The Planning (Hazardous Substances) Regulations 2015

PART 7

Revocations, amendments, savings, transitional provisions, Crown application and review

Review

- 35.—(1) The Secretary of State must from time to time—
- (a) carry out a review of these Regulations so far as they implement the land-use aspects of the Directive in relation to England (and in relation to Wales and Scotland, to the extent that these Regulations apply in relation to Wales and Scotland);
 - (b) set out the conclusions of the review in a report; and
 - (c) publish the report.
- (2) In carrying out the review the Secretary of State must, so far as is reasonable, have regard to how the Directive is implemented in other member States.
- (3) The report must in particular—
- (a) set out the objectives intended to be achieved by the land-use aspects of the Directive and by these Regulations;
 - (b) assess the extent to which those objectives are achieved; and
 - (c) assess whether those objectives remain appropriate and, if so, the extent to which they could be achieved with a system that imposes less regulation.
- (4) The first report under this regulation must be published before the end of the period of five years beginning with the commencement date.
- (5) Reports under this regulation must afterwards be published at intervals not exceeding five years.
