

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO

THE WELWYN HATFIELD (ELECTORAL CHANGES) ORDER 2016

2016 No. 116

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

- 2.1 The Order provides for new district wards and numbers of district councillors for the district of Welwyn Hatfield at the district elections in 2016 and thereafter.

3. Matters of special interest to Parliament

Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

- 3.1 None.

Other matters of interest to the House of Commons

- 3.2 As this instrument is subject to the negative procedure and has not been prayed against, consideration as to whether there are other matters of interest to the House of Commons does not arise at this stage.

4. Legislative Context

- 4.1 The Commission has power under section 59 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 (the 2009 Act) to make an order giving effect to recommendations contained in a report, prepared under section 58(4) of the 2009 Act, after conducting an electoral review under section 56(1) of that Act. This instrument is being made to give effect to the Commission's recommendations for new electoral arrangements set out in its report prepared following an electoral review of the district of Welwyn Hatfield.

5. Extent and Territorial Application

- 5.1 The extent of this instrument is England.
5.2 The territorial application of this instrument is England.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

- 6.1 As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why

- 7.1 The purpose of an electoral review is to decide on the appropriate electoral arrangements including the number of councillors and the names, number and boundaries of wards or divisions for a specific local authority. The Commission began the electoral review of Welwyn Hatfield in May 2015. The Commission decided to conduct the review as, based on the February 2014 electorate figures, 41% of the borough's wards had a variance from the average number of electors per councillor greater than 10%.

- 7.2 An electoral review aims to ensure that the number of electors represented by each county or district councillor is as close to equal as possible, but the recommendations must also have regard to community identities and interests and the need for effective and convenient local government. To achieve these aims, the Commission tries to ensure that the number of electors per councillor in every division or ward is as close as possible to the average for the authority, but is happy to show flexibility in moving away from the average based on the evidence provided during the consultation stages of the review. Following a four-stage review process the Commission published its 'Final recommendations - New electoral arrangements for Welwyn Hatfield Borough Council'¹ on 1 December 2015.
- 7.3 The Order provides for changes to the electoral arrangements for the district of Welwyn Hatfield at the district elections in 2016 as recommended by the Commission. The existing wards of the district will be replaced by 16 new ones, each ward will each return three councillors. The Commission considered that the evidence received justified no wards having variances predicted to vary by more than 10% from the authority average by 2020.
- 7.4 Under section 56 of the 2009 Act, whenever the Commission recommends changes to the electoral arrangements for a district council it must also recommend whether, in consequence of those changes, any changes should be made to the electoral arrangements for any parish council that is within that district. Among other things, under Schedule 2 to that Act recommendations must ensure that no parish ward is split between new district wards and under section 56 of that Act recommendations must be made regarding the number of parish councillors for each parish ward.
- 7.5 Consequently, in addition to making changes to the electoral arrangements for the district the Order also, where necessary, makes provision with respect to the establishment of new parish wards and sets the number of parish councillors for each of those parish wards.

Consolidation

- 7.6 The Order does not amend or revoke any legislation.

8. Consultation outcome

- 8.1 The Order gives effect to recommendations that were consulted on during the review of electoral arrangements from March until October 2015. There was an initial eight-week consultation, during which the Commission asked for proposals on the most appropriate number of councillors and ward boundaries for the district. Having considered the submissions received, the Commission published its 'Draft recommendations - New electoral arrangements for Welwyn Hatfield Borough Council'² on 25 August 2015. Following an eight-week consultation on the draft recommendations, the Commission considered the further evidence received and published its final recommendations.

- 8.2 It should be noted the Council's electoral cycle is one of elections by thirds. The Welwyn Hatfield (Electoral Changes) Order 2016 will come into effect at whole-council elections on the ordinary day of elections in May 2016. Thereafter, the Council will revert to election by thirds. During the course of the review, the Commission received approximately 80 representations. The consultations involved Welwyn Hatfield Borough Council, parish and town councils and other interested parties. The Commission considered that a council size of 48 would ensure effective and convenient local government for the district. The Commission based its draft recommendations on pattern of three-member wards, drawing on proposals made in submissions by the Council, and the Conservative, Labour and Liberal Democrat groups represented on the Council. The Commission made some modifications in specific areas to better reflect the statutory criteria.
- 8.3 In response to the consultation on the draft recommendations, the Commission modified its recommendations in Welwyn area and the Welwyn Garden City areas of Handside and Sherrards to reflect the localised comments received.
- 8.4 The Commission also received submissions opposing its proposed boundaries in all wards except for the Hartfield Villages ward. The Commission did not consider, however that satisfactory evidence expressed in terms of the statutory criteria had been received for it to alter the remainder of its draft recommendations. The Commission therefore confirmed the remainder of its draft recommendations for the district as final.
- 8.5 A detailed analysis of the outcome of the consultation is set out in the report 'Final recommendations - New electoral arrangements for 'Welwyn Hatfield Borough Council' which is available at <http://www.lgbce.org.uk>.

9. Guidance

- 9.1 The Commission does not intend to issue any guidance alongside this instrument. This is not considered necessary as the Order is self-explanatory and gives effect to recommendations following consultation with interested parties as to the changes to electoral arrangements.
- 9.2 Once the Order has been made, the Commission will publish a press release and distribute to local media advising that new electoral arrangements will be implemented at the next local elections. The press release will also direct interested parties to the Commission's website where the final recommendations will be available in detail.

10. Impact

- 10.1 There is no impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.
- 10.2 The impact on the public sector will be limited to the area for which the Order makes provision. The one-off cost of producing the map referred to by the instrument is to be funded by the Commission. The one-off cost of amending the electoral register to reflect the new district wards and parish wards is to be funded by Welwyn Hatfield Borough.

10.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument.

11. Regulating small business

11.1 The legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.

12. Monitoring & review

12.1 The Commission will have no role in monitoring Welwyn Hatfield Borough Council's implementation of the Welwyn Hatfield (Electoral Changes) Order 2016. The Commission is not required to undertake such monitoring; that is a matter for the relevant officers of Welwyn Hatfield Borough Council. The Order will be reviewed insofar as the Commission continually monitors local authorities in England to identify any that meet its criteria for electoral reviews.
