CHAPTER 4

Flight crew licensing – general provisions

Instruction in flying

170.—(1) This article applies to instruction in flying given to any person flying or about to fly a flying machine or glider for the purpose of becoming qualified for—

- (a) the grant of a pilot's licence under this Order or Part-FCL; or
 - (b) the inclusion, variation, renewal or revalidation of any rating, certificate or qualification in a pilot's licence under this Order or Part-FCL.
- (2) A person must not give any instruction in flying to which this article applies unless—
- (a) they hold a licence, granted or rendered valid under this Order or a Part-FCL licence, entitling them to act as pilot in command of the aircraft for the purpose and in the circumstances under which the instruction is to be given; and
 - (b) the licence includes an instructor's rating or certificate entitling the holder to give the instruction.
