

SCHEDULE 1

Lines dividing Landward Areas from Seaward Areas

7. The line dividing the Shetland Islands and the waters adjacent to those Islands, to be treated for the purposes of these Regulations as landward areas, from the areas to be treated for such purposes as seaward areas, is—

- (a) a line parallel with, and
- (b) three nautical miles seaward of, the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea adjacent to those Islands is measured, except that Foula and Fair Isle and the waters adjacent to them are to be treated as seaward areas.
