The International Sikh Youth Federation was added to the list of proscribed organisations by the Terrorism Act 2000 (Proscribed Organisations) (Amendment) Order 2001 (S.I. 2001/1261) in March 2001. ## 7. Policy background

What is being done and why

- 7.1 Section 3 of the Act provides a power to proscribe, by order, an organisation which is “concerned in terrorism”: that is, an organisation which commits or participates in acts of terrorism; prepares for terrorism; promotes or encourages terrorism; or is otherwise concerned in terrorism. An organisation is proscribed in the UK as soon as the order adding it to Schedule 2 to the Act comes into force. It is a criminal offence for a person to belong to or to invite support for a proscribed organisation. It is also a criminal offence to arrange a meeting in support of a proscribed organisation or to wear clothing or to carry articles in public which arouse reasonable suspicion that an individual is a member or supporter of the proscribed organisation. Proscription means the financial assets of the organisation become terrorist property and can be subject to freezing and seizure.
- 7.2 The International Sikh Youth Federation was added to the list of proscribed organisations by the Terrorism Act 2000 (Proscribed Organisations) (Amendment) Order 2001 (S.I. 2001/1261) in March 2001, since when it has remained proscribed.
- 7.3 Under section 4 of the Act, a proscribed organisation, or any person affected by the proscription of the organisation, may apply to the Secretary of State for deproscription and if the Secretary of State refuses that application the applicant may appeal to the Proscribed Organisations Appeals Commission.
- 7.4 An application was made to the Secretary of State for the deproscription of the International Sikh Youth Federation. The Secretary of State has now decided that there is insufficient information to conclude that the group remains concerned in terrorism. Accordingly, this instrument removes the International Sikh Youth Federation from the list in Schedule 2 to the Act.

12.1 A review of the case for proscription will be carried out if there becomes available any evidence that indicates that the International Sikh Youth Federation may be concerned in terrorism as defined by section 3(5) of the Act.

12.2 If the activities of a group meet the criteria for proscription, the group may be proscribed.
