (a) the scheme manager's functions under the 2015 NI police pension scheme; or
- (b) records required to be kept by the scheme manager under regulations made under section 16 of the Public Service Pensions Act (Northern Ireland) 2014 <sup>M8</sup>.

Police Pension Boards: membership

14.—(1) Subject to regulation 16 (conflicts of interest), a Police Pension Board is to consist of the following members who are to be entitled to vote in its proceedings (“voting members”)—

- (a) a chair and a deputy chair appointed by the scheme manager; and
- (b) at least 4, and no more than 12, persons appointed by the chair with scheme manager approval.

(2) The chair and deputy chair must not both be employer representatives or member representatives<sup>M10</sup>.

(3) If the scheme manager does not appoint an independent chair, the chair and deputy chair must alternate their roles at intervals agreed by the Board.

(4) Equal numbers of employer representatives and member representatives must be appointed to the Board.

(5) The chair, with scheme manager approval, may appoint to the Police Pension Board up to 4 independent members who are not to be entitled to vote in the Board's proceedings (“non-voting members”).

(6) A member of a Police Pension Board is to hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of that member's appointment.

(7) In this regulation, “independent” means neither an employer representative nor a member representative.

Marginal Citations

M10 See section 5(6) of the Act for the meaning of “employer representatives” and “member representatives”.

Police Pension Boards: procedure

15.—(1) A Police Pension Board may determine its own procedures, subject to scheme manager approval.

(2) If there is a tied vote on any issue, the chair has a casting vote.

Police Pension Boards: conflicts of interest

16.—(1) Before appointing, or approving the appointment of, any person under regulation 14 (membership), the scheme manager must be satisfied that that person does not have a conflict of interest<sup>M11</sup>.

(2) The scheme manager must be satisfied from time to time that none of the members of a Police Pension Board has a conflict of interest.

(3) If the scheme manager determines that a member of a Police Pension Board has a conflict of interest, the scheme manager must terminate the appointment of the member.

(4) A member of a Police Pension Board, or a person proposed to be appointed as such a member, must provide the scheme manager with any information the scheme manager may reasonably require for the purpose of paragraph (1) or (2).
