The International Interests in Aircraft Equipment
(Cape Town Convention) Regulations 2015

PART 6

GENERAL

Representative capacities

49.—(1) A person who does an act listed in paragraph (2) in an agency, trust or other representative capacity is entitled to assert rights and interests under the Cape Town Convention.

(2) This subsection applies to the following acts—

- (a) entering into an agreement in respect of an aircraft object,
- (b) entering into a sale of an aircraft object,
- (c) registering an international interest in an aircraft object, and
- (d) registering a sale of an aircraft object.

Consequential amendments

50. The enactments listed in Schedule 5 are amended as specified.

Transitional provision

51. These Regulations do not apply to a pre-existing right or interest, which retains the priority it enjoyed under the law of the United Kingdom before the effective date of these Regulations.

Review

52.—(1) The Secretary of State must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which these Regulations come into force—

- (a) carry out a review of the effect of these Regulations, and
 - (b) prepare and publish a report setting out the conclusions of the review.
- (2) The report must in particular—
- (a) set out the objectives to be achieved by these Regulations, and
 - (b) assess the extent to which those objectives have been achieved.
- (3) The Secretary of State must lay the report before Parliament.
