

SCHEDULE 3

Provisions relating to appeals in Scotland

PART 1

Appeals procedure

1. A person (the “appellant”) who wishes to appeal under regulation 26(8) or 28(11) must—
  - (a) give the Scottish Ministers written notice of the appeal together with the relevant documents (together these are referred to as the “notice of appeal”), and
  - (a) at the same time, give SEPA a copy of the notice of appeal.
